

Brides of June

BRIDE of William F. Friedman of 7200 Luella avenue is the former Miss Dorothy Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hall.

MRS. JOHN RAYMOND MURPHY JR. had among her bridesmaids her husband's sister, Miss Marice Murphy (at right). The marriage of the former Miss Alice Stockton Batten to the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Murphy of Chicago took place in Racine, Wis. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Haight Batten of Racine.

DuBois photos

FOR HER MARRIAGE to Newton S. Noble Jr. at St. Chrysostom's church, Miss Jane Valentine wore a cream satin gown which her grandmother, Mrs. Lem Whitney Flershem, wore as a bride in 1878. Mrs. Noble is the daughter of the Joseph Valentines.

Acme photo

THE VICAR WHO MARRIED THE DUKE AND DUCHESS OF WINDSOR and then resigned, the Rev. R. Anderson Jardine (left), and Mrs. Jardine visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Rhodes, at Letchworth, Hertfordshire.

Acme photo

A TITLED CUSTOMS EVADER PAYS—Lady Prescott, wife of Sir George Lionel Lawson Bagot Prescott, English big game hunter, was convicted at London of attempting to evade duty on jewelry imported by air and fined $7,500.