

WHICH IS QUEEN OF CENTRAL WESTERN CO-ED BEAUTIES?

In recent issues of the Sunday Tribune, from week to week, appeared color photographs of the most beautiful co-eds of thirteen central western universities and colleges. From the total of upward of a hundred beauties whose likenesses were presented, a committee of two artists has selected the fairest—the thirteen whose portraits are reproduced here. From these, in final elimination, the committee will select a queen of beauty and a court of four maids of honor. In this section next Sunday portraits of the third and fourth maids of honor will appear; and on the front page of this section on May 26, in full color, the queen of beauty and her first and second maids of honor.
