CLUE: The upper part of this stamp represents an island possession of Great Britain; the central part was issued by a country which became a republic in November, 1918; the lower portion represents an island possession which lies north of the Friendly Islands.

CLUE: Robert Louis Stevenson, the novelist, lived for some time on the island represented by the upper part of this stamp; an important city of the region represented by the central part of this stamp is Port of Spain. The bottom part of the stamp was issued by a nation once ruled by Emperor Franz Josef.

CLUE: Budapest is the capital of the country represented by the upper part of this composite stamp; the central part is an issue by an island government lying in 13 degrees 30 minutes south latitude and longitude 168 west. The lower part represents an island given its name by Columbus in 1498 because of its three lofty mountain peaks. It exports cocoa, rum, molasses and arrowroot.

• THE RULES •

1. Every Sunday for 14 Sundays, the Chicago Tribune will print in this "Stamp Album," a set of 3 composite "Stamps of the Nations." Each set of stamps, when cut apart and assembled properly, will make complete stamps. The public is invited to put the stamps together and name the countries they represent. The Chicago Tribune will pay $10,000.00 in Cash Prizes for the best answers! See Prize List at right.
2. The composite stamps must be cut out, assembled and pasted or pinned together. Below each stamp must be written the name of the country it represents. A total of 42 stamps will be printed—3 each Sunday for 14 Sundays. IMPORTANT! Hold all stamps until you have the complete set of 42. Then send them to "Stamps," Chicago Tribune, Post Office Box 1539, Chicago, Illinois.
3. This contest is open to everyone—men, women, boys and girls—except employes of the Chicago Tribune and their families. It does not matter where you live.
4. You pay nothing. Just prove your skill.
5. All stamps must be in by midnight 21 days after Set No 14 is published. Each entry should be sent by First Class Mail, Postage Prepaid. Entries with insufficient postage will be returned by the Post Office Department. A letter must be sent with your entry giving your name and address and telling the name of your favorite Stamp and why you like it best. Letters must not exceed 50 words.
Contestants may send as many sets as they wish, but no

6. The judging will be based upon the accuracy of putting the stamps together, correctly naming the countries they represent, neatness, and merit of the accompanying letter. Elaborate entries will receive no greater consideration than the most simple entries. The prime requirement will be accuracy. Therefore any school boy or girl has the same chance to obtain a prize as any man or woman.
7. SCHOOL TEACHERS, NOTE: To interest School Teachers in encouraging their pupils to enter this instructive and educational game, the Chicago Tribune will award 5 prizes of $100.00 each to the teachers of public, parochial or private schools of grammar or high school grades, whose pupils rank highest among the winners. Teachers! This new game will familiarize your pupils with many foreign countries. Help them win!
8. You need not purchase the Chicago Tribune to compete. You may copy or trace the stamps from the Tribune and assemble the stamps from the copies you have made. The Tribune may be examined at any of its Offices or at Public Libraries free of charge.
9. The judges will be a committee appointed by the Chicago Tribune. Entrants agree to accept their decision as final. In case of ties a duplicate award will be given each tying contestant.
