

JAPAN INVADES CHINA

February, 1932—Japanese bluejackets mop up Chinese sharpshooters' positions in buildings on a Shanghai street. Others of the invading force, in the foreground, crouch, alert, behind their sandbag barricade. Incendiary bombs dropped from Japanese planes set fire to the city.

(Arme photo.)