

J. E. G.
An Iowa Beauty—Clinton

L. B.
An Illinois Beauty—Decatur

WINNERS

THESE twenty-two girls, together with the twenty-nine whose photographs were published in previous issues of the Sunday Tribune, are the finalists chosen by the judges in the Chicago Tribune's $20,000 Competition to find a Queen and Her Court of Honor to dedicate the Century of Progress International Exposition at Chicago. To enter the competition, all that was necessary was to send in a photograph.

The fifty-one girls—representative of the finest feminine charm from all parts of the world—are now in Chicago as guests of the Chicago Tribune and are participating in a program of pageantry more like a Cinderella's dream than a reality.

A full page portrait of the "Queen" chosen by the judges will appear in this section next Sunday.

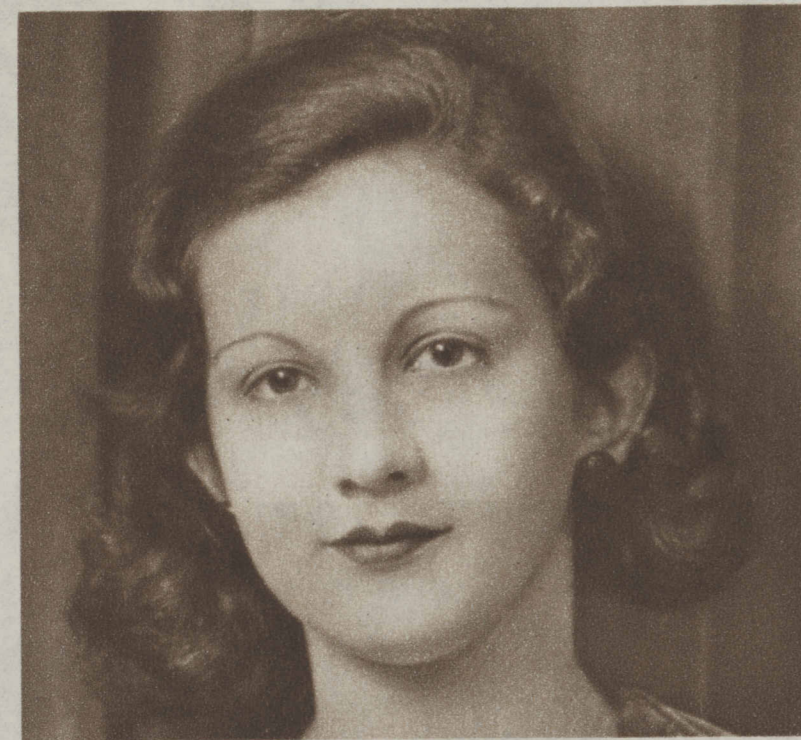

A. L.
A Pennsylvania Beauty—Bethlehem

R. J. H.
An Illinois Beauty—Chicago

M. R. J.
An Illinois Beauty—Chicago

B. S.
A Washington, D. C., Beauty

M. L. T.
An Illinois Beauty—Villa Park

L. A.
A Wisconsin Beauty—Racine

M. A. P.
An Arkansas Beauty—Newport

R. M. K.
A Wisconsin Beauty—Madison

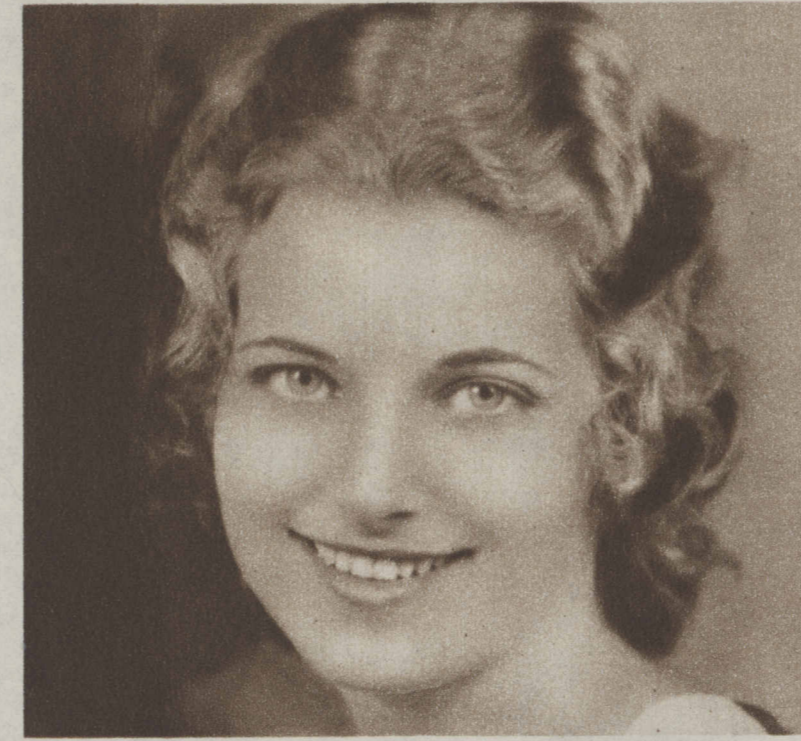

M. K.
A Michigan Beauty—Battle Creek

H. J. B.
An Iowa Beauty—Waterloo

I. P.
A Kansas Beauty—Kansas City

E. M. S.
A Kentucky Beauty—St. Matthews

C. R.
An Indiana Beauty—Boswell

D. L. K.
A Michigan Beauty—Marcellus

F. D.
An Illinois Beauty—La Grange

A. E. L.
A Virginia Beauty—Richmond

E. J. O.
An Oregon Beauty—Portland

M. E. B.
An Indiana Beauty—Lafayette

J. O. M.
An Illinois Beauty—Springfield

L. N.
An Illinois Beauty—Evanston

FOR FULL PAGE PORTRAIT OF THE "QUEEN" OF A CENTURY OF PROGRESS SEE THE PICTURE SECTION OF NEXT SUNDAY'S TRIBUNE