

CUT ALONG DOTTED LINE

Countess Olga Albani

The Revelers

THE RAVEN HAired SOPRANO OF SUNNY SPAIN, Countess Olga Albani, whose lovely voice fills the air these summer evenings, appears here in reverie. She poses beside a bust of herself on which the young American sculptress, Vion R. Lush, is now at work.

CUT ALONG DOTTED LINE
Gallery of Radio Stars

PERENNIAL FAVORITES OF THE KNOB TWISTING LEGION are The Revelers, male quartet and accompanist, presented in sepia herewith. Left to right: Wilfred Glenn, basso; Phil Dewey, baritone; James Melton, one of the most popular of young American tenors; Frank Black, director and accompanist, and Lewis James, tenor.

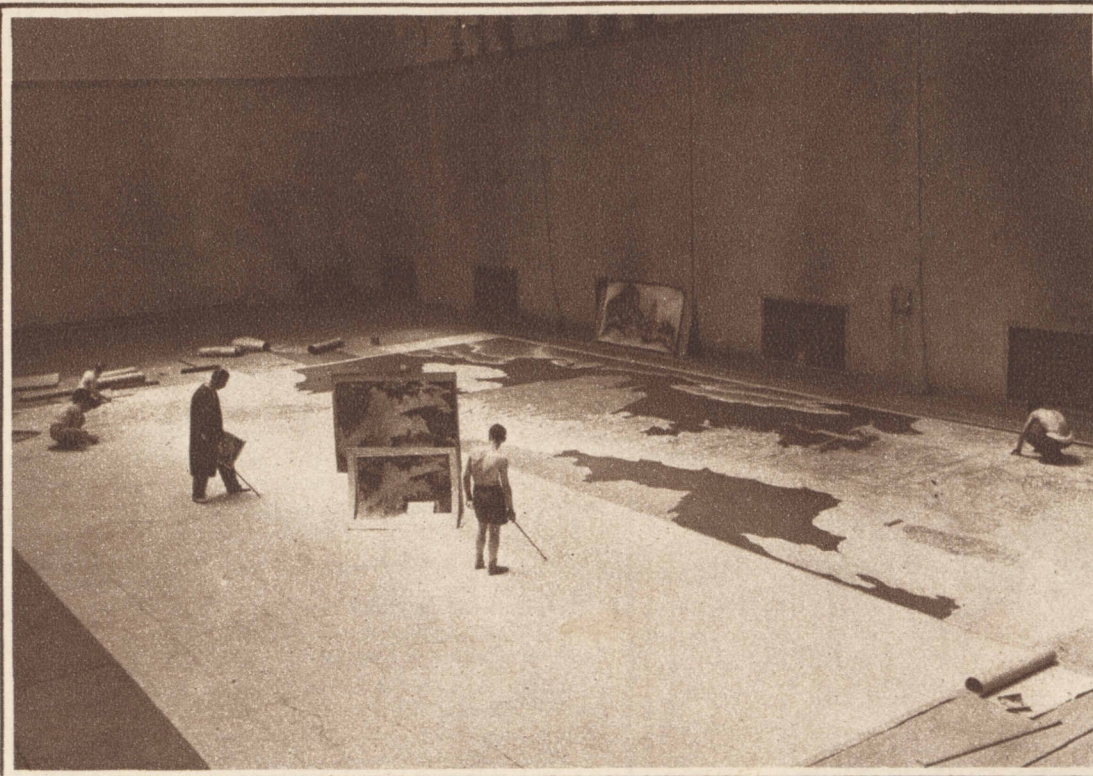

If you would like to see pictures of your favorite radio stars printed in this series, write your suggestions to Radio Pictures Editor, Chicago Tribune, P. O. Box 1718, Chicago, Ill. Next week pictures of QUIN RYAN and JANE FROMAN will be printed in this section, and, like those above, will be so presented as to be suitable for framing or for the pages of your scrap books or albums.

ALL DRESSED UP IN FLYING KIT, Miss Joyce Hartung, not yet one year old, left Detroit with her parents on the fourth annual Michigan air tour. (Acme photo.)

THEY CALL THESE HATS IN ENGLAND—Harrow schoolboys. (Acme photo.)

AN INDOOR TENNIS COURT HIS ATELIER—Ezra Winter, commissioned to paint a sixty foot mural for the Rockefeller Center's international music hall in New York, found the area of his studio inadequate, so, with his staff, moved to a Long Island City indoor tennis court, where he and they are seen at work on the huge painting. (Associated Press photo.)

THESE NINE SETS OF TWINS attend a school in Edmonton, London, where all are pupils in the same class. (Acme photo.)