

New! Interesting! Open Free to All!

AN OPPORTUNITY TO WIN AS MUCH AS $2,000 WITHOUT ONE CENT OF COST!

Ten Thousand Dollars will be given away by the Chicago Tribune. Doesn't that statement T-H-R-I-L-L you? Do you want to know how YOU can win? Then read this announcement carefully.

Look at the three Misplaced Faces of Movie Stars printed at the right. Can you cut them apart, put them together and name them?

Note that each photograph is in three pieces. As printed here the pieces do not match. But when cut apart and put together properly, they DO match.

Try it and see. Instantly you will recognize three of the most famous stars of the screen. If you go to the movies you have seen them countless times. Can you tell who they are? Simply write their names in the spaces indicated.

A new set of Misplaced Faces will appear in the Picture Section of the Chicago Sunday Tribune each Sunday for 12 Sundays. Save the entire set. Then send them in. The Chicago Tribune will pay $10,000 in Cash Prizes to the persons who send in the best answers. No subscriptions to solicit—no tricks—no catches. Everybody has an equal chance. Simply prove your skill.

This offer is made for the entertainment of our readers. It costs you nothing. It is open to every man, woman, boy, and girl, except employees of the Tribune, employees of Balaban & Katz Theaters, and members of their families. It does not matter where you live. There are 428 Big Cash Prizes.

Read the rules carefully and start with the first set of pictures printed here. Get the next set of Misplaced Faces next Sunday.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

THE MOVIE STARS WHOSE PICTURES ARE USED IN THIS GAME APPEAR REGULARLY

CAN YOU PUT THESE PICTURES TOGETHER AND NAME THEM? THEY ARE FAMOUS MOVIE STARS

CLUE: The forehead is that of a star who came from Sweden. The eyes and nose are those of a star whose first and last names begin with the same letter. (Chicagoans can see her this week at an evening Balaban & Katz Theater.) The mouth and chin are those of a star currently playing in "China Seas."

CLUE: The forehead is that of a star who played opposite Clark Gable in a picture that won national acclaim. Eyes and nose—attach to the proper forehead and chin and you will recognize them. (Chicagoans may see her this week at a South Side Balaban & Katz Theater.) The mouth and chin are those of a star known for her dramatic roles.

CLUE: The forehead is that of a star famous for her platinum hair. The eyes and nose are those of a star noted for her aloofness. (Chicagoans can see her this week at a loop Balaban & Katz Theater.) If you saw the film, Cleopatra, you saw the star whose mouth and chin are pictured here.

THIS WILL HELP YOU
The stars in the first set of Misplaced Faces are among those shown below. This will help you get started.

HERE ARE THE SIMPLE RULES:

WHO CAN ENTER: Every man, woman, boy, and girl is eligible, regardless of residence, excepting employees of the Chicago Tribune, employees of Balaban & Katz Theaters, and members of their families.

WHAT TO DO: The pictures must be cut apart, assembled and pasted together. Below each picture must be written the name of the star. You may trim off rough edges if you wish to make perfect rectangular pictures. Three pictures will appear each Sunday in the Chicago Sunday Tribune until 36 pictures have appeared. Each set of three pictures, when cut apart and assembled properly, will make complete portraits.

WHERE TO SEND ENTRIES: DO NOT send in pictures one at a time. Hold all pictures until you have the complete set of 36. Then send them to "Misplaced Faces," Chicago Tribune, Postoffice Box 1539, Chicago, Illinois. No entry will be returned. All entries must be in by midnight 15 days after Set No. 12 is published. Each entry must be sent by first class mail, postage prepaid. Entries with insufficient postage will be returned by the Postoffice Department.

THE PRIZES: The Chicago Tribune will pay 428 cash prizes totaling $10,000 to the persons who send in the nearest correctly solved and neatest complete sets of pictures in accordance with these rules. See prize list at right. You do not necessarily have to solve each of the 36 pictures correctly to win. Prizes will be paid to the persons whose entries rank highest. Elaborate entries are not necessary. Just make your entry simple and neat.

JUDGING: Entries will be judged by a committee appointed by the Chicago Tribune. Entrants agree to accept this committee's decision as final. Accuracy in assembling and naming the pictures, and neatness of entry will be the sole determining factors. In case of ties, duplicate awards will be paid.

NOTHING TO BUY: It is not necessary to buy the Chicago Tribune to compete. You may copy or trace the pictures. The Tribune may be examined at any of its offices or at public libraries free of charge.
