MRS. ADELINE D. KENT DIES.

Mother of California Congressman and Former Chicago Reformer Strains Heart by Climbing.

Mrs. Adeline Dutton Kent, oneof Chicago's early settlers, died Monday night at a hospital in Ogden, Utah, from heart trouble brought on by mountain climbing. Mrs. Kent was the mother of Congressman William Kent of California, who passed through Chicago yesterday on the way to the funeral.

Mrs. Kent was long a social and philanthropic worker in Chicago. Her husband was a wealthy packer, and he and Mrs. Kent were large contributors to Lincoln Center and attended the church of Jenkin Lloyd Jones. They lived for years on the south side.

About seven years ago she went to California to live permanently. She founded a settlement near her home at Kentfield, Cal. Among her friends in Chicago was Miss Jane Addams. She was nearly 70 years old.

OBITUARY.

MISS MARY E. MILLER, lawyer and president of the Human Rights party, died yes terday in the Frances Willard hospital. Death was caused by pneumonia and heart trouble. She was a candidate for Municipal judge on the Socialist ticket last year. Miss Miller was born in Calhoun county, Mich. forty-eight years ago. She had been a teach er and court reporter, and graduated at the Kent college of law in 1894. She was associated in practice with Frank E. Makeel and Elmer E. Rogers.

MRS. MARY J. BORNER died yesterday at her residence, 5202 Kenmore avenue. Mrs Borner, who was 57 years old, leaves a son, William Lester Shergold, and three nieces Mrs. William V. Booth, Mrs. P. A. Valentine and Mrs. Charles H. Lester. The funeral will be privately from her home.

MORGAN A. THOMAS, chief detective of the Blackstone hotel, died yesterday of pneumonia. He was 65 years old and married.

Judge Carpenter yesterday entered a judgment fining the Columbia Amusement com pany of Cincinnati a total of $7,500 on three counts. The company pleaded guilty to ac cepting rebates from the New York Central. Rudolph K. Hynicka, secretary of the company, entered a plea of nolle contendere. This case was instituted by the government more than two years ago. A joint indictment was returned against the theatrical concern and the Michigan Central, Lake Shore, and the Big Four railroads, Hynicka, and several officials. The charges made by the government were that the railroad company granted the Columbia Amusement company large rebates on the transportation of theatrical troupes, paying in program advertising.

commission. Where Mr. Purtelle expects to get the necessary $100,000,000 or more with which to do the constructing remains his secret. When it was rumored some time ago that Mr. Purtelle had obtained French capital, Mayor Harrison referred to the proposal as the "cabaret subway."

Mr. Purtelle asserts in his letter that his backers, if announced, would be subjected to attack from large interests.

"If, however," continues his letter, "you desire evidence of the bona fides of our proposition, we will furnish such a preliminary bond as you may require, evidencing good faith and conditioned in such manner which will satisfy your committee of our good faith.
