A WORD TO CAMPAIGN SUBSCRIBERS

The subscription campaign of the Republican National Committee is now in full swing. The campaign has already been successful in many states and territories, and the committee is now extending its efforts to all parts of the country. The subscription drive is an important part of the Republican Party's strategy for re-election in November. The committee is working hard to ensure that every Republican in the country is aware of the importance of the subscription campaign and is willing to contribute to its success.

THE DUTY OF NEWSPAPERS

The Tribune's editorial policy is one of support for the Republican Party. This is not because we are blind partisans, but because we believe in the principles upon which the Republican Party stands. We believe in the principles of free enterprise, individual initiative, and individual responsibility. We believe in the principles of law and order, and we believe in the principles of national defense.

While the Tribune has always been a strong supporter of the Republican Party, we have never been a blind partisans. We believe in the principles upon which the Republican Party stands, but we do not believe in the principles of the Democratic Party. We believe that the Democratic Party is a party of special interests, and that it is not interested in the welfare of the American people.
