A.M.A. APPROVES
FIRST 2 YRS. OF
CHICAGO SCHOOL

May Gain Full Status if
Hospitals Aid

By Len White

The American Medical Association has approved the affiliation of German Hospital with Chicago Medical School and has recommended that the hospital may be granted full status with the school when certain conditions are met. The recommendation includes the recommendation that the medical school might be changed if it is necessary, so that the affiliation would meet the standards of the American Medical Association. The hospital has been accredited by the American Medical Association and the requirements of the accreditation are met. The affiliation will be subject to the approval of the American Medical Association and the hospital board of directors.

NEW METHODS
TO AID CANCER
SUFFERERS TOLD

By Edna J. Abell

A new method of treatment for cancer, which is said to be more effective than the conventional methods, was introduced at a meeting of the American Medical Association. The method involves the use of radioactive substances, which are absorbed by the cancer cells and destroy them. The method has been tested on animals and has been found to be effective. The new method is expected to revolutionize the treatment of cancer and to provide a more effective and safer method.

FINDS SKELETON

By Edna J. Abell

A human skeleton was discovered in a cave near the coast of California. The skeleton is believed to be over 10,000 years old and is the oldest human skeleton found in the United States. The skeleton was found in a cave that is believed to have been inhabited by early man. The discovery is important because it provides evidence of the early settlement of the Pacific coast.
