CHICAGO SUNDAY TRIBUNE

MEN, Women, Boys, Girls! Beginning next Sunday you will have an opportunity to obtain free of cost with the Chicago Sunday Tribune a series of portraits and pictures of famous men and dramatic events in American history.

These pictures will be faithful full-color reproductions of the works of famous artists. They will be large in size—suitable for framing or for mounting in scrap books and albums. Most of these pictures never before have been available to collectors.

Accompanying each set of pictures will be interesting and authoritative descriptive articles by James O'Donnell Bennett, giving you an intimate and accurate account of many of the most outstanding events in American history.

Included in this series are the following subjects:

- Benjamin Franklin (Portrait)
- Benjamin Franklin at the French Court in 1778
- Abraham Lincoln (His Son's Favorite Portrait)
- George Washington, His Officers and Battles
- Army and Navy Heroes of the Revolution
- Foreign Leaders In Our War for Independence.

Students of history will welcome this series of full color pictures and interesting articles. The first of the series—Benjamin Franklin's portrait and Franklin at the French Court in 1778—will be presented in next Sunday's Chicago Sunday Tribune. Don't miss them!

Saves Money on Colds

Every cold you avoid, or check promptly, means a saving in money, time and health.

To have fewer colds and less severe colds, follow the new Vicks Plan for better Control-of-Colds—fully explained in each Vicks package.

When Colds THREATEN
... to Prevent many colds

IF a Cold DEVELOPS
... to End it Sooner

If there is a cough, you'll like the new Vicks Cough Drop—medicated with ingredients of VapoRub.

$1 WILL BE PAID for the best caption for this picture—Roto Editor. Ruth Tankersley, 1452 E. Marquette road, Chicago, was paid the award for her title, "Don Robot," describing the tin figures of horse and rider published on Jan. 15. Another of these "caption writers'" pictures will appear next Sunday.

MYRNA LOY models this black velvet dress with blouse of silver lame, worn with hat, coat and muff of white galyak. The hat is trimmed with a transparent visor.
