

EX-CZAR OF RUSSIA EXILED IN SIBERIA—The Russian revolutionists who overthrew the oppressive Romanoff dynasty gave the deposed czar and his family tit for tat by sending them into exile at Tobolsk, Siberia. The czar and his predecessors had caused thousands to be sent to Siberia for minor political offenses. Even in exile the ex-czar is closely guarded. Three armed guards who keep him under surveillance are shown stationed at a distance.

[Photograph by Central News Photo service.]