OF MOVIE STARS

$10,000 IN CASH PRIZES

★ ★ ★ How well do you know the famous stars of the screen? When you see their photographs can you tell who they are?

The Chicago Tribune invites you to enter this new $10,000 cash prize contest. It is free to everyone.

Note the two sets of "Misplaced Faces of Movie Stars" printed at the right. When cut apart and put together properly each set makes three complete portraits of well-known movie stars. Can you put them together and name them?

That is all you have to do. There are no essays to write—no subscriptions to solicit—no strings or catches. This contest is offered solely for the entertainment of our readers.

A new set of "Misplaced Faces" will appear each Sunday in the Picture Section of the Sunday Tribune for twelve Sundays. Save them all. Then send them in.

The Chicago Tribune will pay $10,000 in cash prizes to the persons who send in the best answers. There are 428 big cash prizes.

The stars whose photographs will be used in this contest will, at the same time, appear in pictures at Balaban & Katz Theaters.

Read the rules and begin at once with the two sets of pictures printed here. Get the next set of pictures in next Sunday's Chicago Sunday Tribune.

THE RULES:

WHO CAN ENTER: Every man, woman, boy and girl is eligible, regardless of residence, excepting employes of the Chicago Tribune, employes of Balaban & Katz Theaters, and members of their families.

WHAT TO DO: The pictures must be cut apart, assembled and pasted together. Below each picture must be written the name of the star. You may trim off rough edges if you wish to make perfect rectangular pictures. Three pictures will appear each Sunday in the Chicago Sunday Tribune until 36 pictures have appeared. Each set of three pictures, when cut apart and assembled properly, will make complete portraits.

WHERE TO SEND ENTRIES: DO NOT send in pictures one at a time. Hold all pictures until you have the complete set of 36. Then send them to "Misplaced Faces," Chicago Tribune, Post Office Box 1539, Chicago, Illinois. No entry will be returned. All entries must be in by midnight 15 days after Set No. 12 is published. Each entry must be sent by first class mail, postage prepaid. Entries with insufficient postage will be returned by the Post Office Department.

THE PRIZES: The Chicago Tribune will pay 428 cash prizes totaling $10,000 to the persons who send in the nearest correctly solved and neatest complete sets of pictures in accordance with these rules. See prize list below. You do not necessarily have to solve each of the 36 pictures correctly to win. Prizes will be paid to the persons whose entries rank highest. Elaborate entries are not necessary. Just make your entry simple and neat.

JUDGING: Entries will be judged by a committee appointed by the Chicago Tribune. Entrants agree to accept this committee's decision as final. Accuracy in assembling and naming the pictures, and neatness of entry will be the sole determining factors. In case of ties, duplicate awards will be paid.

NOTHING TO BUY: It is not necessary to buy the Chicago Tribune to compete. You may copy or trace the pictures. The Tribune may be examined at any of its offices or at public libraries free of charge.
