

International photo
THE ELECTORATE RETURNS FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT TO THE WHITE HOUSE — Pictured at Hyde Park election night: Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Boettiger (daughter), John Roosevelt, Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt (mother), the President, Franklin D. Jr., and Mrs. Roosevelt.

POLITICAL DRAMA enlivened the Republican national convention at Cleveland. When Gov. Alf M. Landon was nominated on the night of June 11 pandemonium ensued.

Associated Press photo

ARABS TWEAK THE TAIL OF THE BRITISH LION, warring on the new Jewish settlements of Palestine. Pictured: British police dispersing a mob at Jaffa.

RIGHT AND LEFT WAR IN FRANCE in sporadic riots that momentarily threaten to engulf the nation in civil strife. Pictured: Demonstrating Fascists battle Paris gendarmes.

Acme photo

High Moments of the Year: 1936 Pictures in Review

AN ENGLISH KING DIES—Edward VIII, sprinkling earth on the casket containing the remains of his father just before it is lowered into vaults at St. George's chapel, Windsor castle. The death date of George V.: Jan. 20.

Acme photo

HITLER MAKES MORE SCRAPS OF PAPER OUT OF THE VERSAILLES TREATY—Among 1936 breaches of the peace was der Fuehrer's Rhineland occupation coup. On March 7 an army 50,000 strong began marching into the demilitarized area. Pictured: Germans at Mainz cheer troops crossing the Rhine.

International photo

Acme photo

THE WOMAN for whom Edward VIII, renounced the throne: Mrs. Simpson.

AN ENGLISH KING ABDICATES AND HIS BROTHER REIGNS—Left: Edward VIII, who gave up the throne to be the husband of Mrs. Wallis Warfield Simpson. Right: George VI., the former duke of York, who became king at the instant of Edward's abdication on Dec. 11.

International photo

ITALY WINS ITS WAR IN ETHIOPIA, Fascist troops entering the capital, Addis Ababa, on May 4, and Emperor Haile Selassie flees into exile. Pictured: The emperor arriving with his entourage at Southampton, England.

Acme photo

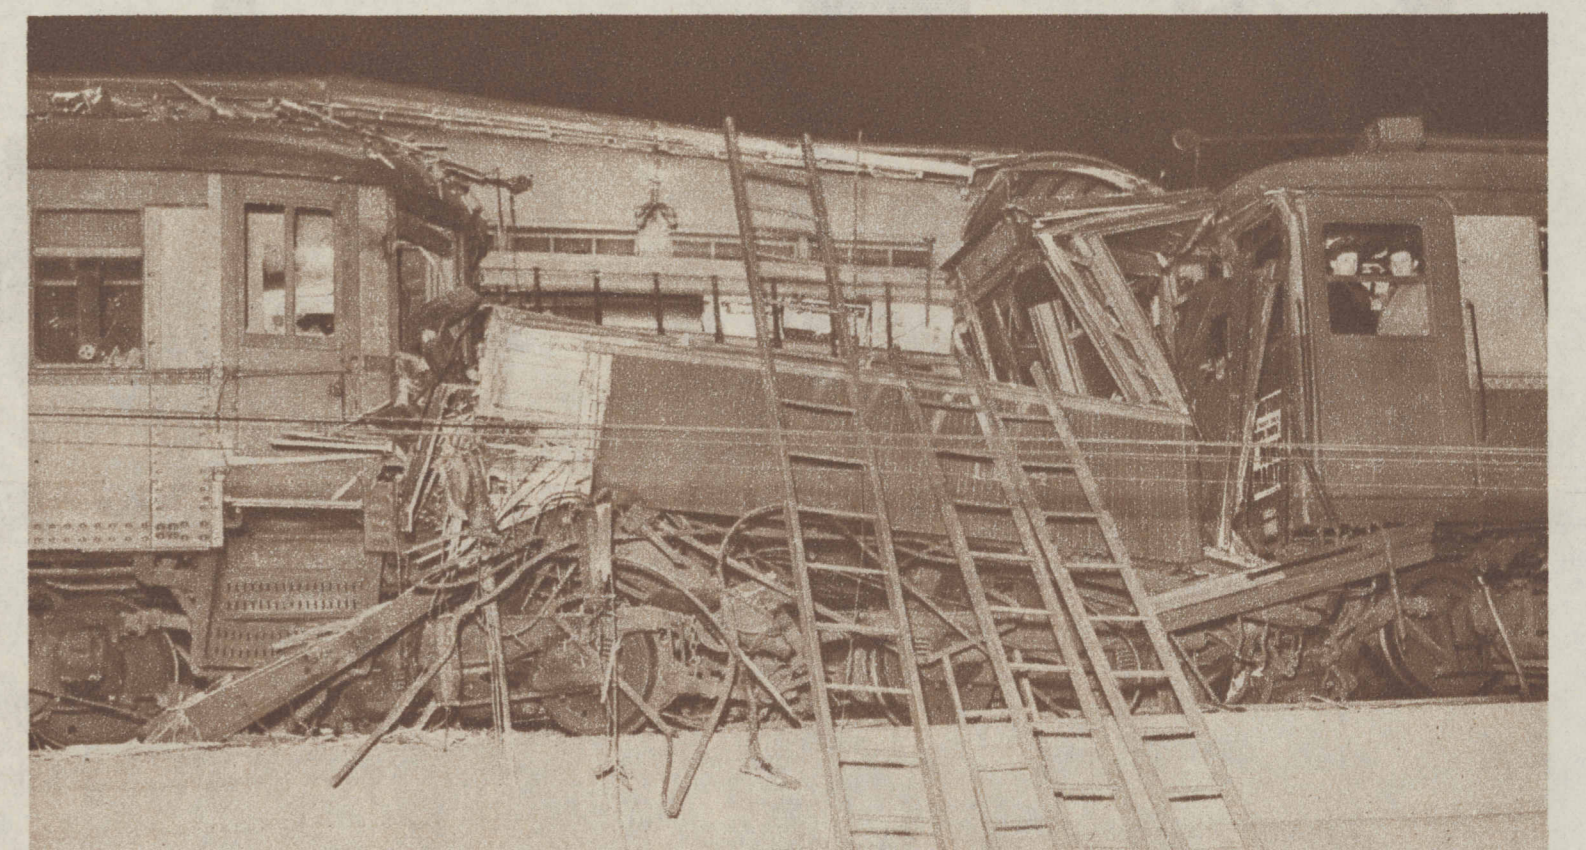

International photo

FINIS is written to the Charles A. Lindbergh Jr. abduction case by the execution on April 3 at Trenton, N. J., of the convicted kidnaper, Bruno Richard Hauptmann. Pictured: Mrs. Hauptmann collapsing in the arms of a friend on hearing the news of her husband's death.

International photo

Acme photo

THE WORST "L" DISASTER OF ALL TIME in Chicago horrified the nation on Nov. 24. Toll: Eleven dead, scores injured. A steel North Shore Line train (at left) plowed into the rear wooden car of the elevated train, forward of which was a steel car (right).

Tribune photo

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION rode March floods in eastern states; hundreds were killed, hundreds of thousands made homeless, property valued at hundreds of millions of dollars destroyed. Pictured: Terrified residents of Johnstown, Pa., flee through the streets, after passage of the flood crest, upon a false rumor that the Quemahoning dam had burst.

Universal Newsreel photo