NOTE THEATRICAL — Two famous guests at a party given by E. T. Stotesbury at Palm Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Florenz Ziegfeld. And it is no doubt superfluous to identify Mrs. Ziegfeld as Billie Burke. (Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

THE LEVIATHANS OF MUSICAL COMEDY, the press agent calls them; and, as their combined weight is 1,160 pounds, and their average 290—why not? Left to right: Herbert Corbell, of varied musical show history; Billy House, of "Luckee Girl"; Sydney Greenstreet, with Mrs. Fiske in "Much Ado About Nothing"; and Frank McIntyre, of "Boom, Boom."

But the day the senior Mr. Forsythe appeared in Cambridge turned out to be a day of reckoning.
