Educational and Religious Leaders to Hold Convention

By the Rev. W. B. Norton.

THE Religious Education association, with national headquarters in Chicago, at 332 South Michigan avenue, will hold its fourteenth annual convention in Boston, Mass., on Feb. 27 to March 1. The subject will be, "Religious Education and the Coming World Order."

The evening sessions will have as speakers Bishop Francis J. McConnel, Denver; President William D. Mackenzie, Hartford, Conn.; Rabbi W. H. Friedman, Denver; John H. Finley, Albany, N. Y.; the Rev. John Howard Melish, rector Holy Trinity church, New York, and Samuel W. McCall, governor of Massachusetts. At the closing general session the Rev. Henry F. Cope of Chicago, general secretary, will give "A Year's Work in World-Wide Religious Education," and Prof. E. C. Moore of Harvard university will speak on "Religious Education and Present-Day World Progress."

There are scores of leaders in the religious and education world who will take part in the many departmental meetings.

Bishop William F. McDowell, who superintended the work of the Methodist Episcopal church in Chicago for twelve years, returns to the city tomorrow to give the address at the Sunday Evening club in Orchestra hall. His subject will be "A Man's Battle for His Ideals." Bishop McDowell was assigned by the last general conference to Washington, D. C., as successor to Bishop Earl Cranston, retired.

During his residence in Chicago Bishop McDowell also served as president of the trustees of Northwestern university. He had formerly been active in the field of education, being chancellor of the University of Denver and corresponding secretary of the Methodist board of education.

While in Chicago he will serve as preacher at the University of Chicago for two Sundays. He has also been appointed to give the Lyman Beecher lectures on preaching at Yale next spring.

James H. Douglas, a trustee of the Sunday Evening club, will act as scripture reader. There will be an organ recital by Mrs. Katherine Howard Ward, and a special feature of the musical program by the choir of 100 will be the singing of Rachmaninoff's "The Angel" by the women's chorus.

A retreat for Roman Catholics will open in St. Mary's church tomorrow evening and will close Friday evening. A special noon mass will be offered every day during the retreat, beginning at 12:10 o'clock. A five minute sermon will be given.

Prof. F. Augustine Smith, for years director of music of the New First Congregational church, Chicago, now on the faculty of Boston university, will have charge of the music.

Among the speakers from Chicago and vicinity will be Prof. W. J. Davidson, Garrett Biblical institute, Evanston; Prof. Theodore G. Soares, University of Chicago; the Rev. J. W. F. Davies, Winnetka; Charles D. Lowry, assistant superintendent Chicago public schools, and Miss Agnes Taylor, dean Congregational training school, Chicago.

Baptists from all sections of Chicago will meet next Friday night in the La Salle avenue church under the direction of the Baptist executive council. The work of the La Salle Avenue church and the conditions in the section of the city where the church is located will be illustrated by stereopticon slides and by demonstrations of various groups and nationalities. The Rev. Joseph B. Rogers, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Frank L. Anderson, superintendent of the executive council, will be in general charge.

The picture shows a portion of one of four new buildings just completed of the Garrett Biblical institute, Evanston, the theological school of the Methodist Episcopal church in affiliation with the Northwestern university, and of the president, the Rev. Charles M. Stuart, D. D., LL.D. The four buildings erected are dormitories for students and cost $135,000. Other buildings to be erected, including a museum and library, will bring the total cost to $750,000. The construction is of Bedford stone. The buildings face Sheridan road just south of the university gymnasium and extend to Lake Michigan. The arrangement of the buildings provides for an unobstructed vista from Sheridan road to the lake.

A campaign will be opened tomorrow for the raising of $1,500,000 for the institute. At the Chicago Methodist ministers' meeting in the First church, Washington and Clark streets, Bishop W. F. McDowell, Washington, D. C., formerly of Evanston, and Prof. Lynn Harold Hough of the institute, will speak and the Garrett Biblical institute Glee club will sing. Following the ministers' meeting the alumni of the institute will hold their midyear luncheon at the Great Northern hotel, at which the speakers will be: Bishop Thomas Nicholson, Chicago; Bishop W. F. Anderson, Cincinnati; Bishop C. B. Mitchell, of St. Paul, and the three leaders in the financial campaign, the Rev. J. W. Hancher, the Rev. F. M. Stone, and the Rev. H. P. Dudley, and President Stuart.

Dr. Hancher already has directed campaigns which have resulted in the securing of $16,000,000 for various church colleges.

The Rev. William M. Lawrence will preach tonight at 8 o'clock in the North Shore Baptist church. Dr. Lawrence was for many years pastor of the Second Baptist church when it was one of the largest churches in Chicago.

Prof. E. O. Sellers of the Moody Bible institute will address the Baptist ministers tomorrow morning on "The Evangelistic Opportunity of the Sunday School."

The Woman's Home Missionary union of the Congregational churches will meet next Tuesday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. in the Park Manor church. The speakers will be Supt. Frank L. Moore of Colorado and Utah, the Rev. Roy J. Snell of Alaska, and Mrs. Robert C. Chapin of Wisconsin. Mrs. Chapin's subject will be "The American Highlanders."

The pastorate of the Second Congregational church, Oak Park, made vacant by the going to Boston of the Rev. E. D. Gaylord, is to be filled on March 1 by the Rev. Noble S. Elderkin, for the last seven years pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, Lawrence, Kas. The Second church reports an addition of sixty-six members, forty-one on confession of faith, during 1916.

The Rev. Arthur J. Francis, secretary of the Chicago community trust, has received an anonymous gift of $50,000. The giver signed himself "a believer in the fundamental righteousness of the plan."

The Rev. W. H. Pierce, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, Thirtieth street and Indian avenue, is spending the month of January in making addresses in the churches of Wisconsin, lecturing on the subject, "The Worst Ward in the World." He uses the charts prepared as the result of the survey of the First ward, Chicago, by thirty social workers last June.

Here is an extract from the Crusader, published by a local Episcopal church. It is printed with apologies to B. L. T.: "By all appearances the matrimonial germ has found a firm lodgment in our community. First we were staggered by the news of Bert and Sadie's engagement, then we were almost floored by Mildred's engagement, and finally we were knocked completely off our very respectable feet by the news that Dolly is married. Yep, eloped with the man who printed the minstrel show program, leaving only an 'I am married' note as a wedding announcement."

Bishop Thomas Nicholson of the Methodist Episcopal church will preside at a meeting of the district superintendents of the Chicago area and secretaries of the various boards of the denomination beginning Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and closing Thursday afternoon. The meeting will be held in the Ravenswood Methodist Episcopal church. Luncheon and dinners will be served to the visitors at the Wilson avenue Young Men's Christian association. The Chicago area includes three-fourths of Illinois and parts of Indiana and Wisconsin. About fifty district superintendents and board secretaries will attend.

The Austin Presbyterian church last week voted to give up the practice of renting its pews. It will hereafter depend for support on voluntary offerings.

The First Congregational church of Wilmette will be dedicated today with a sermon by the Rev. Prof. Henry Hammersley Walker of the Chicago Theological seminary. Although the church has been used for several years, it was never dedicated because its indebtedness had not been covered by subscriptions. The total indebtedness, about $18,000, has now been subscribed. A new organ was used for the first time last Tuesday evening, when Prof. John Doane of Northwestern university gave a recital. The Rev. Roy Edwin Bowers is pastor of the church.

The Rev. George T. Arnold, pastor of the Trinity Presbyterian church, has been selected to arrange a craft schedule for the daily vacation Bible schools which will be conducted in the cities of the United States under the auspices of the Presbyterian denomination, and will hereafter be known as the Presbyterian Vacation Bible schools. He will also design a special button. A conference of vacation Bible school workers of the cities of the midwest will be held in Chicago tomorrow to make plans for next summer.

Sixteen missions for the deaf maintained by the Protestant Episcopal church have a communicant membership of 1,238. The All-Angels mission of Chicago has seventy communicants.

The Congregational churches of Illinois are engaged in raising funds for a church at the Illinois State university. The Rev. Clement G. Clark, 19 South La Salle street, is the executive secretary of the enterprise. The Congregationalists own a lot facing the university campus and the money will be devoted toward the erection of a building.

The Rev. I. W. Allen of Paris, Ill., has been called to the pastorate of the La Grange Presbyterian church.

The Chicago Church federation, of which the Rev. W. B. Millard is the executive secretary, has listed fifty laymen, members of the different denominations, who have agreed to give their services to churches in need in speaking in pulpits in the absence of pastors. Dr. Millard says he thinks the list will be doubled.

Waldemar Skoglund has been elected editor of the Svenska Standaret, the denominational organ of the Swedish Baptists. He will begin work Feb. 1 as the successor of the Rev. E. Sjostrand.

The Rev. John Thompson, superintendent of the Chicago Home Missionary and Church Extension society of the Methodist Episcopal church, will inaugurate about Feb. 23 a campaign for the raising of an endowment of $500,000. The details of the plan will be made known at a massmeeting at that time which will be addressed by Bishop Thomas Nicholson.

Preparations for Lent, which begins Feb. 21, are being made by the Protestant Episcopalians by the holding of a series of conferences on spiritual subjects in sixteen representative parishes. The conferences are under the direction of the Brotherwood of St. Andrew. Four conferences are held in each church and an effort is made to enlist the attendance of men at the regular evening services of the parishes.

The Jefferson Park Presbyterian church, Adams and Throop streets, will celebrate soon its fiftieth anniversary. Francis L. Patton, former president of Princeton university, was once pastor there. This was the church which Billy Sunday, the evangelist, first joined and in which he was for a time the Sunday school superintendent. The present pastor is the Rev. Francis J. Martin.

The St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal church, Washington boulevard and North Robey street will have a home coming Feb. 7. The parish is the third oldest in Chicago only St. James and Trinity being older. It was organized sixty-seven years ago although bearing the present name thirty-eight.

The Rev. Myron W. Haynes, formerly pastor of the Englewood and Belden Avenue Baptist churches, Chicago, will become financial superintendent of the Baptist Temple and Northwestern Bible and Training school, Minneapolis.

Announce the Final Days of This Great

January Clearance

These are the further reductions which many have been anticipating. The prices in each case have been figured down to a point at which we confidently expect most of the items will hardly last beyond Monday's selling.

(SHOP IN THE MORNING HOURS)

IT IS OUR AIM to dispose immediately of all odd and broken lots, and practically every Misses' and Women's Winter Coat, Suit, Dress and Skirt on OUR GREAT THIRD AND FOURTH FLOORS.

Women's and Misses' Suits, $10.00, $15.00, $20.00, $25.00.
Women's and Misses Cloth Coats, $10.00, $15.00, $25.00 to $95.00.
Women's and Misses' Silk Velour and Plush Coats, $19.50 to $100.
Women's and Misses' Dresses, $10.00, $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00.

Five Wonderful Lots of Winter Coats

To Be Disposed of at $10.00, $15.00, $22.50, $25.00, $35.00. Originally $20.00 to $75.00.

The approach of Inventory day—our eagerness to clear out every Winter Coat now while wearing time is at its height—prompts us to name such prices as are not at all justified, when the original costs or high qualities are considered.

One Hundred and Fifty Finest Velour Cloth and Bolivia Coats

Entire remaining stock to be closed out Monday at $35.00, $45.00, $55.00, $65.00, $75.00 and $95.00—none higher. Originally up to $165.00.

Last Word About Plush and Silk Velour Coats, Now $19.50 to $95.00.

Women who wait for January or February to purchase fine Coats to last several seasons will have placed at their disposal Monday the choicest collection of Silk Velour and Plush Coats ever offered previous to closing the season. We anticipate Monday's selling to be so extensive that assortments may not remain satisfactory for future choosing, so those in the market for high type Winter Coats will be wise to make their selection Monday as early as possible.

Entire Stock of Evening Coats

to be sold now. Included are a number of very choice Evening Coats, many of which may be worn to afternoon functions, to be offered now at very low prices.

$125.00, $150.00, $175.00, $225.00 and $265.00. Choice Now $95.00.

Also one lot of Evening Coats to be closed out at $22.50, $25.00 and $35.00. Most of above are less than half former prices.

Remaining Stock of Women's Winter Dresses

at such prices as should dispose of them quickly Monday.

$10.00 to $100.00 for Dresses Originally $18.50 to $175.00.

Just 100 Dancing Frocks.

Women's sizes 34 to 40 only. Evening shades, fresh and pretty, many made to sell at double these prices. To be offered Monday.

$10.00, $12.50, $15.00.

One Rack of Mussed Dresses, $10.00, $15.00, $20.00, $25.00, which we feel are such extreme values that Monday's sales should deplete the entire collection.

Originally $18.50 to $50, Now $10 to $25.

Some Model Dresses remain from earlier displays, and these are now priced $49.50 to $100.00, originally $65.00 to $175.00. One of a kind. Most of above Dresses are exquisite designs for evening wear—a small number are for afternoon functions.

Final Clearance of Furs

Every Woman's Winter Suit Monday

$10.00, $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00 None Higher

The original prices $25.00 to $75.00.

We doubt if one winter suit will remain after hours Monday—in fact, it is our aim to close out tomorrow every piece, as Inventory day is approaching and we desire to clear decks for entirely new goods arriving daily. To women interested we earnestly advise early morning attendance at this sale.

Remaining Stock Women's Winter Skirts.

As quantities are limited and prices exceedingly low, we advise an early selection.
