

PRESERVING OLD FOLKWAYS AMONG THE GERMAN PEASANTRY

QUAINT FEMININITY attends a convention of German peasants at Goslar, scene of all the pictures on this page. The miss in the background at left wears her hair that way—it isn't a hat.

A MOUNTAIN DANCE before a new congress hall for farmers' meetings.

REINTRODUCING THE SPINNING WHEEL and spinning evening songs.

PIGTAILS in the Bavarian manner.

LUNCHEON, with a menu of rice and cider.

HE HAS EDELWEISS ON HIS SUSPENDERS, and his best girl embroidered it.

(Photos from Sigrid Schultz, Chicago Tribune staff correspondent.)