

BRITISH LABOR BITTER CRITIC OF PEACE SUMMARY

Asserts It Shows "Capitalistic Imperialism" Dominates Treaty.

BY ARTHUR E. MANN. (Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.) (By Special Cable.) (Copyright: 1919: By the Tribune Company.) LONDON, May 10.—The national executive of the Labor party, which is the official mouthpiece of the political ideas of British organized labor, has issued a strong criticism of the summary of the Paris peace treaty with Germany and has refused to assume responsibility for violations of principle involved in the settlement.

Here Is Manifesto. "The national executive of the Labor party considers that the published summary of the peace treaty in some essential particulars is opposed to the declaration of President Wilson at the inter-allied conference and the Berne conference of the world Social Laborites, is very defective from the standpoint of world peace, and bears evidence of a compromise influenced by capitalistic imperialism, which still dominates European states," the manifesto declares.

Some Other Objections. Disapproval is expressed of "the attempt at permanent association" of the Star district from Germany, and a demand is made for plebiscites in Alsace-Lorraine, Malmecey, and along the Polish, German, and Czechoslovak frontiers. The manifesto concludes by declaring that German Austria has a right to decide its future political affiliation.

The action of the Labor party is supported by a shorter, but even more radical, pronouncement from the national council of the Independent Labor party. This organization is one of the extremely radical wings of the political labor movement and contains, besides, most of the so-called brain workers or intellectual radicals.

FIGHTING MINER BAITs FINANCIER IN LONDON QUIZ

Sparks Fly as "Bob" Smillie Faces Lord Durham.

BY ARTHUR E. MANN. (Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.) (By Special Cable.) (Copyright: 1919: By the Tribune Company.) LONDON, May 10.—Labor and capital, represented by the persons of "Bob" Smillie, fighting president of the miners' federation, and Lord Durham, one of the big British coal owning peers, clashed in a picturesque and polite but serious bout today at an inquiry of the government coal commission into the question of nationalization of coal mines.

Smillie, quick, alert, and vigorous, shot over short jabs of opinions from eminent lawyers on the argument of combining the philosophy of socialism and Henry George's theory of land ownership and finally quotations from the scriptures in an effort to prove that Lord Durham had no just title to his coal lands and royalties. Lord Durham countered strongly with references to his documentary title papers, to orthodox principles of real estate ownership, and to more scriptures.

Smillie Cites Bible. "There is a very old book which says, 'The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof.' I am not exactly sure of the author, but it appears in the Bible by which you have promised to tell the truth and the whole truth this morning. Would you deny that authority?" flashed out Smillie. "I prefer another authority which says, 'Render unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's,'" countered Lord Durham. "That is exactly what I want to be done at the present time, because if 'The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof' it cannot be the property of individuals," Smillie retorted calmly.

CHICAGO GOES OVER THE TOP BY FIFTY MILLIONS

Banks Add $40,000,000 After $189,225,000 Quota Is Passed.

(Continued from first page.) cause of that Chicago kept faith with the dead in Flanders fields." Leaders Enthusiastic. Other leaders of the city drive were equally as enthusiastic and grateful to the salesmen and executives of the drive.

Charles H. Schweppe, director of the district drive, said: "In the fourth campaign the Seventh district led the nation in the matter of distribution, and it is my belief that when final returns are tabulated the district will top the list for the Victory loan." Alvin F. Kramer, executive secretary, said: "The loop banks, realizing that this was the last popular loan and that the issue was one of extreme attractiveness, placed late subscriptions amounting to about $40,000,000. The wishes of the treasury department that the loan have the widest possible distribution have been accomplished."

Trades Division Strong. One of the most spectacular angles of the closing hours was afforded by the trades committee, of which Phillip R. Clarke served as director. His committee was confronted with the task of raising a large part of its $125,000,000 quota on the last day. Every branch of the committee threw every ounce of strength and bit of energy into the fight. They "put it over," according to Mr. Clark at 11 a. m. and then proceeded to go "plus" by hundreds of thousands.

One branch of the committee, known as 14A and consisting of the life insurance companies, had $600,000 to go when business opened yesterday morning. E. A. Ferguson, chairman, made an office to office canvass of the possibilities and exceeded his quota by $32,200. His work yesterday brought the following plus subscriptions: $300,000—Illinois Life. $300,000—Federal Life. $85,000—Security Life. $52,000—North American company.

V-VOLLEYS

Oak Park was the second of the larger suburbs to exceed its quota. It subscribed $1,600,000, instead of $1,600,000. Evanston headed the suburbs when it went over the top several days ago.

Here are a few plus patriots from the Fort Sheridan base hospital, all of whom paid their subscriptions in cash: Ernest Crilken, Company A, 305th infantry, left foot crushed in Argonne offensive, $500; Robert Hertz, left arm and hand shattered in Metz drive, $150; Maurice Lacler, Battery E, 17th F. A., left arm crushed in the Champagne, $150; Sgt. David Fisher, Q. M. C. arm crushed in motor car accident in France, $400; Corporal A. Thomas, left leg mutilated, $350; John Halstegines, 98th infantry, left arm shattered at Toul, $300.

First Sgt. Barnett Neldale of the United States marine corps Victory station in the lobby of the Board of Trade building sold $250,000 in bonds.

The CHICAGO TRIBUNE and its employees subscribed $430,000 to the Victory loan. The Tribune company made an initial subscription of $150,000 and a plus subscription of $100,000. Its employees subscribed a total of $180,200.

Caruso did not sing for the Victory loan. He arrived in Chicago yesterday, accompanied by his wife, formerly Miss Dorothy Park, Ben Hur, of New York. "He has paid an income tax of $150,000," said F. Wight Neumann, local impresario; "isn't that enough? Can he afford to lose his voice by singing in the open air? And can I afford to lose $2,000 by letting him?"

Gold star mothers, in the dinner hour at the Blackstone hotel, obtained $130,000 in subscriptions in twenty-one minutes. Twelve posters by Penny Ross of "Mother's Angel Child," as $50,000—National Life. $25,000—Mutual Trust, American Bankers. $20,000—Dix Colony. $5,000—Farmers National. Circus Salesmanship Reached Its Climax in the closing day. While aviators thrilled the city with the most daredevil stunts ever seen here, clowns, minstrels, actors, and men in uniform ran riot in the loop. Street cars were lined up for blocks while babies in costume were held aloft in the arms of overseas veterans to plead the cause of "Victory" Michigan avenue and the Victory forum were a shifting, yelling mob, sprinkled with brass bands whose notes were lost in the cries of the multitudes.

A parade of 1,000 Elks carrying American flags and bond posters was augmented by stockyards file and drum corps composed of girls. There were cowboys, Red Cross nurses, and Gold Star mothers, Great Lakes gobs, Salvation Army lassies, and crippled marines. The procession wound round and round through the loop, and remnants were still going at midnight when the drive closed officially. The Victory forum in Grant park, scene of the high lights in the Victory drive, is not to be torn down immediately. Representatives of the state and city "welcome home" committees last night arranged with the loan officials to keep the structure for the time being. The Michigan avenue decorations, too, will be kept to honor the returning khaki heroes. Additional touches will be given when the 33d division comes home, it is expected. The Victory loan, in addition to being the most spectacular of all five, was exceeded only by the fourth loan's totals in Chicago, and from a percentage standpoint the accomplishment of the city in the last loan stands as a record. The approximate figures of the five drives follow:

INITIAL CLEW TO CHICAGOAN SLAIN IN MILWAUKEE

Milwaukee, Wis., May 10.—Laundry marked with "A. S. C." and "Mike" is the only clew the police and sheriff have to the identity of the supposed murder victim, a young man partly dressed, found in the Milwaukee river Saturday morning. The body was weighted with an automobile jack tied by a rope to the man's neck. There were two cuts near the left eye and bruises about the body. The body appears to have been in the water for nearly five weeks.

According to Dr. Daniel Hopkinson, death was due to strangulation. "I believe the man was murdered," said Dr. Hopkinson. His theory is supported by the coroner, Philip A. Friedlander, netted the loan a total of more than $2,000,000.

The Harvard School for Boys established the following record: Subscriptions turned in through the school's $81 subscribers, $181,750; subscriptions secured by boy scouts of the school, $35,000; subscriptions secured by members of the school living in other wards than the sixth, $19,000; total, $235,750.

A German helmet worn by one of the Victory loan workers at the Central Trust and Savings bank attracted F. S. Heath, who had, however, bought what was to be his limit. So great was the desire for the German trophy that he was persuaded to buy another $100,000 plus subscription, from Mrs. R. W. Randall and was given the helmet.

The Chicago Athletic association subscribed $1,000,000. Its quota was set at $500,000.

Among the cherished possessions of the Chicago board of trade are the five honor flags presented to the association by the government for oversubscribing to the five Liberty loans. In all over $15,000,000 worth of bonds was taken of the issues.

The department store booths last night reported the following totals: Marshall Field & Co. $2,440,800. Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co. 949,250. Rothenberg & Co. 895,450. The Fair 638,000. Mandel Bros. 497,250. Boston Store 387,250. Charles A. Stevens & Bros. 78,400. Hillman's 70,700. S. M. Kresge Co. 46,250. A. Star Best 24,800. P. W. Woolworth Co. 24,500. The Hub 14,850. Total $6,068,500.

When Thieves Fall Out Jail Gets Dues, Say Cops

Edward Hardy, 5519 Bishop street, told the Englewood police Louis Rosenorn of 10630 Ewing avenue stole his taxicab.

When Rosenorn after his arrest learned the identity of the complainant he told the police Hardy's taxicab was equipped with tires of an automobile stolen from C. F. Fairbanks of 5435 South Michigan avenue.

Hardy was arrested. So was Louis MacKenzie of 6942 Farnell avenue, named by Rosenorn as having stolen the Fairbanks car. When Hardy learned MacKenzie had confirmed Rosenorn's story of the tires he spoke thus:

"MacKenzie robbed a grocery at Farnell avenue and West Sixty-ninth street April 15 and shot Detective Sergeant Edward Gibson in the leg. He also passed ten worthless checks."

STARCK THE STARCK DE LUXE PLAYER PIANO ITS "HUMAN TOUCH" PERFECTION THE PIANIST'S FINGER THE FLEXIBLE STRIKING FINGER Mr. Walton Perkins - PRESIDENT - Chicago Conservatory endorses the Starck Piano Read his letter of commendation below: Chicago, March 21st, 1919. P. A. Starck Piano Co., Chicago, Illinois. Gentlemen: Your pianos have given the utmost satisfaction to our teachers as well as to the students of the Conservatory. You would be proud of them if you had heard the many expressions of admiration from every one who has used them. For myself, I wish to say that your instruments are all that the most exacting ear could wish. Their tone is noble, clear, and capable of the finest gradations of color. The actions are delicate and pliable, and at the same time powerful. They respond instantly to all demands and enable the player to produce the many and varying effects required in interpretation. As accompaniment to the voice, they are equally effective. I am glad to know that such fine pianos are made in our city. Sincerely yours, Milton Perkins. The Starck De Luxe Player Piano.
