PREAMBLE

THIS AGREEMENT is entered into the ____ day of _____, 2008 between the CHIEF JUDGE OF THE 23rd JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, the CHIEF JUDGE OF THE IOSCO COUNTY PROBATE COURT (hereinafter referred to as "the Employers") and the INTERNATIONAL CHEMICAL WORKERS UNION COUNCIL/UNITED FOOD & COMMERCIAL WORKERS UNION, AFL-CIO-CLC, and its LOCAL 1044-C (hereinafter referred to as "the Union"). The economic terms of this Agreement have been approved by the Alcona County Board of Commissioners, the Arenac County Board of Commissioners, the Iosco County Board of Commissioners and the Oscoda County Board of Commissioners.

WHEREAS, the parties recognize that the success of the Employers and the job security of their employees depend upon the Employers' success in producing a quality public service, it is the intent and purpose of this Agreement to promote harmonious relations between the management and employees of the Employers; to encourage mutual confidence through collective bargaining; to improve and promote the most efficient and productive operation of the Employers; to establish rates of pay, hours of work and employment conditions; and to set up procedures for the prompt, equitable adjustment of grievances; all to the end that there shall be no interruption or impeding of work, work stoppages, strikes, lockouts, or other interferences with production or the efficiency of operations during the life of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HERETO MUTUALLY AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

ARTICLE I - RECOGNITION

The Employers recognize the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative for the purposes of collective bargaining in respect to wages, hours and other terms and conditions of employment, for all full-time and regular part-time employees contained in the units certified in Michigan Employment Relations Commission (MERC) Case Nos. R96 G-123, R96 H-136, R96 H-162, and R99 G-85, and all full-time and regular part-time employees encompassed within Appendix D (Friend of the Court employees who work principally in Arenac County), Appendix E-1 (Court Reporter headquartered in Arenac County), Appendix E-2 (Court Recorder headquartered in Iosco County) and Appendix F (Friend of the Court employees who work principally in Alcona County).

Unless otherwise indicated, the term "employee," when used in this Agreement, will refer to all employees in the unit for bargaining as defined above.

The masculine pronoun, whenever used herein, includes feminine and singular includes the plural, unless the context clearly indicated otherwise.

ARTICLE II - UNION MEMBERSHIP

- A. The Employers agree that all employees in the bargaining unit shall either be (a) members in good standing of the Union, or (b) if not members in good standing, shall pay the Representation fee set forth below.
- B. The Employers agree to deduct Union dues, assessments, or Union Representation fees from an employee's paychecks to become effective the first payday of the month following the employee's successful completion of the probationary period set forth herein. The Union dues or Representation fees shall be sent to the Union's designated officer.
- C. The Employers agree to deduct from an employee's paycheck the initiation fee of the Union, for those employees joining the Union, which is payable only once when a new hire completes the probation period of employment, as provided herein. This one-time deduction shall be made on the first payday of the month following the employee's successful completion of the probationary period. Upon completion of the probationary period, membership in the Union or compliance with payment of the Representation fee shall be a condition of continued employment. The Union shall notify any employee who has not paid his/her dues or Representation fee by certified mail, with a copy to the Employers. If that employee does not pay the dues or Representation fee within thirty (30) days after that notice is received, the Union shall notify that employee's Employer by certified mail of this omission.
- D. The Union agrees to defend, indemnify and save the Employers harmless against any and all claims, lawsuits or other forms of liability arising out of their deduction from an employee's pay or Union dues, assessments, or Representation fees and Initiation fee, or in reliance upon any list, notice, certification, or authorization furnished under this contract, or by the Employers exercising the requirements contained in this Agreement. The Union assumes full responsibility for the disposition of the deductions so made, once they have been sent to the Union.
- E. For current employees, the payments set forth above shall commence thirty (30) days following the final ratification of this Agreement.
- F. The Union shall obtain from each of its members a completed Check-Off Authorization Form which shall conform to the respective State and Federal Law(s) concerning that subject or any interpretation(s) thereof, and provide such forms to the Employers.
- G. All employees covered under this Agreement who do not choose membership in the Union shall have deducted from their wages a Representation fee upon receipt by the Employers of a signed authorization to do so. The Representation fee shall accurately represent the amount for said employee due the Union as their fair share of costs attributable to negotiating the terms of this Agreement and servicing the contract.

- H. The Employers shall only check-off obligations which come due at the time of check-off, and will make check-off deduction only if the employee has enough pay due to cover such obligation. In that event, payment will be deducted from the next available paycheck. The Employers are not responsible for refund to the employee if he/she has duplicated a check-off deduction by direct payment to the Union.
- I. The Employers' remittance shall be deemed correct if the Union does not give written notice to the Employers within thirty (30) calendar days after a remittance is transmitted of its belief, with reason(s) stated therefor, that the remittance is incorrect.
- J. The Union shall provide at least thirty (30) days written notice to the Employers of the amount of Union dues and/or Representation fee to be deducted from the wages of the employee in accordance with this Section. Any changes in the amounts determined will also be provided to the Employers at least thirty (30) days prior to its implementation. New Check-Off Authorization Forms shall be submitted to the Employers in the event that an increase in the Union dues or Representation fee is made.
- K. All Check-Off Authorization Forms shall be filed with the Employers' designated representatives, who may return any incomplete or incorrectly completed form to the Union's designated Financial Officer, and no check-off shall be made until such deficiency is corrected.

ARTICLE III - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- A. Except as this Agreement otherwise specifically and expressly provides, the Employers, on their own behalf and on behalf of the public they serve, retain the sole and exclusive right to manage and operate all of their operations and activities. Among the rights of management, included only by way of illustration and not by way of limitation, are the right to hire, to determine all matters pertaining to the services to be furnished and the methods, procedures, means, equipment and machines required to provide such service, to determine the size of the work force and to increase and decrease the number of employees retained, to establish classifications of work and the number of personnel required within each such classification, to determine the nature and number of facilities and departments to be operated and their locations, to determine the location of work assignments, to adopt, modify, change, or alter their budget, to discontinue, combine or reorganize any or all parts of their operations, to determine the number of supervisors, to direct and control operations to maintain order and efficiency, to continue and maintain their operations as in the past, to study and use improved methods and equipment and outside assistance, either in or out of the Employers' facilities, including subcontracting, and in all respects to carry out the lawful, ordinary and customary functions of the judicial branch of the government. All such rights are vested exclusively in the Employers. Disputes under this subsection shall be subject to the Grievance Procedure established in this Agreement.

- B. Except as this Agreement otherwise specifically and expressly provides, the Employers shall also have the right to promote, demote, assign, transfer, lay off and recall personnel, to establish reasonable work rules and fix and determine penalties for violations of such rules, to suspend, discipline and discharge employees for just cause, to make judgments as to ability and skill, to determine work load, to establish and change work schedules and hours, and to provide and assign relief personnel provided, however, that these rights shall not be exercised in violation of any specific provision of this Agreement, and as such they shall be subject to the Grievance and Mediation Procedures established herein. As used in this Section, "just cause" shall include, but not be limited to, conviction of a felony, conviction of any crime involving theft, dishonesty, or moral turpitude, and the illegal use or possession of a controlled substance.
- C. The parties recognize the Constitutional, statutory and inherent powers of the Employers to manage their affairs, to administer justice and to run the business of the Courts. They further recognize the necessity that a Judge be able to maintain confidence in all employees on the staff or those closely associated with the Judge.
- D. The Union hereby agrees that the Employers retain the sole and exclusive right to establish and administer without limitation, implied or otherwise, all matters not specifically and expressly limited by this Agreement.
- E. The Employers retain the right to establish reasonable work rules.
- F. Notwithstanding any other provisions in the contract, the Employers reserve all statutorily created responsibilities and privileges.

ARTICLE IV - REPRESENTATION

Employees within the bargaining unit shall be represented by the President, Vice President and one (1) Steward. These three (3) employees will serve as the Union Committee.

A Union Committee member, or a Steward, during working hours, but not to exceed a total of two (2) hours per week, without loss of time or pay, may, in accordance with the terms of this section, investigate and present grievances to the Employers upon receiving permission from the Chief Judge, who may, in his discretion, authorize additional time for such purposes. The privilege of Grievance Committee Members leaving their work during working hours without loss of time or pay is subject to the understanding that the time will be devoted to the proper handling of grievances and will not be abused.

The Employers will not recognize any member of the Committee until his/her name and position have been certified, in writing, by the Union to the Employers.

It is agreed that no Union official shall have access to, or enter the Employers' premises without the prior permission of the Employers through their designated representatives. The Employers may also limit the area to which Union officials have access when said permission is granted.

No member of the committee shall have any authority to take strike action, or any other action interrupting the Employers' business. The Employers shall have the absolute authority to impose discipline, up to and including discharge, upon any member of the Committee, or other Employee who has engaged in, caused or encouraged a slowdown, work stoppage, or strike, and such action shall not be subject to the Grievance Procedure provision of this Agreement.

In the exercise of their discretion, the Employers may allow committee members a leave of absence for the purpose of attending Union functions (convention, training seminars or educational) or assisting the International Union in a full time or part time capacity at no loss of seniority or benefits.

ARTICLE V - NON-DISCRIMINATION

The Employers and the Union reaffirm, by this Agreement, their commitment to not discriminate on the basis of sex, age, race, creed, color, religion, national origin, height, weight, marital status or disability/handicap, not related to ability to perform the job.

After consultation with the Union, the Employers shall have the right to take all action necessary to comply with the Americans With Disabilities Act.

All references to "he/she," "his/her," or "him/her" in this Agreement shall refer to both males and females.

ARTICLE VI - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A grievance is defined as an alleged violation of a specific article and section of this Agreement. Any claims not conforming to the provisions of this definition shall be automatically defined as not constituting a valid grievance.

Any claim or complaint for which there is another specific remedial procedure or forum established by law or by regulation having the force of law shall not be the basis of any grievance filed under the procedures as outlined in this Article.

Step One: A written grievance shall be filed within five (5) working days of the alleged violation. It shall name the employees involved, shall state the facts giving rise to the grievance, shall identify, by appropriate reference, all the provisions of this Agreement alleged to be violated, shall state the contention of the employee and of the Union with respect to these provisions, shall indicate the relief requested, and shall be signed by the employee and the steward. The grievance shall be filed with the Probate Judge (or his designee) if the grievance involves matters for which he is responsible, or with the Chief Judge of the Circuit Court (or his designee) if the grievance involves matters for which he is responsible. The Judge shall forward a copy of the grievance to the applicable County Board of Commissioners.

The grievance response shall be rendered, in writing, no later than thirty (30) working days after receipt of the written grievance.

Step Two: If the grievance is not resolved in Step One, the Union may, within five (5) working days after the receipt of the answer in Step One, request, in writing, mediation of the grievance under the auspices of the Michigan Employment Relations Commission. Should mediation not result in a resolution of the grievance, the Step One response shall be final and binding.

_____ All grievances must be filed, in writing, within five (5) working days from the time the alleged violation was to have occurred or they will be deemed waived. Any grievance not filed within the prescribed time limit or not advanced to the next step by the employee or the Union within the time limit in that step, shall be deemed abandoned. If the Employer does not answer a grievance within the time limits prescribed in this Article, the grievance will be considered automatically referred to the next step of the Grievance Procedure. Time limits may be extended by the Employer and Union, in writing; then the new date shall prevail.

_____ The Employers shall not be required to pay back wages prior to the date a written grievance is filed.

- A. All claims for back wages shall be limited to the amount of wages that the employee would otherwise have earned at his/her regular rate, less any unemployment or other compensation that he/she may have received from any source during the period of backpay.
- B. No decision in any one case shall require a retroactive wage adjustment in any other case, unless such case has been designated as a representative case by mutual written agreement by the parties.

Workdays, for purposes of this Article, shall be Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, excluding observed holidays.

The sole remedy available to any employee for any alleged breach of this Agreement or any alleged violation of his/her rights hereunder will be pursuant to the Grievance Procedure.

ARTICLE VII - SENIORITY

Length of service, for the purpose of this Agreement, shall be defined to mean the length of an employee's continuous service with the Employer from his/her last hire date. Length of service for employees hired on the same date shall be determined by alphabetical order of surnames.

It is understood that employees are subject to a probationary period of ninety (90) calendar days of regular employment, during which time the Employer shall have the sole right to discharge, discipline, transfer, demote or layoff said employees at will, without regard to the provisions of this Agreement, and no grievance shall arise therefrom.

The probationary period may be extended one (1) time by the Employer for up to forty-five (45) additional calendar days. Said extension must be given in writing to the employee and the Union before the end of the initial ninety (90) day probationary period. If the Employer fails to notify the employee and the Union in writing on or before the end of the initial ninety (90) day probationary period, the probationary period of employment shall cease.

When an employee finishes the probationary period, he/she shall be entered on the service list of the unit and his/her length of service shall date from his/her last date of hire.

Within thirty (30) days after the signing of this Agreement, each Employer and the Union will initial an up-to-date seniority list.

An employee shall be terminated and lose his/her service rights if he/she:

- A. Quits.
- B. Is discharged, and such discharge is not reversed through the grievance procedure.
- C. Is laid off for a period equal to the time of employment or one (1) year whichever is less.
- D. Fails to report for work within five (5) days of recall from layoff.
- E. Is off due to a leave of absence for a period in excess of that allowed under the Leave of Absence Article of this contract.
- F. Is absent without a reasonable excuse acceptable to the Employer for three (3) consecutive working days, and without notice to the Employer of such excuse within the three (3) days.
- G. Fails to return from a leave of absence, vacation or sick leave, except for mitigating circumstances upon three (3) workdays notification by employee.
- H. Retires.

It shall be the responsibility of each employee to notify the Employers of any change of name, address, marital status, dependents or telephone number. This information, as it appears in the Employers' records, shall be conclusive when used in connection with layoffs, recalls or other notices to employees.

In the event that the Employer determines to layoff employees for greater than one (1) week, then employees will be laid off by geographical location where the employee is principally employed

(i.e. Harrisville, Mio, Standish, or Tawas City), and by job classification in reverse order of seniority. Ties in seniority will be broken by alphabetical order of surnames.

An employee shall be recalled only to the job classification from which he was laid off, and recall shall be in the reverse order of layoff.

Notices of vacancies in positions within the bargaining unit will be posed for a period of ten (10) days. Any bargaining unit employee who has completed his probationary period may apply for the vacancy in writing before the end of the posting period. While such employees will be considered for the vacancy, the Employer reserves the right to consider applicants who are not members of the bargaining unit.

Any member of the bargaining unit who is awarded such a vacancy may, at his option or at the option of the Employer, be immediately returned to his immediately former position. This option may be exercised only within the first thirty (30) days of employment in the new position, or until the employee's immediately former position is filled, whichever occurs first.

ARTICLE VIII - LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) - In accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the Employers will grant a leave of absence for one or more of the following:

- A. Because of the birth of a son or daughter of the employee, and in order to care for such son or daughter;
- B. Because of the placement of a son or daughter with the employee for adoption or foster care;
- C. To care for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, or parent who has a serious health condition; or
- D. The employee is unable to perform the essential job functions because of a serious health condition.

FMLA leaves are only available to employees who have been employed by the Employer for at least twelve (12) months and have worked 1,250 hours during the previous twelve (12) month period.

Such leaves are counted against an employee's annual FMLA leave entitlement. Under the FMLA, an employee is eligible for a total of twelve (12) workweeks of leave in a twelve (12) month period. This twelve (12) month period is measured back from the date the employee uses any FMLA leave. Continuation of medical benefits and the right to job restoration cease when an employee has used twelve (12) workweeks of FMLA leave in the twelve (12) month period.

An employee requesting an FMLA leave must provide the Employer at least thirty (30) days advance notice of when the leave is to begin. If such notice is not practicable, then notice is to be provided as soon as practicable.

When a leave denoted as (a) or (b) above is granted, the leave must be taken in one (1) continuous increment, and must be concluded within twelve (12) months of the date of birth or placement. When an FMLA leave denoted as (a) or (b) above is granted, the employee must utilize accumulated vacation and personal days, in that order. When an FMLA leave denoted as (c) or (d) above is granted, the employee must utilize accumulated sick leave, vacation and personal days in that order.

Leaves denoted as (c) or (d) above must be supported by medical certification from a health care provider stating (1) the date on which he serious health condition commenced, (2) the probable duration of the condition, (3) the appropriate medical facts, and (4) a statement that the employee is unable to perform the essential functions of his/her position, or that the employee is needed to care for the person. The Employer reserves the right to require the employee to obtain the opinion of a second health care provider designated or approved by the Employer concerning any information within the medical certification.

The Employer may require an employee to report periodically upon his or her status and intent to return to work.

At the expiration of a medical leave or if the employee wishes to return to work before completion of the leave, there must be a physician's certification confirming his/her fitness to return to work. The Employer may delay the return to work until the certification is provided. The Employer may require a returning employee to be examined by the health care professional(s) of the Employer's choice. The Employer may also require, at the employee's expense, periodic reports from his or her physician while he or she is on leave.

The Employer will continue to provide an employee's medical insurance while he/she is on an FMLA leave for a period of up to twelve (12) weeks on the same terms and conditions as prior to the leave.

An employee on an FMLA leave shall not engage in any outside or supplemental employment.

The Employer may recover insurance premiums paid while an employee was on an unpaid FMLA leave if:

- A. The employee fails to return to work for at least thirty (30) days after the expiration of the leave; and
- B. The failure to return is for a reason other than a serious health condition, or other circumstances beyond the control of the employee. Certification from the health care provider may be required for this purpose.

An employee returning from a FMLA leave will be restored to the position he/she left, or to an equivalent position with equivalent benefits, pay and other terms and conditions of employment.

Military Leaves - Leaves for active military service or reserve training will be granted in accordance with applicable law.

ARTICLE IX - HOURS OF WORK

The normal workday for full-time employees shall be between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. This is not a guarantee of any number of hours of work in any particular period, and these hours may be altered by the Employer on an "as-needed" basis.

Each employee working at least seven (7) hours in a day is entitled to a fifteen (15) minute, paid, uninterrupted break in the morning, a second such break in the afternoon, and a one (1) hour, unpaid lunch break. These breaks are to be scheduled by the Employer.

ARTICLE X - PAY PERIODS

All regular employees covered by this Agreement shall be paid in full bi-weekly.

Each employee shall be provided with his/her earnings and all deductions made at the request of the individual employee.

The Employer shall have the right to deduct any monies owed by an employee to the Employer, out of the employee's final paycheck.

ARTICLE XI - OVERTIME

An employee paid on an hourly basis will be paid at time and one-half (1-1/2) his regular hourly rate for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek. Employees paid on a salaried basis who work over forty (40) hours in a workweek shall receive "comp time" equal to those hours worked over forty (40). This "comp time" shall be taken whenever possible by the employee, with agreement by the Employer. Accumulated compensatory time shall not exceed fifteen (15) hours, and must be used within six (6) months of the time it is earned, or the time is lost and the employee will not be compensated.

Employees with in excess of fifteen (15) accumulated compensatory time hours as of the date of this Agreement shall have their accumulated compensatory time hours frozen, or may, at their option, be paid at straight-time for the hours in excess of fifteen (15).

ARTICLE XII - VACATION

- A. Vacation pay is a benefit granted to employees who successfully complete one (1) year of employment. Vacation leave will be credited to an employee on his anniversary date after completing one (1) year of employment.

B. Vacation for a regular part-time employee shall be as follows:

Hours Worked Per Year	After 1 Year	2-5 Years	6-10 Years
456-910	2 days	4 days	6 days
911-1367	3 days	6 days	9 days
1368-1820 and up	4 days	8 days	12 days

Regular part-time employees may, at their option, accumulate up to twenty-five (25) vacation days.

C. Vacations for regular full-time employees are to be earned on the following years of service:

After 1 Year	5 Working Days
After 2 through 5 Years	10 Working Days
After 6 through 10 Years	15 Working Days
After 11 through retirement	15 Working Days, plus one day per year for each additional year after 10 years of employment. Maximum earned vacation not to exceed twenty-five (25) working days per year.

D. Recognized holidays falling within the vacation period are not considered vacation days.

E. Vacation may be taken in a minimum of one-half (1/2) day increments with the approval of the Supervisor and employee.

F. Full-time employees may, at their option, accumulate a maximum accrual of, up to and including, thirty (30) days vacation at any given time. Said maximum limit shall not reflect or include vacation credits available as a result of being earned on the most recent anniversary date. In no event, however, shall the accrued limit exceed thirty (30) days. Consequently, vacation credits earned on the most recent anniversary shall be lost if not used within the subsequent twelve (12) month period where a combination of the accrued and unused earned credit exceeds thirty (30) days. Employees must take at least five (5) earned vacation days each anniversary year. Days in excess of five (5) per year may be sold back to the Employer, with mutual consent of the employee and the Employer. However, no employee shall take more vacation leave than has been accumulated.

G. In the event an employee becomes disabled on vacation and provides documentation from his doctor verifying the number of days sick, his vacation shall be rescheduled to the extent of the number of days of illness, and he may use accumulated sick days, if any, to the extent of the number of days of illness.

- H.
