

A PAGE OF WAR PICTURES

Of Superlative Quality
EVERY DAY IN THE TRIBUNE

Memorandum From the Managing Editor of The New York Times
 Giving Outline of the Arrangement

On board R.M.S. "ADRIATIC"

Oct. 18th 1914

The Chicago Tribune, in conjunction with the New York Times, has purchased the entire war picture services of the London Daily Mirror and the London Daily Chronicle. The Daily Mirror has a photographer in Russia who has just received permission to join the army at the front, three photographers in Belgium and six in France. The London Daily Chronicle has established a periodical devoted exclusively to war pictures, and to supply it has placed its own photographers at the various scenes of hostilities and has purchased the full output of several of the leading photographers of the Continent. These two picture services are probably the best and most complete in the world, and their full output of more than 100 pictures weekly is now the property of the Chicago Tribune for the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and the States west of the Mississippi River.

C. V. Van Anda

Watch This Page Every Day, Beginning Next Monday