

Tops in Hollywood

TO OBTAIN THE PICTURES PRESENTED ON THIS PAGE, STAFF PHOTOGRAPHERS OF THE TRIBUNE COLOR STUDIO WERE DISPATCHED TO HOLLYWOOD WITH THE FINEST COLOR CAMERA IN THE UNITED STATES . . . OTHER PICTURES IN THIS UNUSUAL SERIES WILL APPEAR IN FORTHCOMING ISSUES.

DUBUQUE TO LONDON TO HOLLYWOOD—Margaret Lindsay, born in Iowa as Margaret Kies, got her first dramatic experience on the English stage; developed an accent; and captured her first important movie role by posing as English. That was in "Cavalcade," as the girl on the Titanic.

THE BOY FROM MOUNT VIEW, ARKANSAS, whom you know as Dick Powell, sold himself to Hollywood with his voice, his wavy hair, and his million dollar smile.

