LACK RIFLES TO EQUIP ARMY, HOUSE HEARS

War Department fails in task—Tilton defies censor by exposure.

BY ARTHUR STEARNS HENNING
Washington, D. C.—The first blow dealt to the war department by the new administration was delivered this afternoon when the new secretary of war, Mr. Tilton, revealed the fact that the army is now armed with the old Model 1894 rifle and that there are no new rifles being issued to the troops.
