

WHERE 14 DIED IN A FLYING FURNACE—Burning wreckage of a Dutch airliner which crashed in flames on the roof of a vacant house at Purley, Surrey, England. Among those killed was de la Cierva, inventor of the autogiro.

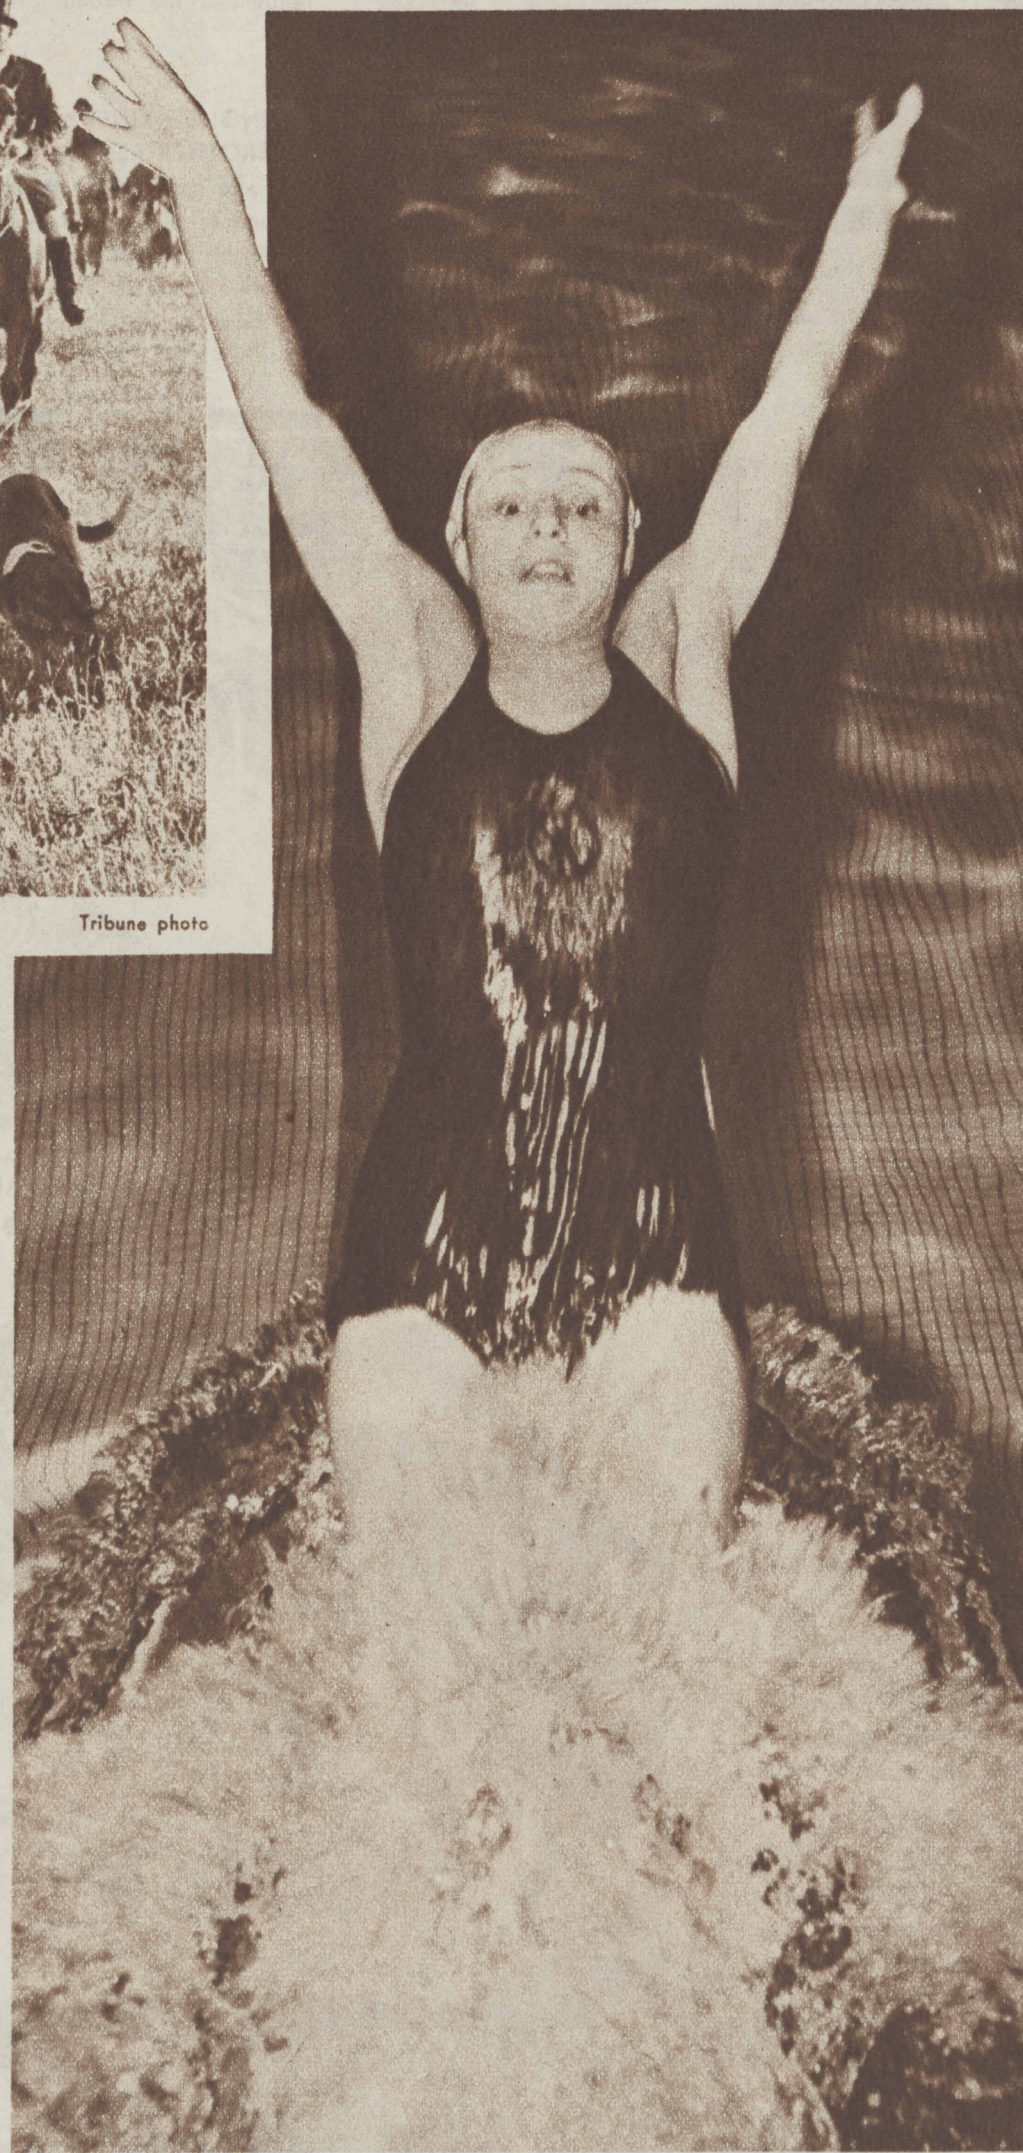

AFTER THE TRAGIC FLAMES—Remnants of the Dutch airliner and the English house into which it crashed. Only three persons aboard the plane survived.

RIDING TO HOUNDS ON THE NORTH SHORE—The Longmeadow Hunt moves off, led by Clark J. Lawrence, M. F. H.

BERLIN AMENITIES—American Ambassador Dodd (with hand extended), Pola Negri, famous star of silent movies, and President Hadamowski of the German film chamber of commerce at a function in the Nazi capital.

AIMING AT TANK TITLES—Johanna Knapik, rising New York swimmer, practices flying starts in preparation for eastern tournaments.