

WHERE ABRAHAM LIVED, in the scriptural city of Ur of the Chaldees, a joint archeological expedition of the University of Pennsylvania and the British Museum has unearthed remarkable finds. Here workmen were clearing away the dome-shaped stone roof of an intricate grave, which yielded a treasure of gold jewelry.

(Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

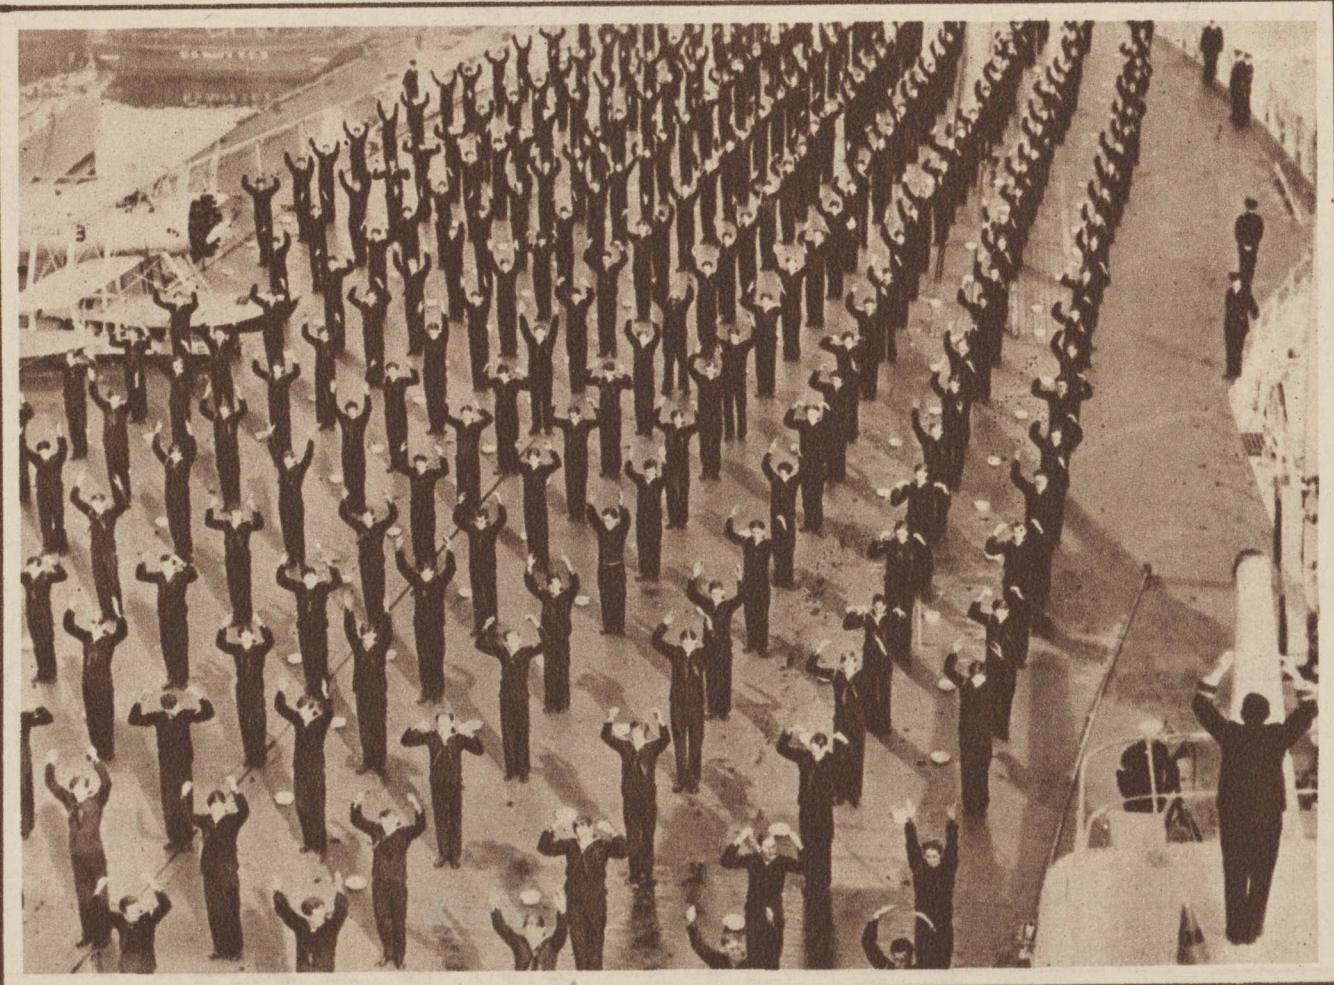

A RELIC OF UR—An ancient cemetery gave up this copper figure, fashioned with human features and the horns and ears of a bull.

(Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

THE OLDEST POILU—Sergt. Antoine Courchinoux, 83, has been made a knight of the Legion of Honor in recognition of his services to France. Enlisting during the world war to avenge the death of a soldier grandson, he went up to the front line against orders in 1915.

(Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

HANDS UP—What takes on the appearance of a collective holdup here is part of the process of keeping Uncle Sam's sailor lads in condition. The scene of the calisthenics is the deck of the plane carrier Saratoga.

(Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

FASHION AUTHORITY advises women: "Regardless of how fashionably dressed you are, remember that a pretty frock will not overcome the handicap of red or chapped hands, cracked lips or a coarse texture to the skin of the arms and shoulders." Like many women, you may be surprised to know that a white, smooth, velvety skin, even in winter—even if you do your own housework—is a fashion edict of prime importance, and one that you can easily obey by using Campana's Italian Balm. It restores the skin's natural softness over-night. Thirty-five cent and sixty cent bottles at drug and department stores. Approved by Good Housekeeping. Free travel-size bottle on request. Campana Corp., Twenty Lincoln Way, Batavia, Ill.

"To me, a most important reason for preferring the new Frederics Vita-Tonic Permanent Wave is that I have confidence that my hair is perfect—smooth and soft in wide, natural waves. No other method of waving is quite like it."

Joan Crawford

Joan Crawford

... finds how to have Naturally Wavy Hair

A MARVELOUS new permanent with soft, wide, natural waves that exactly reproduce Nature's own, is the new-found joy of Joan Crawford.

The beautiful, natural effect is obtained with the New Frederics Vita-Tonic Process with which the hair is wrapped. Without affecting the texture, it imparts to the hair an alluring lustre, a soft, flowing loveliness.

Authorized Frederics operators the country over are carefully trained to use this remarkable new method. Make sure you receive a true Frederics Vita-Tonic Wave.

"Frederics Vita-Tonic" is imprinted on the wrapper used on each tress of hair.

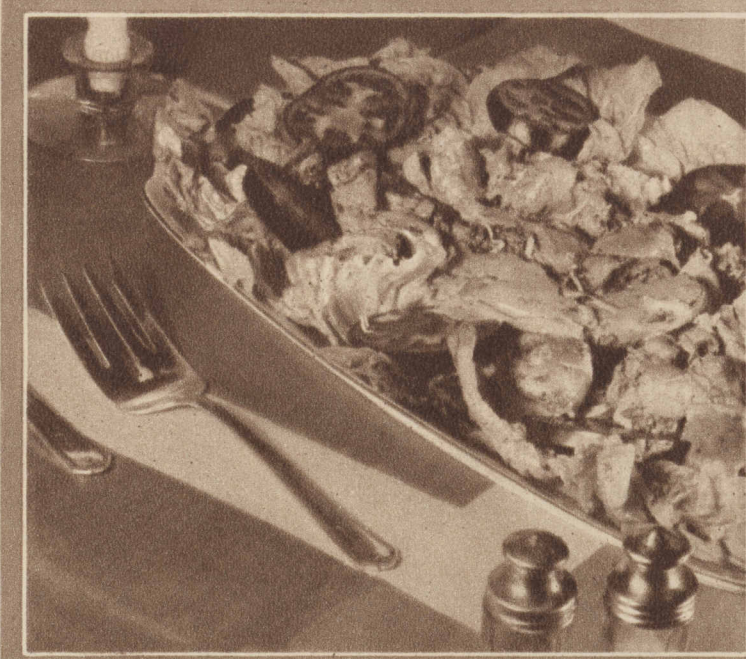

Write for booklet, "The Glorious Gift of Lovely Hair" which tells how to care for your wave, and generous, introductory tube of the New Frederics Hair Trane Cream, for keeping your wave orderly. Address E. Frederics, Inc., Dept. 31, 235 East 45th Street, New York.

THESE glorious waves of loveliness flow about the head of pretty Joan Crawford, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's charming screen favorite.

FREDERICS VITA-TONIC WAVES

CRAB SALAD—Separate a tin of Three Diamonds Fancy Crabmeat into its original portions. Moisten thoroughly with cooked dressing or mayonnaise. Serve on crisp leaves of lettuce. Slices of pimiento or tomato make an attractive garnish. Or use cream if desired. A ½-pound tin will serve six persons.

CRABMEAT

snow-white and matchless in flavor . . . from the icy depths of the North Pacific

ONLY in the waters of the North Pacific Ocean are found these Taraba-Gani—the huge deep-sea crabs that furnish Three Diamonds Fancy Crabmeat. The select claw and leg meat is used—insuring large, whole, meaty pieces instead of the usual shreds. It is more delicate in flavor and free from the annoying bits of shell that so commonly spoil an otherwise tempting dish.

Three Diamonds Crabmeat is delicious just as it comes from the wrapper—served simply in salads and sandwiches, although there are a number of more elaborate and equally tempting dishes to be prepared with this wonderful meat. During Lent, when variety in the diet is desirable and especially difficult to find, crabmeat can be served often, and in so many different ways as to be always a delightful treat.

The famous Mitsubishi Company of Japan controls the packing of Three Diamonds Fancy Crabmeat. It is packed in specially prepared tins, of approximately ½-pound and 1-pound sizes, to sell at moderate prices. Your grocer has it or can easily get it for you. Mitsubishi Shoji Kaisha, Ltd., New York.

THREE DIAMONDS

FANCY CRABMEAT

Three Diamonds Fancy Crabmeat is always packed in parchment wrappers, and sealed in lacquered tins. The process is done on the fishing grounds, so that this meat comes to your table with all the delight of its subtle flavor and tender texture.

"If you must be a swell, remember you're a gentleman, too!" . . . . .

Old Jolyon Forsyte gazed steadily at his son as he said it. And Young Jolyon stood . . . wondering . . .

Another of John Galsworthy's Famous Forsyte Stories

A SAD AFFAIR

Appears in the Woman's Section Next Sunday

Don't fail to read this brilliant short story by John Galsworthy—next Sunday!