Four Errors Help Chicagoans.

BY ERVING VAUGHAN. Chicago, June 2—The Cubs had lost two straight games, and there were no errors in either of them. But there were four in today's pandemonium. The Chicago National League team went to the fifth inning with a one-run lead, but a wave of insanity then caught Vander Harry Danning, the Giant catcher, and he got his track sealed. He killed the heaviest handicap and its support.
