

YOU HAVE LOTS OF TIME TO READ ON SUNDAY!

And the Chicago Sunday Tribune Gives You the World's Greatest Sunday Newspaper, Full of News, Valuable Information, Amusement and Profit for Everyone!

FROM the ends of the earth, the Tribune gathers all the latest news of a fast moving planet—its own world-wide staff of expert correspondents bring Chicago, London, Paris and Rome together in its pages to place on your door-step every Sunday morning.

Skilled reporters watch sports and political affairs—observers in society's capitals keep in touch with social events and fashions—experts feel the beating pulse of commerce and finance—and the Tribune assembles their findings for you on Sunday, when you have lots of time to read!

And for amusement, it has the best in fiction, the funniest comic section, the most beautiful and complete rotogravure and colorotogravure in the world.

Never miss the skillfully chosen variety of these pages! Read the great Sunday Tribune today—and every Sunday!

Chicago Sunday Tribune

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

LENORA

Words by
MARK FISHER

MARK FISHER

Music by
VICTOR YOUNG

place. And ev - ry twink - ling star that shines a -

Le - nor - a, There's no one else can take your sun - shine in your smil - ing face. Le - nor - a, nor - a, Le - nor - a, There's

CHORUS

Then I hold you close in my arms, on - ly in my dreams. Le -

Al - ways dream - ing, dream - ing of you, dreams of love so true.

And the moon that's shin - ing a - bove, shows its sil - very beams; I am al - ways sing - ing a song, sing - ing just of you

And the lit - tle birds have gone to rest, And the hap - py mo - ments that we knew,