

QUEENS! ONLY 2 MORE WEEKS TO GET INTO RACE

Ten More Winners Given $100 Checks.

Here goes the final shower of those $100 checks in today's retrograde section of THE TRIBUNE is presented the last group of ten girls to share in the $10,000 awarded as preliminary prizes in the international competition to select a queen for the Century of Progress inaugural in June. Each girl pictured during the ten weeks ending today has received an equal share of the $1,000 divided each Sunday. And April 15 is the deadline set for the entry of photographs of charming girls from anywhere in the world, some of whom will wear the crown and carry home the $5,000 check destined for the fair's ruler. Until midnight of that date, every girl has an equal chance. After that, though her eclipse is Crawford's and her glamor excels Garbo's, she hasn't a ghost of a show. The time to enter is now.

100 Have Profited. To date, 100 girls in this country and abroad have scored to the tune of $100 each, yet their preliminary triumph does not affect in any way their standing subsequent to April 15. For the rules require that after the closing of the lists, every photograph received will be resubmitted to the board of eight judges, and considered separately for a place in the court of fifty-one misses that will assemble in Chicago late in May for the final review.

When the lucky fifty-one finalists, brought to the city at the expense of THE TRIBUNE, come face to face with the jury that will gauge their fate, they will confront a critical as well as famous group. Each of the men and women has individual claims to artistic taste and perception, bearing names widely known in the art as well as the social world. There is John T. McCutcheon of THE TRIBUNE staff, whose cartoons are known wherever newspapers are read. Mrs. Pauline Palmer, whose fame as a portrait painter scintillates on both sides of the Atlantic. Mrs. Howard Linn, who recently adjudged the most beautiful woman in Chicago society, whose interior decorating commissions have made her extensively respected in that field. Mrs. John Alden Carpenter, the former Mrs. Walter Borden, in the wife of the famed contemporary composer.

Another $1,000 in Prizes. Both Mrs. R. R. McCormick, wife of THE TRIBUNE publisher, and Mrs. Howard Ellis, newspaper and magazine illustrator, are personages in the world of brush and palette. Mrs. William H. Mitchell is noted alike for her beauty, chic and impeccable taste, and Wallace Kirk, who keeps Cartoonist McCutcheon company as the only two men on the jury, is both business man and connoisseur.

By the vote of this group, a second $10,000 will be awarded to three girls named by them as the most charming nudes in the entire fifty-one. To their first choice will be handed the $5,000. To the second, $3,000 will be given. The third will receive consolation from a $2,000 check.

Before and after the colorful ceremony of electing the queen, which will take place at one of the large hotels, the entire court will be launched on an entertainment program calculated to delight the heart of any girl.

Scores of Engagements. Luncheons, dinner parties, shopping tours, sightseeing trips, theater performances, dances, a lake excursion, a military review, and scores of other engagements await the arrival here of the girls nominated.

Photographs by the tens of thousands that have flooded the contest headquarters in the weeks since the competition was first announced prove how intensely and how far interest in the event has spread.

In this morning's ten are included three representatives of lands beyond the Atlantic. H. K. is a student in Berlin, with the typical blond hair and blue eyes of the German fraulein. From London came the photo of L. H., who relates that she lives in the west Kensington district, is a domestic, also a blonde with blue eyes, standing five feet five inches and weighing 126 pounds. The third foreign winner is N. de C. of Paris, who describes herself as "a dark blonde" with dark blue eyes. She is tall, weighs 133 pounds and is a home girl.

Chicago Wins Three Places. Chicago proper boasts three places among the ten, with two from Evanston helping to raise the score for the home territory. L. S., who is a stenographer, is the single blonde from this city, both the others being brunettes. In addition, K. F., reports that she does general office work, has brown eyes, weighs 115 pounds and is five feet five in height.

Michigan and Wisconsin achieve one delegate apiece. A. R. lives at Madison, Wis., but failed to provide data about her coloring and proportions. C. F., who is a resident of Jackson, Mich., has black hair and blue eyes, is five feet seven inches tall and weighs 120 pounds.

2 HELD ON CHARGE OF SHOOTING FROM PLANE OVER FEDERAL PRISON

Leavenworth, Kas., April 1.—(AP)—A Leavenworth Federal prison guard testified before a United States commissioner today that he opened fire with a submachine gun yesterday at a circling airplane after two bullets apparently shot from the plane, struck within six inches of his head.

G. W. Cross, the guard, was a witness at a hearing for Lynn S. Barlow and A. N. Barlow, Denver brothers, alleged occupants of the plane, charged with shooting with intent to kill and attempting to aid prisoners to escape.

A possibility that Cross and nine other guards who took the witness stand had mistaken backing of the plane's motor for shooting was entered in the defense record through Capt. Robin Day, regular army air corps officer.

COURT ALLOWS NOEL STATE BANK LAWYERS $87,000

Circuit Judge Joseph Burke yesterday granted the law firm of Judah, Reisman, Trumbull & Cox, $87,000, for their services as attorneys for Henry S. Savage, receiver of the closed Noel State bank. The law firm originally presented a bill for $105,000. The bill was contested by Attorney William Diadul, representing the depositors of the bank.

Diadul's protest was heard for many weeks by Master in Chancery George E. Gorman, Attorney General Kerner, through his assistant, George S. Lavin, asked the court take the matter from the hands of the master and pass upon the request. Lavin held $85,000 would constitute a reasonable fee. The judge allowed $87,000 on the representation of the law firm's listing services of 6,300 hours in behalf of the bank.

"Patien" and Companion Rob Physician in Office

Dr. Stanley D. Francis reported to the police last night that two men, one of whom had pretended to be in need of medical attention, robbed him of $150 in his office on the third floor at 25 West Randolph street. Before disclosing that he was a robber, the supposed patient told the physician that his name was De Grazio.

MOTHER AND SON FOUND BRUTALLY SLAIN ON FARM

WINNIPEG BEACH, Manitoba, April 1.—(U.P.)—The brutal slaying of Mrs. Martha Squarok and her 5 year old son, Edward, was disclosed today when the woman's brother visited her isolated farm in fear that she would be lonely while her husband was in Winnipeg appearing as a trial witness.

Peter Chernenich, the brother, found the body of Mrs. Squarok, crushed by repeated blows, lying on the ground outside the house. He discovered the body of her son in a room and after prolonged search discovered the child's body jammed down a well. He, too, had been beaten to death.

Provincial police believed the slayings occurred Thursday night. The father had been gone from home three days.

Poincare Back in Paris from 4 Month Quest for Health

PARIS, April 1.—(AP)—Raymond Poincare, former president of France and several times premier, was in parent good health and smilingly refused to be treated as an invalid when he arrived here today from the Riviera.

The 72 year old statesman, who was hailed as "the savior of the franc" after the post-war financial crises, spent four months on the Riviera seeking to recover his health. He declined aid, stopping from the train to an automobile which was driven to the platform alongside the train.

WOMAN AS WARDEN TO CONTROL WOMEN CASTING FOR TROUT

North Bradford, Conn., April 1.—(AP)—Miss Edith A. Stoehler, 28, of South Wethersfield, won the right to wear a uniform, badge and pistol today through her skill in fly fishing.

As game warden in charge of the state leased stream reserved for women anglers, Miss Stoehler will have power to order men fishermen from this area, and to direct her fellow fishermen to refrain from angling by methods other than flycasting. Her duties also will include fly fishing instruction to the women anglers.

Miss Stoehler was selected in a competition with four others who displayed their skill in the pools and eddies of Branford river. The trout season will open on Connecticut streams April 15.

25,000 AUTO PARTS ON HAND; STATE PLANS A SALE

Springfield, Ill., April 1.—(AP)—One of these days the state of Illinois is going to have a big rummage sale.

Gov. Horner said today reports had been made to him of the discovery in storage of 25,000 automobile parts, all of which the state can still use and then order the remainder sold.

Actress Sued for Failure to Appear for Movie

Hollywood, Cal., April 1.—[Special.]—Because Aline MacMahon, actress, is accused of failing to appear last Wednesday evening for the recording of a scene in the uncompleted movie, "Gold Diggers of 1933," Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc., filed suit today against her for $2,157. The studio claims that sum due for salary paid others in the cast and incidental financial outlay when the scene had to be postponed.

High School Boy Gets Prison as Murder Plottor

Brownsville, Tex., April 1.—[U. P.]—Earl Dodson, 17 year old high school boy, charged with murder in the slaying of a flying instructor, was found guilty by a District court jury today and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment. The jury found the San Benito youth guilty of the fourth count of the indictment, which alleged he furnished arms and aided in the murder plot.
