

REMEMBERING GETTYSBURG—Gutzon Borglum's conception of the charge of North Carolinians at Gettysburg will be placed on the battlefield at a cost of $50,000. The monument is to commemorate the heroism of the 125,000 men who served from that state in the Civil war.

"GEORGE ROGERS CLARK AT KASKASKIA," by James E. McBurney, is one of three historical paintings of the period hanging in the Parkside school. A short comment on the painting by Eleanor Jewett, art critic of The Tribune, will be given during the children's special concert hour, from 5:30 to 6 o'clock today, over W-G-N, The Tribune's radio station on the Drake hotel.

MAJOR SEGRAVE'S WONDER CAR, the Golden Arrow, was exhibited in London by Captain Irving, its designer, before being brought to America. At Daytona Beach, Fla., the major will attempt to establish a new world mark for speed.

The Page Lay Blank Before Her

SHE had seen her own finger nails as she lifted the pen. Ugly, broken edges, and not at all in keeping with the rest of her appearance. She flushed. How many others had noticed them?

No matter what your station in life, neat trim finger-tips are essential. Keep them well cared for with a La Cross Nail File—just a few minutes each day. At drug and department stores, 10c to 45c.

Other aids to beauty are the La Cross Scissors, 75c to $2.25, and La Cross Tweezers, 10c to 50c. These may also be had at all drug and department stores.

The Lieutenant learned of the affair between the Major and Ronan's Wife!

IN that instant the Major's ambitions, family and happiness were on the brink of ruin. With Lepean out of the way, no one would know—but living, he was a constant menace to Major Preece and Mrs. Ronan.

And then—Lieutenant Lepean was found dead in his bed next morning. . . . Did the Major give Lepean an overdose of the sleeping powder—or had he another enemy? Coming—
