

ONE OF THE SLAYINGS IN THE 1934 WAVE OF RIOTS — A striker falling a volunteer guard with a fatal blow during the May truck riots in Minneapolis. (Acme photo.)

THE FIRST QUINTUPLETS TO LIVE — One of the great human interest stories of the year originated in the Canadian home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dionne on May 8. (Associated Press photo.)

PICTORIAL HIGHLIGHTS OF 1934

THE MORRO CASTLE TRAGEDY — Officers and members of the crew huddled in the bow of the doomed liner. One hundred thirty-two lives were lost in this disaster of Sept. 8.

THE MORRO CASTLE TRAGEDY — Officers and members of the crew huddled in the bow of the doomed liner. One hundred thirty-two lives were lost in this disaster of Sept. 8.

December 30, 1934

THE ROYAL WEDDING IN WESTMINSTER ABBEY — Prince George of England and Princess Marina of Greece taking the marital vow on Nov. 29. (Acme photo.)

JOHN DILLINGER, PUBLIC ENEMY NO. 1 — Captured in Arizona in January; posed sociably with Sheriff Lillian Holley and Prosecutor Robert G. Estill of Lake County, Ind.; broke jail with a wooden pistol, March 3; killed in Chicago by federal agents, July 22. (Tribune photo.)

THE CHICAGO FIRE OF 1934 — The $10,000,000 blaze in the stockyards district, a disaster of May, sweeping over an area twelve blocks square. (Tribune photo.)

THE CURTAIN IS RUNG DOWN ON A CENTURY OF PROGRESS — Chicago's maddest Halloween, on Oct. 31, in full swing. (Tribune photo.)

THE CURTAIN IS RUNG DOWN ON A CENTURY OF PROGRESS — Chicago's maddest Halloween, on Oct. 31, in full swing. (Tribune photo.)

THE ASSASSINATION OF JUGO-SLAVIA'S KING — A French officer sabering down the killer, Petrus Kalemien, following the slaying of Alexander and Foreign Minister Barthou of France, in Marseilles' October tragedy. (Acme photo.)