

WHERE FIRE-TRAPPED CONVICTS DIED—A visualization of Ohio's prison horror at Columbus, where prisoners locked within flame wrapped cell blocks suffered terrible death, while others released to the prison yard battled in ghastly pandemonium with firemen, guards, and police.
(Pacific and Atlantic photo.)

INFERNO—Flame and smoke bursting skyward from Ohio's prison furnace. The catastrophe is reckoned as the worst in the prison annals of America.
(Pacific and Atlantic photo.)

(Pacific and Atlantic photo.)

THE "LONE" EAGLE AND HIS MATE raid the stars in record-breaking flight from sea to sea: At left, Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh in the electrically heated togs which overcame the chill of 14,000 foot altitude as they established a new time mark of 14 hours 35 minutes between Los Angeles and New York. Above, the two in flight over the 2,700 mile sky lane.
(Wide World photo.)

STRIKE UP THE BAND: THE CUBS ARE HOME—Fandom, welcoming the opening of Chicago's National league season, contributes to spectacle as the Bruins meet the Cardinals in their homecoming curtain raiser. The victor? Well, one game doesn't make a baseball season.
(Tribune photo.)