June's the Month of Brides and Bargains.

With the opening of the June sales, High Quality stores to marry Little Prices, and instead of calling it a remittance, the world approves the union. For there's business sense in it.

Inventory is just a month away—seventy-six departments are hurrying to unload—old prices disappear, and in their places are those few ones that will carry off the goods.

Monday's purchases by customers having accounts with us, will be charged as June 1st.
