

THE CAMERA'S STORY OF THE ASSASSINATION OF JUGO-SLAVIA'S KING

THE SLAYER SLAIN—The saber of Mounted Lieut. Col. Piolet striking down the assassin of King Alexander of Jugo-Slavia an instant after the fatal shots were fired.
(Acme photo.)

THE ASSASSIN FIRING THE SHOTS that killed King Alexander and Foreign Minister Bar-thou of France at Marseilles. Lieut. Col. Piolet, at left, is turning on the slayer.
(Acme Radiophoto.)

THE ASSASSIN'S FATE—"Petrus Kalemén," identified by Jugo-Slavian officials as Vlada Geor-gieff Tschernocemskz, Macedonian terrorist, lying in death.
(Acme photo.)

AS THEY SMILED IN THE FACE OF DEATH UNKNOWNLY—King Alexander and Bar-thou riding through the streets of Marseilles just before the assassination.
(Associated Press photo.)

THE SMOKE OF THE ASSASSIN'S GUN rising above the panic-stricken crowd that witnessed the slaying of King Alexander.
(Associated Press photo.)