How a Working Girl May Make Herself Beautiful.

By DELLA CARSON.

How on a girl who works can make her self beautiful? Beauty is a thing that cannot be bought, but it can be paid for. The most beautiful woman in the world is not the one who has the most money, but the one who has the most heart. And yet, how often do we see a girl who works looking so much younger than her years? It is because she has taken the trouble to make herself beautiful.

Little Likes to Beauty. Are important.

It is not the girl who works who has the most heart, but the one who has the most heart. The girl who works who has the most heart is the one who has the most beauty. And beauty is the thing that will make her work successful.

Concentrate on the Fact.

Of course, the working girl who wants to make herself beautiful, must not forget to concentrate on her work. The girl who works who has the most heart is the one who has the most beauty. And beauty is the thing that will make her work successful.
