Are You a Regular Reader

of

The Daily Tribune?

Two hundred thousand of you who read The Sunday Tribune every week are not regular readers of The Daily Tribune as well. This is shown by our circulation figures, which are about that much larger on The Sunday than on The Daily.

Most of you two hundred thousand people who read The Sunday and not The Daily Tribune live a considerable distance away from Chicago and probably depend upon a daily paper from some city nearer to you than Chicago, because you receive this daily paper sooner than you would receive ours.

In addition to the news of the European War furnished to The Tribune by the Associated Press, The London Times, The New York World and The New York Sun, we have three special, exclusive correspondents on the way to the very scene of action, from whose pens can be expected cables and letters that will not appear in any other newspaper. James O'Donnell Bennett has already sent three cables from Brussels; Joseph Medill Patterson is on the way to join the German army and John T. McCutcheon is en route to join the French army.

While The Daily Tribune is pre-eminent among the newspapers of the world in its news service, this service is by no means all that The Daily Tribune renders. If you are not content to wait for the world-famed news service of The Daily Tribune, at least the following exclusive features, outside of what is generally termed news, are well worth your attention:

- Dr. W. A. Evans - - - How To Keep Well
 - La Marquise de Fontenay - Foreign Gossip
 - B. L. T. - - - A Line o' Type or Two
 - Marion Harland - - - Housekeeping Helps
 - Bessie Ascough - - - Fashions
 - Jane Eddington - - - Economical Housekeeping
 - Doris Blake - - - Help to Lovers
 - Lillian Russell - - - Beauty and Health
- Also News and Views of Sports, Society, Real Estate, Financial, Music, Theaters and Movies.

The store news contained in The Daily Tribune's display ads and the opportunities in the Want Ads should not be overlooked by anyone. The Tribune prints more clean, high-class advertising than any other newspaper in Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, St. Louis or Boston. To know where, when and what to buy is very necessary just now.

So, if you are not a regular subscriber to The Daily Tribune, consult the subscription rates printed in the paper you now hold in your hand and send in your order NOW.
