The New Game of Presidential Candidates

THIS WILL HELP YOU
ALL the subjects in this game among those pictured below . . . Save this

HERE is a Game that will provide pleasant pastime for everyone. It is timely, interesting and patriotic. And it offers you an opportunity to share in $5,000.00 in Cash Prizes.

Can you cut apart the Composite Pictures at the right, put them together properly and name these famous men who have been mentioned for the next Presidency of the United States? Try it. It is easy and fascinating.

There is no hard work to do. No subscriptions to solicit. No tie-breakers. Nothing but a little pleasant amusement. It is open to everyone.

For the benefit of those who have not yet started, the first two sets of Composite Pictures are re-printed today together with Set No. 3. You can start with these. They will count!

Get Set No. 4 in next Sunday's Chicago Sunday Tribune. Hold all the pictures until you have the 10 sets. Then send them in.

In case you do not know the prominent men mentioned for the next Presidency, refer to the group of small photographs printed at the right. ALL the subjects in this game are among these.

• The RULES •

1. Each Sunday for 10 consecutive Sundays a Set of 3 Composite Pictures of persons who have been mentioned for the Presidency of the United States will be printed in the Picture Section of the Chicago Sunday Tribune. Each set of pictures, when cut apart and assembled properly, will make complete portraits.

You are invited to put the pictures together and name them and tell in a letter of 50 words or less which of the 30 persons you would like to see President of the United States and why. Clues will be printed beneath each Composite Picture to help you.

The Chicago Tribune will pay $5,000.00 in Cash Prizes to the persons who send in the best answers. See Prize List at right.

2. The Composite Pictures must be cut out, assembled and pasted together. Below each picture must be written the name of the person pictured. A total of 30 pictures will be printed—3 each Sunday for 10 Sundays. NOTICE: Hold all pictures until you have the complete set of 30. Then send them to "Presidents," Chicago Tribune, Post Office Box 1539, Chicago, Ill. No entries will be returned.

3. This game is open to everyone—men, women, boys and girls—except employes of the Chicago Tribune and their families. It does not matter where you live. You pay nothing.

4. All pictures must be in by midnight 21 days after Set No. 10 is published. Each entry must be sent by First Class Mail, postage prepaid. Entries with insufficient postage will be returned by the Post Office Department.

5. Make your entry simple. Elaborate entries will receive no greater consideration than simple ones. The judging will be based upon the following:
First: Accuracy in putting the pictures together and naming them.
Second: Merit of the accompanying letter.

6. You need not purchase the Chicago Tribune to compete. You may copy or trace the pictures. The Tribune may be examined at any of its offices or at Public Libraries free of charge.

7. The judges will be a committee appointed by the Chicago Tribune. Entrants agree to accept their decision as final. In case of ties a duplicate award will be paid to each tying contestant.
