

Today is STATE STREET DAY

IN THE 100th ANNIVERSARY WEEK OF STATE STREET

We hunted down these Antelopes at $5.95

Berets and toques of silky imported skins in the new high shades

hunt green black jockey red red rust turf brown

MODERATELY PRICED HATS—FIFTH FLOOR

They're sheer and lovely . . . lace top INGRAIN CHIFFON HOSE

95c

Now you can have lots of fine chiffon stockings . . . with this special price paving the way. They have the sheerness and clearness that women admire in better quality chiffons. New taupe and dusky shades to wear with winter costumes.

FIRST FLOOR

A hundred years of business mark the progress of State Street. Ten great department stores and scores of specialty shops have grown up in its famous "seven-block stretch." The merchandise brought here from all over the world has made it the shopping center of the metropolis. And today in celebration of the 100th anniversary of business activities all the State Street stores have joined together to make it THE buying opportunity of the year.

Such dainty hand-made LINGERIE

Gown $3.95 Chemise $2.95

It seems a small price to pay for gowns with lace edging and drawwork and hand embroidery. The bias cut chemise is just as special, too . . . with rows of drawwork and delicate point Turque. In tearose crepe. Sizes up to 40.

Jersey Vests, Panties $1 ea.

If you prefer the slim smooth undie-lines of jersey you'll like these garments trimmed with lace. Tearose.

FIFTH FLOOR

Shirred velvet ribbon in collar and cuffs provides the feminine flattery for this dress. Blue, black, brown, green. 12-18. Misses' Dresses.

You can spend the whole day in this dress with a slashed peplum jacket. Black with white, brown with rust, black with green. 11-17. Petite Miss.

Start the day in Gude Scotch plaid wool with starched white pique. Browns and blues. 14-20. Sports Room.

There's warmth in Angora knit . . . a Patou copy in the original import colors. Contrast color trims the top. 14-20. Sports Room.

You could select your entire wardrobe from this dress selling at

$25

Velvet . . . for dinners with long slit sleeves and décolletage and empire waistline. Black and dinner shades. Sizes 12-20. After-Five Room.

A collar of softly tucked white silk corduroy has decided distinction combined with crepe in blue, brown, black, blackberry. 33-44. Women's Dresses.

Heavy sheer is the material that chooses the smartness of a Kolinsky bow and braid trimming. Brown, navy, blackberry, black. 16½-26½. Women's Dresses.

A "don't dress" dress with criss-cross cut and sling sleeves. Brown and chartreuse, green and brown, Schiaparelli blue with fuchsia. 12-20. Misses' Dresses.

SIXTH FLOOR

For fashion, for quality for value . . . choose a Field Hudson Seal every time!

$195

When you get Field quality in Hudson Seal (dyed muskrat) you really have something worth while for $195. We had these coats made especially for us in the new swagger length as well as the classic long coat and priced them low for State Street Day.

FUR SALON SIXTH FLOOR

Bound to be a hit! Capeskin GLOVES

$1.85

6-BUTTON SLIPONS

Classic slip-ons . . . the gloves you'll wear and wear the whole year round . . . of medium weight capeskin that is practical for street or driving and smart looking wherever it goes. Full pique sewn for perfect fit. Black, brown, white and beige.

FIRST FLOOR

UTILITY ROOM DRESSES FIFTH FLOOR

MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY

