

THE LANDONS AT HOME: REVEALING GLIMPSSES OF THE REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE

THE GOVERNOR OF A TYPICAL PRAIRIE STATE—In these closeup photographs of Gov. Alfred M. Landon of Kansas, taken especially for this section by the Tribune studio, is splendidly revealed the personality that has swept the nation like a prairie fire.

FAMILY GROUP—The governor and Mrs. Landon with two of their three children—John Cobb, 2 years old, and Nancy Jo, 3 years old. Peggy Anne, the other member of the family, was a center of interest at the Republican national convention.

THE BUDGET BALANCER—A characteristic work picture of the Republican nominee for President.

THE OFFICIAL RESIDENCE—The fashionable governor's mansion in Topeka.

BENEATH THE FAMILY ROOFTREE—Two more closeups which contribute to a well-rounded character study of the governor.

THE GOVERNOR'S LADY—An at-home portrait of Mrs. Landon.

SCENE OF LANDON LABORS—Night view of the Kansas state capitol. TRIBUNE STUDIO PHOTOS
