The Oldsmobile Six Convertible Coupe—A General Motors Value

Perfectly at home in the smartest setting

Wherever you see an Oldsmobile, someone is almost certain to say, "There goes the Style Leader!" No phrase could possibly have become so generally accepted, in such a short period of time, unless it expressed a truth! Claims to Style Leadership mean nothing, unless the car actually is the Style Leader. The public decides such questions—and the public has decided—that the new Oldsmobiles are the Style Leaders of America's motor cars! That's why you see Oldsmobiles standing proudly in front of the finest homes . . . parked in front of the foremost hotels . . . rolling up to the smartest clubs. For these beautiful cars are perfectly at home in any setting. . . It's the first time in history that Style Leadership has come to a car priced so low. . . Come in today for a demonstration. You will find that Oldsmobile performance is just as outstanding as Oldsmobile style.
