$25.00 AWARDS

$100 SPECIAL AWARD

$25.00 AWARDS

Mrs. Louise Nessler, Mrs. Louise Nessler, CHICAGO, ILL. —You have an acute mind, and plenty of initiative and courage, but you should fight down that streak of pride in you which makes you hard to admit failure. And you should overcome your tendency to procrastinate.

Ruth McDonald, Ruth McDonald, HOPKINSVILLE, KY. —Since yours is rather a susceptible nature it would be only wise to sharpen your judgment of people; you permit yourself to be imposed upon. You are faithful and trustworthy and except for the above trait quite self-reliant.

J. Strong Glasier, J. Strong Glasier, CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND. —What success you achieve will be the fruit of conscientiousness and industry. Yours is not the temperament to go after flashy schemes; your conservatism is one of your assets.

Marie Eleanor Bergman, Marie E. Bergman, MILWAUKEE, WIS. —You are a determined, strong-minded young woman, with a tremendous desire to get ahead and the aggressiveness that will guide you to your goal. You are often much too tense about small matters, however.

Harry S. Collinson, Harry S. Collinson, ARKANSAS CITY, KAS. —You should try to develop a more open mind; while there is complete frankness and good heartedness in your nature you sometimes close your mind to sound suggestions. You will be a successful business man.

Theresa M. Pitlick, Theresa M. Pitlick, Pierre, S. D. —While you are versatile and imaginative you are at least more practical than you yourself know and with your good mind and strong will, sometimes unexercised—will, you could achieve business success if you went after it.

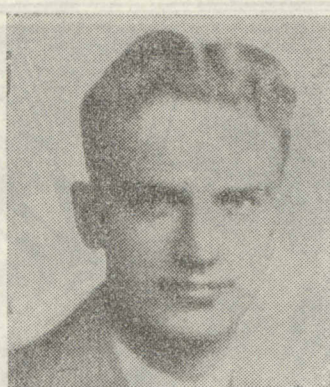

Ruth McCartney, Ruth McCartney, CHICAGO, ILL. —You will succeed best in fields social or domestic; your refinement and gentility would make highly competitive industry rather distasteful to you. You would make a good teacher of small children.

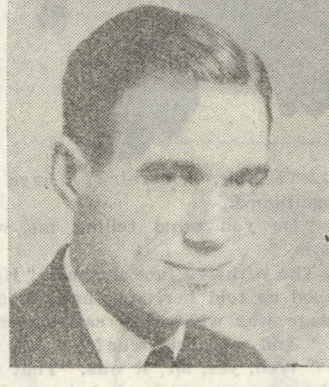

Mrs. Edward Slack, Mrs. Edward Slack, ZANESVILLE, O. —You are a leader, with a great deal of quiet force. Sometimes you are overly critical. Common sense is one of your strong points; if you chose you could be an outstanding business success.

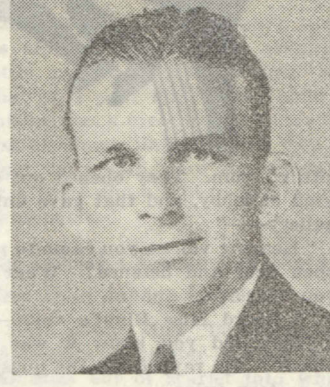

Edmund Lissack, M. D., Edmund Lissack, M. D., CONCORDIA, MO. —You should cultivate initiative; on the whole you are inclined to be overly conservative in mind and habits. Back up your keen, analytical mind with more force and more aggressiveness, especially about money matters.

Robert I. Kerkhoff, Robert I. Kerkhoff, LA-FAYETTE, IND. —Your handwriting shows unusual sensitivity that almost amounts to nervousness. You have artistic ability and appreciation, an alert mind, and persistence that will see you through difficulties.

Sylvan G. Kramer, Sylvan G. Kramer, CHICAGO, ILL. —You must guard against being too easily unerved and agitated. Cultivate the long point of view and let nothing disturb your poise. You have a discerning mind and common sense, but you often let emotions guide you.

Denny Vinson, Denny Vinson, DENTON, TEX. —Your ability in most practical matters is handicapped by an occasional tendency to change your views somewhat erratically. Learn to value criticism and not let it wound you.

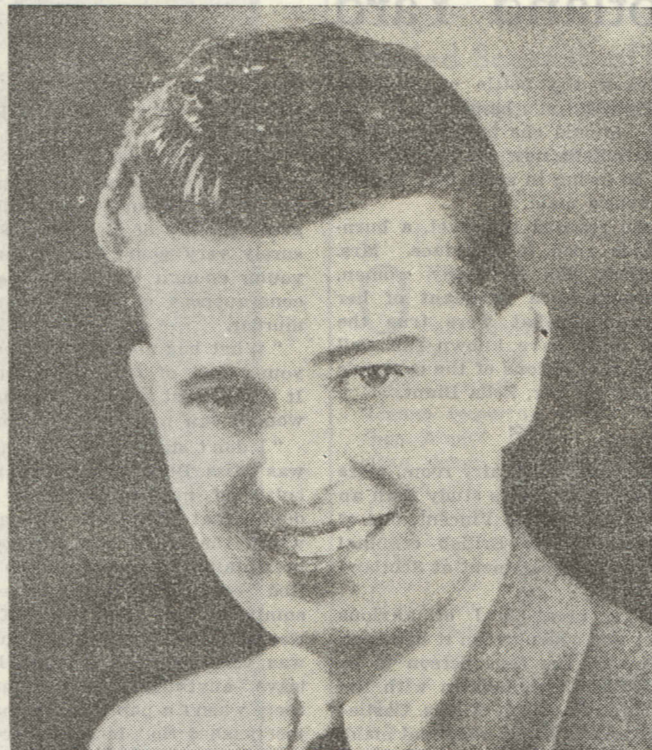

Fred M. Rouse, Fred M. Rouse, OMAHA, NEB. —You will always work best in congenial surroundings with people you like—you are unusually responsive to friendliness. You're big hearted and sometimes too generous.

Mrs. Ben Heinrichs Jr., Mrs. Ben Heinrichs Jr., FT. SMITH, ARK. —You must guard against being too easily unerved and agitated. Cultivate the long point of view and let nothing disturb your poise. You have a discerning mind and common sense, but you often let emotions guide you.

Carleton W. Stuebs, Carleton W. Stuebs, OSHKOSH, WIS. —You'll get along well in the world. Law should interest you, since yours is an examining, thoroughly logical mind. Courage and persistence are two very evident traits.

Ralph C. Arnett, RALPH C. ARNETT, Moline, Ill.

By all indications of handwriting and feature analysis you should be the sort of person who would do well on the theatrical or lecture platform. You could be a fluent conversationalist and an excellent entertainer; your sense of humor is unusually keen. You have many social gifts, as a matter of fact. Many of these same gifts would assist you in a business career. You are observant and quick and in contact work would be particularly successful. You are able to take things as they come, and are fortunate in that you do not indulge in futile worry. Your judgment is sound but you are not particularly material minded. You will never be successful in inharmonious surroundings.

Annita R. Wright, Annita R. Wright, KEOKUK, IA. —Your prudence and serenity will serve you well. You have surprising firmness of will and could dominate people easily. Your business ability is greater than that of most women.

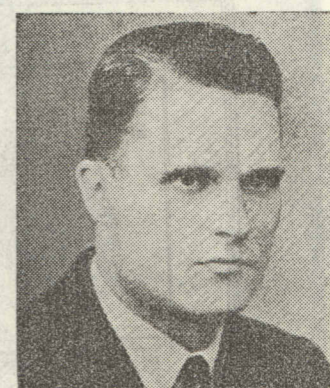

Mrs. Elmer L. Greene, Mrs. Elmer L. Greene, IRONWOOD, MICH. —A warm heart and restlessness deter you considerably. If you had a definite ambition, however, you could battle successfully against any kind of opposition.

Milton L. Berg, Milton L. Berg, LANSING, MICH. —Continue to be as wide awake and as observant as you are and you'll never get in a rut. You are well able to fight your way through the world, armed with a good mind and considerable persistence.

Fred W. Buser, Fred W. Buser, BURLINGTON, IA. —Although essentially good natured and even easy going you are sometimes not sufficiently impartial in your judgments. You are stick to your principles and they are high.

Wayne Edgerton, Wayne Edgerton, ALLEGAN, MICH. —You prefer to operate on rather a large scale; you should limit your ambitions and give detail and routine sufficient attention. Your interests will always be varied but your personal attachments will be constant.

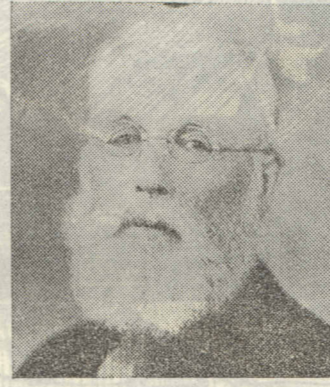

Eugene D. Flood, Eugene D. Flood, SIOUX CITY, IA. —You shouldn't let your enthusiasms carry you too far from the purely practical; be on your guard against inconsistency in all matters. Concentrate on one ambition and go after it.

$25.00 AWARDS

Oleta Champion, Oleta Champion, BROWNWOOD, TEX. —You could succeed in almost any field, since you have the ability to adjust yourself perfectly to all situations and find it easy and agreeable to mix with people. Your attractive personality will always draw friends.

A. E. Speiser, A. E. Speiser, MINOT, S. D. —You are a friendly, composed nature that draws people to you for advice and companionship. You are inclined to give more of your time and thought to the interests of others than to your own.

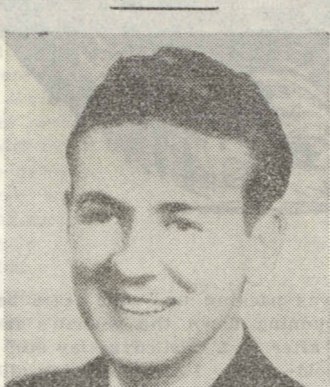

Bethe M. Garren, Bethe M. Garren, JOLIE, ILL. —For the most part you are tactful, kindly, and thoughtful of others but occasionally your own problems are your only concern. Your talents lie along social lines; you can mix well with people.

Marian Lang, Marian Lang, MENDOTA, ILL. —You should not be too idealistic; learn to appreciate stern reality for what it is. Your conscientiousness and composure would make you a valuable asset to an executive.

Mary Margaret Mayer, Mary Margaret Mayer, FREEPORT, ILL. —You can succeed in gaining any goal you are ambitious to reach, since you are determined, intelligent and desirous of advancement. You are in the moment to be impulsive, but will probably outgrow this.

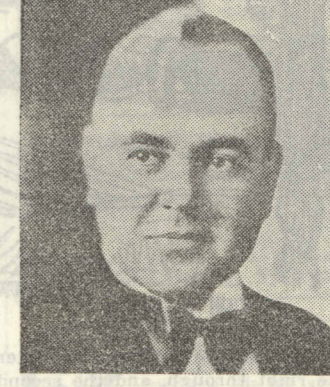

A. Chester Lyle, A. Chester Lyle, McCloud, OKLA. —You have a decided faculty for business, with a flair for economics. You have a high standard of honor and the courage of your convictions.

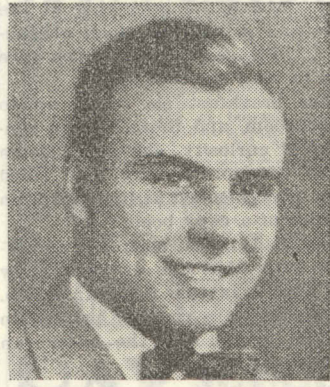

H. H. Hagen, H. H. Hagen, CHICAGO, ILL. —You have a natural cleverness in practical affairs and much ability in dealing with people. Impatience, however, should be restrained. Your amiability is often imposed upon.

William Frost Hawkins, William Frost Hawkins, LEBANON, TENN. —Literary skill and appreciation are evidenced by your handwriting; so is artistic ability. You have an excellent sense of proportion in all things; you should be more aggressive.

Roy O. Cuthbertson, Roy O. Cuthbertson, OAK PARK, ILL. —You should not scatter your forces over too wide a territory if you wish to obtain the success your initiative and industry merit. A concentration of your efforts will be the secret of your success.

Robert Marack, Robert Marack, MAYWOOD, ILL. —You have enterprise and you will succeed if you exercise the force, judgment and tact that are strong in your makeup. You are inclined, however, to waste energy.

Mrs. Martha Jensen, Mrs. Martha Jensen, FERGUS FALLS, MINN. —You have a mind that is direct and keen, but your greatest success probably lies along artistic lines. Your fastidiousness is an asset, but do not be too restrained and sensitive.

Sara Alice Carr, Sara Alice Carr, MUNCIE, IND. —Your leanings are probably toward the artistic and in such fields lies your success. However, you should not overlook the practical. Culture will always mean more to you than material achievements.

Bernice Phillips, Bernice Phillips, BERWYN, ILL. —Pride, courage and sincerity are your three attributes that will make your life rich. You are sometimes too intense and impulsive but you are conscientious and unselfish. You will always have many friends.

Priscilla Mulvhill, Priscilla Mulvhill, CHICAGO, ILL. —You are a versatile person, with varied abilities backed by good judgment and the will to work. Guard against extravagance. You are reserved and sensitive, with high moral standards.

Edith Kirg, Edith Kirg, CHICAGO, ILL. —You are a person of composure and balance for the most part, but criticism wounds you too easily. You are completely conventional, with a fastidious distaste for the unorthodox.

SEND IN YOUR PHOTOGRAPH AND THIS COUPON

MEN, women, boys and girls! Who are you? ... What are you? ... What does the future hold in store for YOU? ... What do your facial features and your handwriting reveal? Write your name and address on the coupon, paste it on the back of your photograph and send it to Doris Blake, Personality Editor of the Chicago Tribune. The Chicago Tribune will pay $15,000.00 in cash prizes to the persons from whose photographs and handwriting Doris Blake makes the most interesting "Key to the Future" readings.

This offer is entirely FREE! There is no charge of any kind. Any photograph will do—a snapshot, a postcard, a cabinet photograph or any other kind. You may send your own photograph or the photograph of any relative or friend; but the signature must be in the handwriting of the person in the photograph. Each Sunday, for ten weeks, thirty-six of the most interesting photographs, together with readings made by Miss Blake, will be printed in the Graphic Section of the Chicago Sunday Tribune. To each person whose photograph is so published the Chicago Tribune will pay $25.00 in cash. In addition to these 36 weekly prizes one Special Prize of $100.00 will be paid each week to the person whose photograph and handwriting make the most interesting reading of the week. These 37 weekly prizes total $1,000.00. For ten weeks they total $10,000.00. In addition to the weekly prizes, three grand prizes totaling $5,000.00 will be paid at the end of the offer to the three persons whose photographs and handwriting are the most interesting of all. Every entrant will be eligible for the Grand Prizes whether or not his or her photograph is published during the ten weeks. This offer is open to everyone except employees of the Chicago Tribune and their families. There is no age limit. Entries for each week's awards must reach the Chicago Tribune Office by noon Thursday following the Sunday of publication of each week's offer. Doris Blake's judgment in all matters will be final. Because of the broad interest in this offer neither Doris Blake nor the Chicago Tribune can engage in any correspondence on it. Write your name and address in your own handwriting on the coupon at the right, paste it on the back of your photograph and send it in. Then watch the Graphic Section of the Chicago Sunday Tribune for winners each Sunday.
