When you have the complete series of solicit-no tie breakers-no work to do-nothing but a letter telling which of these men you would like to see President of the United States. Can you put them together properly and name them?

There will be something interesting and patriotic; and it offers a little pleasant pastime that will acquaint you with the Presidents of the United States. Can you put them together properly and name them?

All will contain photographs of prominent Americans who have been mentioned for the Presidency. Each set of pictures, when cut apart and assembled properly, will make complete portraits of the Presidential Candidates. In case you do not know all of the subjects in this game are among those pictured below.

Mr. 1 is the man who served as Vice-President in 1920. The eyes, ears, and nose in No. 14 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland. The mouth and chin in No. 15 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland.

Mr. 10 reveals the forehead of the present Governor of Maryland. The eyes, ears, and nose in No. 14 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland. The mouth and chin in No. 15 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland.

Mr. 1 is the man who served as Vice-President in 1920. The eyes, ears, and nose in No. 14 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland. The mouth and chin in No. 15 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland.

Mr. 10 reveals the forehead of the present Governor of Maryland. The eyes, ears, and nose in No. 14 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland. The mouth and chin in No. 15 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland.

Mr. 1 is the man who served as Vice-President in 1920. The eyes, ears, and nose in No. 14 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland. The mouth and chin in No. 15 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland.

Mr. 10 reveals the forehead of the present Governor of Maryland. The eyes, ears, and nose in No. 14 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland. The mouth and chin in No. 15 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland.

Mr. 1 is the man who served as Vice-President in 1920. The eyes, ears, and nose in No. 14 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland. The mouth and chin in No. 15 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland.

Mr. 10 reveals the forehead of the present Governor of Maryland. The eyes, ears, and nose in No. 14 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland. The mouth and chin in No. 15 are those of a widely known graduate of the University of Maryland.