Horse Shows Follow Races on West Coast

By Ruth Billheimer.

Horse is king again . . . or should one say "yet"? Yesterday Hollywood Park closed its brief summer season with a grand flourish and a festive crowd. The fans have been trooping out to the Inglewood track approximately 20,000 strong every racing day, except for a greatly boosted figure on special days.

This week's eleventh annual Coronado National Horse show, which closed last night with a supper-dance at Hotel del Coronado, has had a slightly different appeal, but as always is one of the biggest sporting events of the summer on the coast. Mrs. Luther Kennett, formerly of Chicago, who has been connected with the show since its inception, was on the committee again this year. Her daughter, Miss Mildred Kennett, was one of the debs to sell gardenias and her son David was an usher. The Clark Cavendishs of Chicago and San Diego were among the box holders.

The Boys' and Girls' Aid society of San Diego was this year's beneficiary. Upon the heels of this event comes the Santa Barbara National Horse show, which opens Wednesday and lasts through next Sunday. Many of the San Diego exhibitors will haul their steeds north to try for more ribbons. Among the Chicagoans holding boxes for the shows are the Williams R. Dickinsons.

Music takes its toll from radio set and movie theater, for California, like so many other states in the Union, has dusted off its outdoor benches and turned out in large numbers to hear symphonies under the stars at Hollywood bowl, the periodic concerts at the Santa Barbara County bowl sponsored by the Santa Barbara Summer Festival guild, the Redlands bowl, and similar less well known musical rendezvous.

Hollywood bowl opened auspiciously with Wagner's opera, "Die Walkure," with Richard Hageman conducting, Jeritza, Stueckgold, Althouse, Schorr, Beattie, and Von Essen in the leading roles.

Chicago names spotted among the box holders include the F. G. Adamsons, John L. Mothershead, Mrs. George Ellery Hale, Mrs. William L. Honnold, Miss Margaret Rowntree; Earle C. Anthony, nephew of Mrs. C. M. Anthony of Chicago, and also the Remsen D. Birds, Mrs. Edward L. Doheny, Carrie Jacobs Bond, Otto Klempner, Andres de Seguro, Otto Kruger, Sigmund Romberg, and many film colonists.

Last night was the first of the Santa Barbara open air concerts and Mme. Jeritza was prima donna. Box holders include Henry Eichheim, Mrs. Arthur Meeker, the Clarence B. Mitcheils, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moley, Prince and Princess Zalsztam-Zalesky, and many other social celebrities.

Mme. Jeritza, who in private life is Mrs. Winfield B. Sheehan, fills the rôle not only of prima donna but of a citizen of the community, for she lives on a ranch in Hidden valley. A week ago today she entertained fifty guests at a luncheon party there where they had been invited to see her famous Arabian horses. Two years ago the diva brought eight of the highly bred Lipizzanos (famous white Arabians) to Hidden valley from Austria, where they originated, the first time that any of the horses of this celebrated line had left that country. And the first one bred outside the Austrian borders was from Mme. Jeritza's California ranch and is three weeks old. Her name is Martha, for Martha Washington "and our country."

The remaining concerts in the Santa Barbara series will feature Rock Peris, young American pianist; Lottie Lehmann, the Horton dance group, the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, and as an innovation Benny Goodman, exponent of swing! There will be both a concert and dancing on this novel occasion.

The grimly romantic tale of St. Helena, living tomb of Napoleon during his six years' exile following Waterloo, will be visited by members of the Canadian Pacific's world cruise in 1939. The revised itinerary, announced last week, showed that the Empress of Britain will sail from New York Jan. 7, crossing the Atlantic to Madeira and visiting Gibraltar, Algiers, Monaco, Naples, Athens, Palermo, Egypt, India, Ceylon, Penang, Singapore, Siam, Hongkong, Manila, Batavia, and Bali. From Bali she will go to Durban, Capetown, and St. Helena, and then cross to Rio de Janeiro and Bahia. The Caribbean ports of Trinidad and Havana will wind up the schedule of ports of call, with arrival in New York set for May 14.

In accordance with the recent ruling of the interstate commerce commission, coach passenger fares on the eastern roads will be increased to morrow from 2 to 2½ cents a mile. Effective a week from tomorrow, charges for seat, berth, and room accommodations (except upper berths) in Pullman cars will be raised 5 per cent. The western roads decided Friday to continue their present rates.

With the annual northward trek of hay fever sufferers about to begin, the resorts of Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Canada are preparing for heavy patronage until early autumn. The shores of Lake Michigan, and Lake Superior along with the smaller bodies of water throughout the northland, are dotted with towns and cities boasting that they give complete relief from the malady.

The "little season" in trans-Atlantic travel opens this week, with a 10 per cent reduction in eastbound fares. Most of the steamship lines say their ships are heavily booked by persons wishing to take advantage of the lower prices, effective both en route and in Europe.

A midsummer travelogue is to be given at the Fair store at 2 a. m. Friday in honor of Marie Kane, good will ambassador for the British Empire.

UNSPOTTED.

St. James, Mich., July 5.—To the Travel Editor: I have read your article in your column on the beauty of many places all over the world. But it is not necessary for us Chicagoans to travel thousands of miles to try Robinson Crusoe's adventurous existence on some island.

Right in our own Lake Michigan we have a group of islands thickly covered with virgin forests. On some of the uninhabited ones a city dweller gets a taste of freedom unknown within the bounds of civilization. The largest of these, Beaver, can be reached by a three hour boat trip from Charlevoix, Mich. "It is a land of the Spanish 'manana.' No one rushes here the way we do in Chicago. And the islanders are a happy go lucky people, friendly to anyone who happens to come along. A small, clean, country hotel and several cottages hidden in the woods along the beaches cater to those city folks who are tired of the fast tempo of a large city.

This group of islands, scattered in the northern part of Lake Michigan, some day will become the most noted playground of the Midwest.

The remaining concerts in the Santa Barbara series will feature Rock Peris, young American pianist; Lottie Lehmann, the Horton dance group, the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, and as an innovation Benny Goodman, exponent of swing! There will be both a concert and dancing on this novel occasion.

The Wisconsin north woods, as displayed at the Chicago and North Western station.

pire exhibition in Glasgow. Miss Kane is on a 13,000 mile aerial journey over the United States. The travelogue will include a movie tour of Scotland.

Midland, Ont., 90 miles from Toronto and gateway to the 30,000 islands of Georgian bay, is one of the goals of this summer's sailings of the Georgian Bay line's North American and South American out of Chicago. The town's chief attraction is the nearby Martyrs' shrine, known as the cradle of Christianity and civilization in Ontario. The place was once the fortified headquarters of the Jesuit missionaries who worked among the Huron Indians in the seventeenth century. In the course of the seven day cruises on the two ships there are stopovers at Mackinac Island, Detroit, Cleveland, and Buffalo.

A piece of the north woods, with real birch and pine trees, has been brought from its native habitat to Chicago by the Wisconsin conservation commission. The scene is contained in a booth erected on the train floor of the North Western station. It shows a sandy beach leading to a quiet lake, overhung with trees. At one side stands a small summer cabin. There also are specimens of muskies, bass, blue gills, and perch. An illuminated map at the rear shows all the principal resort and vacation regions of Wisconsin.

Charles Kozminski of Chicago, general western passenger agent of the Red Star line, is planning to take a group of midwesterners to Europe this fall. He will sail Sept. 3 on the Westernland.

The "Lady" liners of the Canadian National steamships are carrying a record number of vacationists this season. Victor E. Eke, passenger traffic manager, says travelers from all over the United States and Canada are boarding the ships for cruises from Montreal to Jamaica, Bermuda, and the Bahamas.

Taking advantage of the new tourist interest in South America, the American Republics line is sending out one of three ships—the Southern Cross, the Pan-America, and the Western World—every two weeks on a cruise to Rio de Janeiro, Santos, Montevideo, and Buenos Aires. Each trip lasts about forty days.

Amateur golfers from the United States and Canada will gather next month for a tournament on one of the world's most spectacular courses.

The Banff Springs hotel's annual golf week has been announced for Aug. 22 to 27.

This year, for the first time, the Richelieu of the Canada Steamship lines is making a series of six day house party cruises on the lower St. Lawrence and Saguenay rivers. The route takes the passengers along scenic waterways of French Canada and up to a new tourist district surrounding Lake St. John.

A one day fishing tour of Yellowstone park has been added to this summer's vacation program. Anglers may now fly overnight from Chicago, leaving here at 10:15 aboard United Air Lines sleeper planes and reaching Yellowstone Park airport at the breakfast hour. From there they are driven to Hebgen lake and Madison river. After testing their luck for a few hours they return to West Yellowstone and start the return fight. The round trip takes two nights and one day.

Escorted, all-expense tour to the scenic West. Every coast planned by experts—one low cost covers everything—all trains are air-conditioned.
