Announcement of Five Golden Awards Is Due

MAESTRO'S MUSIC PLEASURES

Gold rings and his band are current attractions in Chicago theatres. Their last appearance was at the north side Argyle this afternoon, Thursday night, and Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Thursday night and at the North Side. Thursday night.

MAESTRO'S MUSIC PLEASURES

Music Calendar

Theatre:

A programme of Stutz's0 and Strauss songs, with orchestra, is being given by the School of Music Monday night. Stutz is the son of the late Mr. Louis Stutz, a well-known Chicagoan. The programme will consist of songs from the songs of Stutz's0 and Strauss, with orchestra, and will be given in the school's auditorium. The proceeds of the programme will go to the Stutz Memorial Fund. The school's auditorium is located at 431 6th Street, and the programme will begin at 8:00 p.m. The programme will be given by the school's orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Louis Stutz.

STUDENT PLAYWRIGHTS

Awards Are Made to Five Young Playwrights

Awards have been made to five young playwrights, it was announced by Mr. Golden, who is in charge of the work of the Bureau of New Plays. The awards are to be in the form of an open competition, and will be made to the first five young playwrights who submit plays that meet the requirements of the competition. The requirements of the competition are that the plays must be original, and must be written by young playwrights. The plays must be submitted in the form of a typescript, and must be accompanied by a statement of the writer's age, address, and occupation.

The awards will be made to the first five young playwrights who submit plays that meet the requirements of the competition. The awards will be made in the form of a check, and will be made in the amount of $5,000. The awards will be made on the condition that the plays submitted are in the form of an open competition, and that the plays are written by young playwrights.

The award will be made to the first five young playwrights who submit plays that meet the requirements of the competition. The award will be made in the form of a check, and will be made in the amount of $5,000. The award will be made on the condition that the plays submitted are in the form of an open competition, and that the plays are written by young playwrights.

The award will be made to the first five young playwrights who submit plays that meet the requirements of the competition. The award will be made in the form of a check, and will be made in the amount of $5,000. The award will be made on the condition that the plays submitted are in the form of an open competition, and that the plays are written by young playwrights.

The award will be made to the first five young playwrights who submit plays that meet the requirements of the competition. The award will be made in the form of a check, and will be made in the amount of $5,000. The award will be made on the condition that the plays submitted are in the form of an open competition, and that the plays are written by young playwrights.

The award will be made to the first five young playwrights who submit plays that meet the requirements of the competition. The award will be made in the form of a check, and will be made in the amount of $5,000. The award will be made on the condition that the plays submitted are in the form of an open competition, and that the plays are written by young playwrights.

The award will be made to the first five young playwrights who submit plays that meet the requirements of the competition. The award will be made in the form of a check, and will be made in the amount of $5,000. The award will be made on the condition that the plays submitted are in the form of an open competition, and that the plays are written by young playwrights.

The award will be made to the first five young playwrights who submit plays that meet the requirements of the competition. The award will be made in the form of a check, and will be made in the amount of $5,000. The award will be made on the condition that the plays submitted are in the form of an open competition, and that the plays are written by young playwrights.