Prefatory Hearing Record

The hearing on the above captioned dispute took place on April 16, 1973 in conference quarters of the Benzie County Court-house situated in Beulah, Michigan. In the course of the hearing, the parties were afforded full opportunity to present their positions on all items in dispute and to advance arguments in support thereof. Upon completion of the hearing, the Board of Arbitration went into executive session and, after consideration of each item at issue, rendered its award. The award in all of its parts was unanimous and was so officially recorded on the hearing record through the polling of the Board Members, all being present and voting.
