

Civic Leaders Join in Tribune Centennial Tribute—Mammoth Lake Front Show Ready for Tonight

(Stories on page 1)

[TRIBUNE Photo]

BANQUET OF THE CIVIC CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE OBSERVING THE TRIBUNE'S 100TH BIRTHDAY LAST NIGHT

[TRIBUNE Photo]

Henry C. Lytton, 101, pioneer State st. merchant, reading Tribune yesterday in home at 209 Lake Shore dr.

[TRIBUNE Photo]

Among first to see The Tribune's centennial edition, these readers scanned copies in Tribune Tower lobby.

[TRIBUNE Photo]

Dolores Wyza, who is 10 today, The Tribune's 100th birthday, sits beside models of Tribune Tower and The Tribune's 1847 home displayed in Tribune lobby.

[TRIBUNE Photo]

Flight of Navy Hellcat planes along the lake front yesterday in the vicinity of the Fullerton av. intersection with Lake Shore dr. Today the planes will join in aerial maneuvers for The Tribune's centennial show.

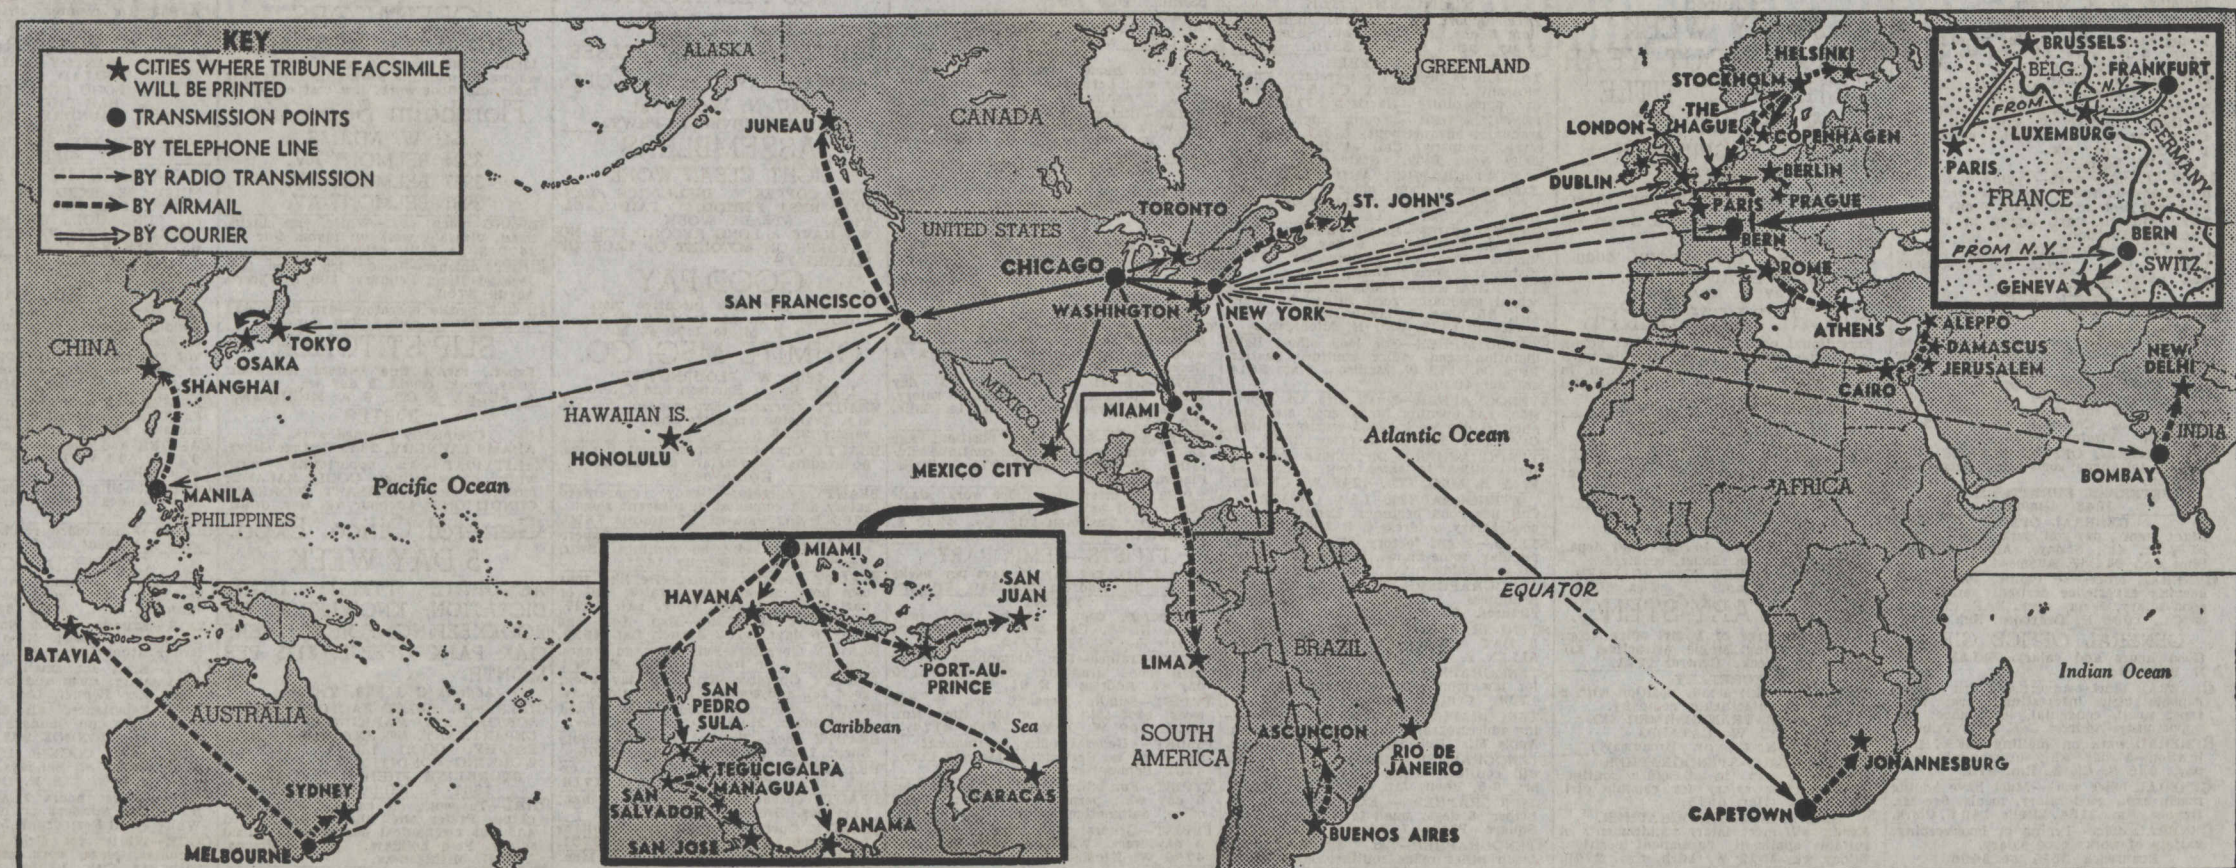

[TRIBUNE Photo]

One of banks of mortars from which aerial fireworks will be fired in Tribune's lake front fete tonight.

[TRIBUNE Photo]

Alma Galster and Elsie Bauman look at Lake Shore dr. decorations as hour of Tribune festival nears.

ROUTES BY WHICH FACSIMILE OF TRIBUNE CENTENNIAL EDITION IS BEING SENT TO APPEAR IN NEWSPAPERS ALL OVER WORLD