

Moving Forward

Marshall Field & Company presents here each day observations and opinions intended to be of interest and value to those it seeks to serve.

A NEW ANGLE

By CALEB

A PSYCHOLOGIST who spends much of his time working directly with people in clinical studies was bemoaning the prevalence of mental blind spots.

"You know," he said, "each one of us has a blind spot in his eye. Hold an object in front of it and it's simply impossible to see it. There's no way to get around the blind spot but to change the angle of vision."

"Well, much the same thing exists mentally. Pretty nearly all of us have at least one blind spot—most of us have a lot of them. There's only one way to cure them, and that's to change the angle of vision. With the eye that's an easy thing to do. With the mind it's much harder."

"After we interview and study individuals, we're able to chart their blind spots pretty well. But that's less than half the job. The really tough part is making our subject realize that he has a blind spot and decide to do something about it."

"Those psychological blind spots may be the things that are holding him back in business, preventing him from making a satisfactory income, or giving him trouble in his personal affairs. We can point all this out to him but that doesn't mean he will change. Somehow or other we've got to switch his angle of mental vision, and sometimes that's a long and tedious job."

We pride ourselves that we are rational human beings. Reason, we are wont to say, distinguishes us from the lower animals. And yet these blind spots tend to throw that vaunted reason out of balance. Judgment, discretion and achievement all are threatened by them.

It is even true that collectively we have blind spots. Certain groups join together for what they conceive to be their own best interests—blind to the fact that their interests are inextricably bound up with those of every other group.

Perhaps by donning psychological spectacles we shall be able to discover and chart these blind spots, but as our friend pointed out, that is not a cure. The only known cure is a change in the angle of vision—a new viewpoint, better information and more complete understanding.

This article may be reproduced in whole or in part only on written consent from Marshall Field & Company

THE FAIR

State and Adams Sts.

5-Light Fixtures

True colonial style. Frosted, cut-glass chimneys. Bronze finish on fixture. Limited quantity. $10.95

Ceiling Lanterns

Special at $2.98

For practically every room. Polished brass with Chinese Red trim. (Full chain socket, 15c extra.)

Bedroom Fixtures

69¢

Ivory finish with touch of color. With pull switch. (Less bulbs.)

Special! Final Week! Red Tag Event! Any fixture having red tag means savings of 25%

THE FAIR—Sixth Floor—State Street Store.

$69 Cash—

tucked away in a receipt book—a 12 pan gas baking oven, a 14-foot inboard runabout and complete equipment for a tavern—a 5c to $1 store, located on the southwest side of town—a small farm within 30 miles of Chicago—a spinner-model piano, a 24-inch lathe, a drill press and surface grinder—these were the subjects of want ads in yesterday's Tribune want ad section.

If you are looking for an opportunity to make or save money, read the want ads in today's Tribune.

PLEDGES FINISH FIGHT ON BOSSES OF GAMBLING RING

Lake County Prosecutor to Try Lesser Fry, Too.

Attorney Charles E. Jack, special prosecutor in the Lake county gambling inquiry, pledged himself yesterday to rid the county of gaming resorts. He said his aim is to uncover the higher-ups in the racket. The lesser fry arrested in a series of sensational raids two weeks ago will be prosecuted quickly, Jack asserted. The prosecutor also announced that any raids he orders in the future will be directed by Claude Warner, Warner, a former private detective, was the volunteer leader of a citizens' group which broke into 243 gambling spots in the county two weeks ago, Friday night Warner charged that

A PIECE OF GARLIC TROUBLES HER, BUT IT'S NOT IN THROAT

New Orleans, La., July 23.—(P)—Georgia Ann Armstrong rushed into Charity hospital in a state of excitement. "A piece of garlic," she mumbled. "Open your mouth wider," the doctor instructed as he started an inspection of her throat. But Georgia Ann turned her right ear toward the doctor. "The garlic's in my ear," she explained. It was dislodged. She had put it there to relieve an aching tooth.

an attempt was made to frame him as reprisal for these activities.

Players Subject to Fines. Jack pointed out yesterday that any person playing a slot machine is subject to a fine of $10 to $100. The keeper of any gambling device can be fined not less than $100 for his offense. The second offense may bring a fine of not less than $500 or not less than six months in the county jail. The third offense calls for a similar fine or a sentence of not less than two years in the penitentiary.

More than a hundred slot machines and about that number of pin ball machines were seized in Warner's raids. Thirty-four persons were arrested.

Appointed by Judge Dady. "But you can't kill a tree just by picking off its leaves," Jack said. "It's the higher-ups I want. I intend to banish gambling devices from this county for all time. I will ask the Lake county board of supervisors for $7,500 for the investigation."

It is commonly reported that Leo Mongoven, Chicago hoodlum, is the boss of the slot machine racket in northern Lake county. Jack, who is president of the Lake County Bar association, was appointed special prosecutor last week by Judge Ralph J. Dady. The citizens' group responsible for the raids was not satisfied with State's Attorney Charles E. Mason as prosecutor in the case.

Warner, the raid leader, is 32 years old and lives at 21 Edison court, Waukegan. He asserted Friday night that persons angered by the shut-down of gaming resorts trumped up grand larceny charges against him at Galena, in Joe Daviess county. This was an effort to split him out of Lake county, Warner said.

Warner was kept in the Waukegan jail for five hours Thursday night until Joe Daviess county authorities informed Lake county authorities that the larceny warrants were not valid. They had been issued for an offense allegedly committed six years ago, and prosecution was barred by the statute of limitations, Warner denied the charges.

Warner Hunts Complainants. Warner visited Galena Thursday and learned that complainants in the warrants were Ambrose Beaudin and James W. Stevens. Ambrose Beaudin, according to Warner, is a brother of Mitchell Beaudin, one of those arrested in the gambling raids.

Warner was Ambrose's boss in 1932 in a vice and liquor traffic investigation in Jo Daviess county. The name of James W. Stevens is believed to be a fictitious one. Warner was searching yesterday for Ambrose Beaudin and the mysterious Stevens.

"I am not interested in Warner's personal affairs," Special Prosecutor Jack said, "unless it is shown that the incidents down in Galena were part of a conspiracy to obstruct justice in the gambling inquiry."

Kane County Supervisor, Ill, Hangs Self in Home. Charles F. Koch, member of the Kane county board of supervisors for the last 25 years, hanged himself in his home at 152 Perry street, Elgin, yesterday. Ill health was given as the motive at an inquest. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 51 Center street, Elgin.

RACINE MAYOR ASKS POLICE HEAD BE SUSPENDED

Racine, Wis., July 23.—[Special.]—Mayor Roy Spencer tonight demanded the immediate suspension of Chief of Police Grover C. Lutter following five raids at five alleged gambling places last night. Ninety persons were arrested and $15,000 in gaming equipment was confiscated.

The demand came when the mayor filed with Steve Thomas, chairman of the fire and police board, charges reported to be that of neglect of duty, permitting gambling to be carried on openly, concealing of slot machines in his office in the police station, using squad cars for purposes other than police work, use of intoxicating liquors while on duty, and failure to maintain proper discipline on the police force.

Grover C. Lutter.

300 at Dinner for New Guard Unit Commanders

More than 300 attended a dinner in the Edgewater Beach hotel last night at which the guests were Brig. Gen. Francis M. Allen and Col. John M. Richmond. Gen. Allen is the new commander of the 53d infantry brigade and Col. Richmond has just been placed in command of the 131st infantry, both 33d division units. Both were officers in the old "Dandy First," veterans of which, together with members of the Santiago society and Chipilly post of the American Legion, made up most of the assemblage.

DIES WHILE TALKING TO WIFE. Cyrus Tolman, 77 years old, 1627 Washington boulevard, a retired salesman, died of a heart attack yesterday while talking with his wife, Lydia, in their home.

WAREHOUSE 39 PIANO SALE

BRAND NEW CONSOLE TYPE PIANO Warehouse Sale Price $99 Terms $1.00 a Week

Small Size Used Piano $35 Terms $1.50 a Week

BRAND NEW GRAND PIANOS $139 Terms $1.50 a Week

BRAND NEW UPRIGHT PIANOS $79 Terms $1.00 a Week

Very popular. They have a standard full size keyboard, clear mellow tone and responsive action. Latest grand piano construction. Full rich tone, full size standard 88-note keyboard. Built especially for limited space. Chicago musical sensation. Full size keyboard. Beautiful tone. Easy action.

SALE AT THE PRIVATE PIANO FIREPROOF WAREHOUSE 39 South Ashland Ave. and 39th St. OPEN SUNDAY TILL 5 P. M.—MONDAY TO 9 P. M.

TAKE THIS "Question and Answer Box" with you when you buy your new car

DOES IT HAVE ALL THESE MODERN FEATURES?
(Chevrolet has all of them. No other low-priced car has more than one.)

CAR	PERFECTED HYDRAULIC BRAKES	KNEE-ACTION*	85-H.P. VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE	FISHER ALL-SILENT ALL-STEEL BODY	FISHER NO DRAFT VENTILATION	TIPTOE-MATIC CLUTCH	SYNCHRO-MESH TRANSMISSION	SIZE (WHEELBASE)
CHEVROLET	yes	yes	yes	yes	yes	yes	yes	112½"
NEXT CAR

Check these important features and make sure you get all of them in the car you buy

Latest Available
R. L. POLK & COMPANY
OFFICIAL REGISTRATION
FIGURES FOR 1938

CHEVROLET.. 271,573
NEXT MAKE .. 231,205
NEXT MAKE 122,092

"You'll be AHEAD with a CHEVROLET!"
THE SIX SUPREME

SEE YOUR LOCAL CHEVROLET DEALER