AGREEMENT

This agreement entered into on the ___ day of _____ 2010, and between the COUNTY OF VAN BUREN (herein after referred to as the "Employer"), and the Van Buren County Board of Commissioners, (herein after referred to as the "Funding Unit") and the Courthouse Supervisory Chapter of LOCAL 2628.09, affiliated with Michigan Council No. 25, AMERICAN FEDERATION OF STATE, COUNTY AND MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES, AFL-CIO (hereinafter referred to as the "Union").

PURPOSE AND INTENT

The general purpose of this Agreement is to set forth terms and conditions of employment, and to promote orderly and peaceful labor relations for the mutual interest of the Employer, the employees and the Union.

The parties recognize that the interest of the community and the job security of the employees depend upon the Employer's success in establishing and maintaining a proper service to the community.

To these ends the Employer and the Union encourage to the fullest degree friendly and cooperative relations between the respective representatives at all levels and among all employees.

ARTICLE 1 – RECOGNITION

1.1 Description of Units. Pursuant to and in accordance with all applicable provisions of Act 379 of the Public Acts of 1965, as amended, the Employer does hereby recognize the Union as the exclusive representative for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment and other conditions of employment as set forth herein for the term of this Agreement for all employees of the Employer included in the bargaining unit described below:

All regular full-time and regular part-time employees, employed by the County of Van Buren as Chief Deputy Clerk, Chief Deputy Treasurer, Chief Deputy Register of Deeds, Deputy Drain Commissioner, Equalization Director, Buildings & Grounds Director, and Data Processing Supervisor, Director of Land Services, Deputy Director of Land Services, but excluding all other employees and elected officials.

1.2. Aid to other Unions. The Employer and its designated agents will not aid, promote or finance any labor group or organization which purports to engage in collective bargaining or make any agreement with any group or organization for the purpose of undermining the union in terms of the union representation of the employees within the bargaining unit as set forth in Article 1. The Union agrees not to enter into any agreement with other unions to circumvent this collective bargaining agreement.

1.3 Gender As used and set forth in this Agreement, the male gender shall include the female and the female gender shall include the male as this Agreement may refer to employees in any article hereof, it being expressly understood that there shall be no distinction among employees in regards to gender.

ARTICLE 2 – UNION DUES AND SERVICE FEES

2.1 Agency Shop

- A. All employees covered by this Agreement who, as of the effective date of this Agreement, have completed at least thirty (30) days of continuous service since their last date of hire shall, as a condition of continued employment for the duration of this Agreement, become and remain members in good standing of the Union to the extent of tendering payment of the regular monthly Union dues uniformly required of all Union members.
- B. All new employees hired after the effective date of this Agreement shall, upon completion of thirty (30) days of continuous employment, a condition of continued employment, become and remain members of the Union in good standing to the extent of tendering payment of the regular monthly dues uniformly required of all Union members.
- C. It is understood and agreed that employees referred to in A and B above may, in lieu of becoming members of the Union as therein provided, meet the requirements thereof by tendering payment to the Union each month of their proportionate share of the cost of negotiating and administering the collective bargaining agreement including employee representation as established by the Union. This proportionate share shall be known as a service fee and the Union shall advise employees as to the amount of said service fee.

2.2 Check Off

- A. The Employer agrees to deduct from wages of any employee who is a member of the Union, all Union membership dues and initiation fees uniformly required, or the service fee of any employee who is not a member of the Union as provided in a written authorization in accordance with the standard form used by AFSCME, that said form shall be executed by the employee. The written authorization to deduct Union dues or service fees shall remain in full force and effect during the period of the Agreement..
- B. Dues, service fees and initiation fees shall be authorized, levied and certified in accordance with the constitution and by-laws of the local Union and Council. Each employee and the Union hereby authorize the Employer to rely upon and to honor certifications by the Secretary-Treasurer of the local Union and Council regarding the amounts to be deducted and the legality of the adopting action specifying such amounts of Union dues, service fees and/or initiation fees.

- C. Deductions shall be made only in accordance with the provisions of the written authorization form as referenced above together with the provisions of this Agreement. The Employer shall have no responsibility for the collection of initiation fees, membership dues, service fees, special assessment or any other Union deductions not in accordance with this provision.
- D. A properly executed copy of the written authorization form for each employee for whom the Union dues or service fees are to be deducted hereunder shall be delivered to the Employer before any payroll deductions are made. Deductions shall be made thereafter only under forms which are properly executed and are in effect and then only for the duration of this Agreement.
- E. Any written authorization for check-off form which is incomplete or in error shall be returned to the local Union Secretary-Treasurer by the Employer.
- F. Human Resources shall notify unit chairperson or steward of new hires to allow for timely completion of the Check Off form.
- G. The Union shall provide to the Employer a sufficient quantity of forms under which the Union dues and/or service fee may be authorized.
- H. In cases where a deduction is made that duplicates a payment that an employee already has made to the Union, or where a deduction is not in conformity with the provisions of the Union Constitution and By-Laws, refunds to the employee shall be made by the local Union.
- I. Deductions for any calendar month shall be remitted promptly to such address designated to the designated financial officer of Michigan Council 25, AFSCME, AFL-CIO, with an alphabetical list of names and addresses of all employees from whom deductions have been made. The Employer shall additionally indicate the amount deducted and notify the financial officer of the Council of the names and addresses of employees who, through a change in their employment status, are no longer subject to deductions and further advise said financial officer by submission of an alphabetical list of all new hires since the date of submission of the previous months remittance of dues and/or service fees.
- J. The Union, by the execution of this Agreement, expressly agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Employer from any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that may arise out of or by reasons of this Article, including, but not limited to, a claim by any employee that the service fee, as herein established, is no equivalent to each employee's proportionate share of the cost of negotiating and administering the collective bargaining agreement, including employee representation.

- K. Neither party shall exert any pressure on nor discriminate against any employee by reason of his joining or refusing to join the Union.
- L. The employer agrees to deduct from the wages of any employee who is a member of the Union a P.E.O.P.L.E. deduction as provided for in a written authorization during an annual enrollment period. Such authorization must be executed by the employee and may be revoked by the employee during the annual enrollment period by giving notice to both the Employer and the Union. The Employer agrees to remit any deductions made pursuant to this provision promptly to the Union together with an itemized statement showing the name of each employee from whose pay such deductions have been made and the amount deducted during the period covered by the remittance.

ARTICLE 3 – UNION REPRESENTATION AND BARGAINING

- A. The Employer agrees to recognize a unit chairperson and one steward. The Chairperson and Steward shall together constitute a collective bargaining committee. The stewards shall act in a representative capacity for the purpose of administering this Agreement in accordance with the grievance procedure established herein. In the absence of the stewards, the unit chairperson shall act as a steward. The function of the collective bargaining committee is to meet with the representatives of the Employer for the purpose of collective bargaining.
- B. The Union shall furnish a list of the steward and unit chairperson to the Employer along with periodic changes to the list in a timely manner. The Employer shall furnish the Union with a corresponding list of Employer's designees along with periodic changes to the list in a timely manner. The Employer's designee shall be the County Administrator and any co-employers as may be appropriate.
- C. The Steward, during working hours, without loss of time or pay, may investigate reported grievances within their designated area and present such grievances to the Employer's designee.
 - 1. Before entering upon such Union business, the steward shall give notice to and receive approval from their supervisor or Employer's designee.
 - 2. Approval for release from their work assignment for this purpose for such time as may be necessary shall not be unreasonably withheld.

3. Any alleged abuse of this provision by either party shall be proper subject for a special conference.

D. Any bargaining shall take place at times other than the normal working hours of employees unless mutually agreed to the contrary by the Employer. It is understood and agreed that if the Employer does consent to bargain with the Union during the times when employees would be at their assigned duty stations, then the employees shall be paid their normal rate of pay. The number of members of a bargaining committee is solely within the discretion of each party hereto; provided, however, that each party hereto shall provide the other party with a written statement as to the membership of the bargaining committee and any alternate members thereof.

ARTICLE 4 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS/PROHIBITION

4.1. Reservation of Rights. The Employer, on its own behalf and on behalf of the electors of the County, hereby retains and reserves to itself, without limitation, all powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities conferred upon and vested in it by the laws and the Constitution of the State of Michigan and of the United States, including by way of illustration, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following rights: the management and administrative control of the Employer and its properties and facilities and the work-related activities of its employees; to hire all employees, to determine their qualifications, and the requirements for their continued employment or their termination, dismissal or demotion; to promote and transfer all such employees; to determine the duties, responsibilities, assignments and other terms and conditions for employment of all of its employees; to define the qualifications of employees, including physical and/or psychological qualifications; to determine the size of the management or supervisory organization, its functions, authority, amount of supervision and table of organization; to determine the policy effecting selection, testing, recruitment, training or hiring of employees; to determine or modify the responsibilities invested within a position; to transfer or reduce personnel when, in the judgment of the Employer, such actions are deemed necessary. The exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities of the Employer, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith, shall be limited only by the specific and express terms of this Agreement, and then only to the extent such specific and express terms hereof conform with the Constitution and laws of the State of Michigan, and the Constitution and laws of the United States. Nothing contained herein shall be considered to deny or restrict the Employer of its rights, responsibilities and authority under the applicable Michigan laws or any other national, state, county, district or local laws or regulations as they pertain to the Employer.

4.2.. Strikes and Lockouts The Union and the Employer recognize that strikes and other forms of work stoppage by employees are contrary to law and public policy. The Union and the Employer subscribe to the principal that differences shall be resolved by peaceful and appropriate means without interruption of programs and operations. The Union, therefore, agrees that its officers, representatives and members shall not authorize, instigate, cause, aid, encourage, ratify, or condone, any strike, nor shall any employees take part in any strike, slowdown or stoppage of work, boycott, picketing or other interruption of activities and operations at any time or place within the county government system. The Employer agrees during the term of this Agreement not to “Lock-out” employees or prohibits them from working.

ARTICLE 5 – SPECIAL CONFERENCE

Special Conferences. Special conferences for important matters concerning this Agreement shall be arranged by the Chapter Chairperson and the Employer or its designated representative upon the request of either party. Such meetings shall be held within ten (10) days of the date of such request unless mutually agreed to the contrary by both parties. Such meetings shall be between at least two representatives of the Union and at least two representatives of the Employer. Council 25, AFSCME may be represented if they so desire. Arrangements for such special conferences shall be made in advance and an agenda of the matters to be taken up at the meeting shall be presented at the time the conference is requested. Matters taken up in special conference shall be confined to those included in the agenda unless both parties hereto shall agree otherwise. This Article may precede but shall not take precedence over the grievance procedure as set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

6.1. Definition of Grievance A grievance shall be an alleged violation of the expressed terms of this Agreement.

6.2. Grievance Procedure

- B. The following matters shall not be the basis of any grievance filed under the procedure outlined in this Article.
1. The termination of services of or failure to re-employ any probationary employee.
 2. Any action or lack of action on the part of the Employer which is required by law.
- C. The Union shall designate a steward to handle grievances when requested by the grievant.
- D. The term “days” as used herein shall mean Monday through Friday excluding holidays and weekends.
- E. Written grievances as required herein shall contain the following:
1. It shall be signed by the grievant or grievants.

2. It shall be clear and specific.
 3. It shall contain a synopsis of the facts giving rise to the alleged violation.
 4. It shall cite the Article or Section of this Agreement alleged to have been violated.
 5. It shall contain the date of the alleged violation.
 6. It shall specify the relief requested.
- F. Any written grievance not substantially in accordance with the above requirements may be rejected as improper. Such a rejection shall not extend the time limitations hereinafter set forth.
- G. The Union shall have no right to initiate a grievance involving the right of a grievant without his express approval in writing thereon but the Union may initiate a unit grievance.
- H. All preparation, filing, presentation, discussion or consideration of grievances shall be held and conducted at times other than normal working hours for the grievant or a participating Union representative unless agreed otherwise by the Employer. Equipment and/or materials and supplies owned by the Employer shall not be used by the Employee or the Union for the purpose of preparing or typing a grievance.
- I. Where no wage loss has been caused by the action or inaction of the Employer as set forth in the grievance, the Employer shall be under no obligation to make monetary adjustments.
- J. Awards or grievance settlements will not be made retroactive beyond the date of the occurrence or non-occurrence of the event upon which the grievance is based.
- K. The parties hereto may agree to extend the time limits set forth below by mutual agreement in writing.

6.3. (1) Grievance Procedure for all Employees in Departments with Appointed Department Heads

Level One: An employee believing himself wronged by an alleged violation of the express terms of the Agreement shall within ten (10) days of its alleged occurrence, or within ten (10) days of the time the offense could have been reasonably discovered by the grievant, orally discuss the grievance with his supervisor in an attempt to resolve same. If no resolution is obtained within ten (10) days of the discussion, the employee shall reduce the grievance in writing in accordance with E above and proceed to Level Two.

Level Two: A copy of the written grievance shall be filed with the County Administrator with the endorsement thereon of the approval or disapproval of the Union. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance, the County Administrator shall arrange a meeting with the grievant and his Union steward to discuss the grievance. Within ten (10) days of the discussion, the County Administrator shall render his decision in writing, transmitting a copy of the same to the grievant, the Union steward and the department head. If no decision is rendered within ten (10) days of the discussion, or the decision is unsatisfactory to the grievant, he may, within ten (10) days of the decision or lack of decision proceed to Level Three.

Level Three: A copy of the written grievance shall be filed with the secretary of the Board of Commissioners. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance, a grievance committee of the Board of Commissioners shall arrange a meeting with the grievant and his Union steward to discuss the grievance. Within ten (10) days of the discussion, the committee shall render its decision in writing, transmitting a copy of same to the grievant, the Union steward, the County Administrator and the department head. If no decision is rendered within ten (10) days of the discussion, or the decision is unsatisfactory to the grievant, he may proceed to Level Four.

Level Four: If the Union is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at the previous level, it may, within thirty (30) days of the decision or lack of decision, refer the matter for arbitration to the American Arbitration Association, in writing, and request the appointment of an arbitrator to hear the grievance. If the parties cannot agree upon an arbitrator, he shall be selected by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its rules except that each party shall have the right to pre-emptively strike not more than three from the list of arbitrators.

By mutual consent, within ten (10) days of the request for arbitration the parties hereto shall hold at least one pre-arbitration conference. The conference shall include the bargaining teams for each of the parties and the grievant. The purpose of the conference shall be to attempt to resolve the grievance prior to arbitration. Each party shall submit to the other party at the conference a statement alleging facts, grounds and defenses which will be proven at arbitration. The parties hereto may continue to hold pre-arbitration conferences, by mutual consent, until the time of arbitration.

6.3. (2). Grievance Procedure for all Employees Working in Departments Headed By an Elected Official.

Level One: An employee believing himself wronged by an alleged violation of the express terms of this Agreement shall, within ten (10) days of its alleged occurrence, or within ten (10) days of the time the offense could have been reasonable discovered by the grievant, orally discuss the grievance with his supervisor in an attempt to resolve same. If no resolution is obtained within ten (10) days of the discussion, the employee shall reduce the grievance to writing in accordance with E above and proceed to Level Two.

Level Two: A copy of the written grievance shall be filed with the Elected Official with the endorsement thereon of the approval or disapproval of the Union. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance, the Elected Official shall arrange a meeting with the grievant and his Union steward to discuss the grievance. The union may include a representative from Council 25 and the Elected Official may include a member of the Board of Commissioners at this meeting. Within ten (10) days of the discussion, the Elected Official shall render his decision in writing, transmitting a copy of the same to the grievant, the Union steward and the County Administrator. If no decision is rendered within ten (10) days of the discussion, or the decision is unsatisfactory to the grievant, he may, within ten (10) days of the decision or lack of decision proceed to Level Three.

Level Three: If the Union is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at the previous level, it may, within thirty (30) days of the decision or lack of decision, refer the matter for arbitration to the American Arbitration Association, in writing, and request the appointment of an arbitrator to hear the grievance. If the parties can not agree upon an arbitrator, he shall be selected by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its rules except that each party shall have the right to pre-emptively strike not more than three from the list of arbitrators.

By mutual consent, within ten (10) days of the request for arbitration the parties shall hold at least one pre-arbitration conference. The conference shall include the bargaining teams for each of the parties and the grievant. The purpose of the conference shall be to attempt to resolve the grievance prior to arbitration. Each party shall submit to the other party at the conference a statement alleging facts, grounds and defenses which will be proven at arbitration. The parties hereto may continue to hold pre-arbitration conferences, by mutual consent, until the time of arbitration.

6.4. Arbitration Rules

Arbitration shall be conducted in accordance to the rules of the American Arbitration Association subject to the following:

- A. Neither party may raise a new defense or ground at arbitration not previously raised or disclosed at other levels of the grievance process.
- B. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive and binding upon employees, the Employer and the Union, subject to the right of the Employer or the Union to judicial review. Any lawful decision of the arbitrator shall be forthwith placed into effect.
- C. The right to judicial review shall be limited to arbitrator decisions which are based on bias or on areas outside the parameters of this Agreement.
- D. Powers of the arbitrator shall be subject to the following limitations:

1. He shall have no power to add to, subtract from, disregard, alter or modify any of the terms of this Agreement.
 2. He shall have no power to establish salary scales or to change any salary.
 3. He shall have no power to neither change any practice, policy, or rule of the Board of Commissioners nor substitute his judgment for that of the Board as to the reasonableness of any such practice, policy, rules or any action taken by the Board.
 4. In rendering decisions, an arbitrator shall give due regard to the responsibility of management and its governmental function and shall so construe the Agreement that there will be no interference with such responsibilities, except as may be specifically conditioned by this Agreement.
 5. He shall have no power to interpret state or federal law but must apply the law as it is written or interpreted by the courts.
 6. He shall not hear any grievance previously barred from the scope of the grievance procedure.
- E. If either party disputes the arbitrability of any grievance under the terms of this Agreement, the arbitrator shall have jurisdiction to determine arbitrability. In the event that a case is appealed to the arbitrator on which he has no power to rule, it shall be referred by to the parties without decision or recommendation on its merits.
- F. More than one grievance may not be considered by the arbitrator at the same time except upon expressed written mutual consent of the parties hereto.
- G. The cost of arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties hereto except each party shall assume its own cost for representation including any expense of witnesses.
- H. Employees including Union representatives shall not lose pay for any time off the job while attending arbitration proceedings. Arbitration shall, whenever, possible, be conducted on the location where the grievance originated.
- I. No claim for wages shall exceed the amount of wages the employee would otherwise have earned.

ARTICLE 7 – DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

7.1. Intent and Purpose The intent and purpose of the following is to provide for progressive disciplinary action when appropriate. Disciplinary action may be imposed upon an employee only for failure to fulfill the employee's job responsibilities or for improper conduct while on the job. Nothing in this article shall prevent the employer from taking immediate and appropriate disciplinary action should it be required under the circumstances, with proper written notice thereof to the Union at the time such immediate action is taken.

7.2. Notification. Whenever possible, notification within a reasonable time shall be given to the steward or Union representative prior to any disciplinary action being taken against any employee that may result in any official entries being added to their personnel file. The employer agrees that upon imposing any form of discipline, the designated steward or Union representative shall be promptly notified in writing of the action taken. A copy of oral reprimands may be placed in the employee's personnel file, along with any employee rebuttal, if provided. There shall be the official personnel file which will be maintained in the office of the County Administrator. The employer may retain other personnel records. The employee shall be entitled to review any personnel record upon request.

7.3. Representation. The Steward or another representative of the Union shall be present at the time disciplinary action is imposed and shall represent the employee at all levels of disciplinary proceedings. All disciplinary actions shall be subject to the grievance procedure and where it is alleged that the employer has violated the provisions of Article 7 above, the grievance procedure shall constitute the employee's exclusive remedy. Oral or written reprimands shall not be processed above level three of the grievance procedure.

7.4. Statements. Before, any employee shall be required to make any oral or written statement or reply pertaining to any alleged misconduct on his/her part, the matter shall first be discussed between the employee, a Union representative and the supervisor.

7.5. Procedure. When disciplinary action is necessary, consistent with the employer's rights reserved in section 7.1 above, the employer will, where appropriate, use the following procedure:

1. Oral Reprimand.
2. Written Reprimand.
3. Suspension not to exceed thirty (30) days, transfer to existing vacancy or demotion.
4. Removal or Discharge.

7.6. Reprimand. Should it be necessary to reprimand any employee, the reprimand shall be given so as not to cause embarrassment to the employee before other employees or the public.

7.7. Modification. The employer may modify a disciplinary action except that the severity of the disciplinary action shall not be increased, but may be lessened.

7.8. Court Appearance No employee in the bargaining unit shall be subject to disciplinary action for appearing before a State or Federal Grand Jury at which they presented testimony under oath and have been sworn to secrecy.

7.9. Conduct. The employer reserves the right to review the circumstances when employees are charged with the commission of a felony or of a misdemeanor involving the criminal moral conduct during working hours or related to the work location or job responsibility. Pending the Judicial resolution of the charges, the employer may take disciplinary action deemed necessary, or reassign the employee to a less sensitive position without loss of pay or benefits. Any action taken by the employer shall be subject to the grievance procedure.

7.10. Political Activity. No employee will be subject to disciplinary action for taking part in a political activity when not on duty and out of uniform.

7.11. Personnel File Review. Upon request of the employee, an employee may review their personnel file consistent with the Bullard-Plawicki Act. Such request shall be complied with within five (5) working days. After twenty – four (24) months of satisfactory service, all reprimands shall be removed from an employee's personnel record. No prior disciplinary action not in the personnel file shall be adversely used in any subsequent disciplinary action.

ARTICLE 8 – HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

Section 8.1. Work Schedules.

- A. Workweek: The regular workweek shall be Monday through Friday, seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours per day and thirty-seven and one-half (37 1/2) hours per week. This shall not constitute a guarantee of these hours of work. The Employer may not establish split shifts except by agreement between and Employer and the Union.
- B. Workday: The regular workday shall begin at 8: 30 a.m. and end at 5:00 p.m. with one (1) hour off for a non paid lunch scheduled approximately in the middle of the day. An optional one-half (1/2) hours non-paid lunch may be scheduled with prior approval by the Employer. The starting and ending times of the workday may vary if the business of the Employer so requires.
- C. Rest Periods: One (1) fifteen (15) minutes rest periods are provided, in each half of the workday. Occasionally rest periods may be altered, staggered or forfeited if the business of the Employer so requires. The Employer agrees to make a good faith effort to assure that employees receive two (2) breaks each day.
- D. Hours paid shall be considered as hours worked for the purpose of computing any of the benefits provided for under this Agreement with the exception of overtime which shall be in accordance with Article 8, Section 2.

- E. Regular part-time employees who work less than thirty (30) hours per week shall not receive sick leave, personal leave, and vacation. Holidays see Article 13.1 (D). Employees who work between thirty (30) and thirty seven and one-half (37 1/2) hours per week shall have the above benefits prorated.

8.2. Overtime & Compensatory Time

- A. All overtime and compensatory time shall be paid and/or awarded in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act as amended and as interpreted by the Federal courts.
- B. All members of this bargaining unit shall be considered as "salaried exempt" employees and as such shall not be eligible to receive pay for overtime. Employees in this bargaining unit may receive compensatory time off for hours worked in excess of their normal workweek when approved in advance by the Employer. Utilization of compensatory time shall be mutually agreed to between the employee and his supervisor. Paid holidays shall count as time worked in determining the number of hours worked in a week.
- C. Employees who are required to work on one of the holidays provided for in this Agreement shall receive twice the number of hours worked in compensatory time for the hours worked on such holiday.
- D. All compensatory time shall be approved in advance by the Employer.

8.3. Temporary Vacancies and Temporaries.

1. The employer may fill temporary vacancies caused by employees being absent because of sickness or injury, vacations, leaves of absence, by temporary transfer to another position or due to operational needs by using temporaries. The employer will endeavor to post permanent vacancies within sixty (60) calendar days of vacancy.
2. Temporaries shall only be used to fill a vacancy up to one hundred and eighty calendar days (180) or the duration of the vacancy being filled by the temporary. Vacancies filled by a temporary in excess of one hundred and eighty calendar days (180) will be for medical absences only, unless otherwise agreed to between the employer and the Union. No temporary may remain employed for more than one (1) year. Any temporary employee remaining employed after one (1) year shall be considered a regular employee. No temporary shall be used to work overtime, nor shall a temporary employee be utilized to perform the work of an employee on lay off or to reduce the regularly scheduled hours of a bargaining unit employee.
3. This section will authorize the Employer to utilize governmentally sponsored employment work programs, such as PIC, Summer Youth ETP, MOST and like programs, including interns. These programs will not be utilized to perform the work of an employee on lay off or to reduce the regularly scheduled hours of a bargaining unit employee.

8.4. Temporary Assignments.

1. An employee may be assigned duties normally considered commensurate with a classification higher than that which the employee holds. These duties may be assigned provided that the need for the assignment is based on a situation which could not be planned for in advance or a planned vacancy.
2. When the temporary assignment exceeds five (5) consecutive work days, the employee shall then be compensated from the first (1st) hour of the assignment after the five days at the rate of the higher classifications which gives the employee an increase in compensation for all hours so performed. Any Employee who has performed the higher classification for more than five (5) days shall be paid the higher rate of pay for all hours worked above the original five (5) days. Before an employee is temporarily assigned the higher duties and responsibilities the employee shall receive a written order from the Employer directing and authorizing such work.
3. In the event of an assignment of an employee to a temporary position in a higher classification, the most senior qualified employee in the next lower classification in the department shall be offered the temporary assignment whenever possible.

ARTICLE 9 – SENIORITY

9.1. Seniority Definition. Seniority shall be defined as continuous employment within the bargaining unit and shall be the basis for determining such items as this Agreement may require seniority to be used.

9.2. Probationary Period. New employees hired in the unit, who have no continues County employment shall be considered as probationary employees for the first year of their employment. New employees who are hired in the unit from within the County shall be considered as probationary employees for six (6) months of their employment. There shall be no seniority among probationary employees, except in instances of layoff. When an employee finishes the probationary period he shall be entered on the seniority list of the unit and shall rank for seniority from the date of hire. In order to complete probation an employee must be performing the essential functions of the job and exhibiting good work habits.

9.3. Representation. The Union shall represent probationary employees for the purpose of collective bargaining under the terms of this Agreement except discharged, disciplined, or demoted probationary employees.

9.4. Seniority List. The Employer agrees to give the Union an up-to-date seniority list each six (6) months and also post the list on the appropriate bulletin board. The seniority list shall contain:

1. Names of employees in the unit
2. Date of hire of each employee
3. Job classification of each employee

Names shall be placed on the list with the employee with the greatest seniority first, followed by employees with decreasing length of seniority. In the event two employees shall have the same date of hire, then seniority shall be determined by social security number with the employee having the lowest last four digits having the most seniority.

9.5. Loss of Seniority. An employee shall lose his seniority for the following reasons:

- A. He/She quits
- B. He/She is discharged and the discharge is not reversed through the procedures set forth in this Agreement.
- C. He/She is absent for two (2) consecutive working days without notifying the Employer within that two (2) day period. In proper cases exceptions may be made by the Employer. After such absence, the Employer shall send written notification to the employee at his last known address that he has lost his seniority and his employment has been terminated. This section shall not excuse an employee for being absent from work nor shall it act as a waiver of the Employer's rights to issue disciplinary action due to an employee's absence from work in appropriate cases.
- D. If the employee does not return to work when recalled from layoff as set forth in the recall procedure. In proper cases, exceptions may be made by the Employer.
- E. Return from sick leave and other leaves of absence shall be treated to the same as "C" above.
- F. If the employee is on layoff for a consecutive period of two (2) years or the length of his/her seniority, whichever is less.

9.6. Transfers out of the Bargaining Unit.

- A. If any employee transfers to a position under the Employer which is not included in the bargaining unit or to one of the Van Buren County bargaining units and thereafter within sixty (60) calendar days transfer back to a position within the bargaining unit, he/she shall have accumulated seniority while working in the position to which he transferred. It is understood that an employee who transfers out of the bargaining unit shall be prohibited from holding union office in the bargaining unit from which he transferred until such time he returns to said bargaining unit.

- B. Employees transferred or promoted to positions outside the bargaining unit under the Employer shall have their accumulated bargaining unit seniority frozen while working in the position in which the employee has transferred.
- C. Employees returning to the bargaining unit from a position under the Employer as a result of a transfer or employer layoff, displacement or recall shall be returned with only that seniority earned in the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 10 – LAYOFF AND RECALL PROCEDURE

10.1. Layoff.

- A. Layoff shall be defined as separation from employment as the result of lack of work or lack of funds.
- B. During a period of layoff, the first order of priority for filling of vacancies shall be established by this Article.
- C. Notice of layoff shall be issued at the direction of the Employer or Employer's designee. Notice shall be delivered to any employee to be laid off no later than two (2) weeks before the effective date of such layoff and a copy of the notice shall be sent to the Union.
- D. In the event of a layoff as defined above, temporary and probationary employees within their respective bargaining unit as provided under 1.1, may be bumped by employees who are laid off if they have the qualifications to perform the job.
- E. Employees laid off may move to a new position as referred in Article 11, Section 1 (F) (qualifications) according to the following:
 1. To a vacant position of the same classification, like or associated classification, for which the employee is qualified.
 2. Regular full-time or part-time employees shall be allowed to bump the least senior probationary employee in that classification or an appropriate classification for which the employee is qualified to perform the job to avoid a layoff.
 3. By bumping the least senior employee in that classification or an appropriate classification for which the employee is qualified to perform the job and has more seniority.

4. By demotion to the next lower classification for which the employee is qualified to perform the job and has more seniority in which event the least senior employee in the classification shall be laid off.
 5. When an employee has been involuntarily reduced from full-time to part-time, that employee shall be allowed to bump back into a full-time position if the employee had full-time status within the last two years, has sufficient seniority and the qualifications to perform the job.
 6. Employees who bump shall not be allowed to bump to a higher paid classification or from part to full-time status except as noted in #5 above.
- F. When an employee is reduced to a lower paying classification through the bumping process, they will be placed on the wage scale in a new class at the closest pay grade to their former pay grade and step.
 - G. Like or associated classification shall mean classifications having duties and responsibilities requiring like qualifications of the incumbents, including such proficiency and other qualifications necessary for proper performance of the work.
 - H. The Union shall assist the Employer in all matters pertaining to layoff upon request.
 - I. In the event of a scheduled layoff, notwithstanding their position on the seniority list, the chapter chairperson and stewards shall be retained in their respective positions as if they were the most senior employee provided they are qualified and willing to perform the work in their classification. In the event the classification, shift or work is eliminated and a dispute should arise as to where the aforementioned shall be assigned or laid off, the dispute shall be a proper subject for a special conference. Should the dispute remain unsettled after the special conference, the aforementioned employees shall be assigned in accordance with this Article and the matter may be pursued through the grievance procedure.
 - J. This Article shall also apply to the demotion of an employee as a result of the elimination of a position, discontinuance of an operation or the bumping of an employee by a more senior employee affected by one of the aforementioned causes of lack of work or lack of funds, or a reorganization that results in a reduction of force. Notice shall be delivered to any employee so affected not less than five (5) working days prior to the effective date thereof, with a copy to the Union.

10.2. Recall.

- A. Recall shall be defined as the process in which an employee who has been affected under Article 10 is returned to employment with the Employer to the former classification or a like or associated classification, department or work location.
- B. The names of employees affected under Article 10 shall be placed on a recall list, in order of their seniority, the most senior to be recalled first.
- C. Notice of recall of employees who were laid off shall be sent to such employees at their last known address by certified mail. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to notify the Employer by mail of any change of address immediately following such change. Failure of an employee to report to work not later than ten (10) working days following receipt or delivery of such notice of recall shall be considered a voluntary quit. Exceptions for good cause may be made by the Employer for failure to report as notified.
- D. An employee on layoff when recalled shall be required to accept any like or associated position on any shift offered by the Employer, subject to said employee's rights to former classification and/or position, provided the employee is otherwise qualified.
- E. The Union shall assist the Employer in all matters pertaining to recall upon request.

ARTICLE 11 – POSTING AND BIDDING PROCEDURE

11.1. Posting and Bidding Procedure

- A. Notice of all vacancies which the Employer has determined to fill and/or newly created positions within their respective bargaining unit as defined in 1.1 shall be posted for five (5) business days on designated bulletin boards. Any such notice shall set forth the minimum requirements for the position.
- B. Employees interested in any such posted position shall apply in writing within the five (5) day posting period.
- C. The vacancy or newly created position shall be filled within a reasonable time after the termination of the posting period by a qualified employee as defined herein. If the position is not filled by bidding, the Employer shall have the right to employ a new hire.
- D. The successful bidder shall be granted a four (4) week trial period. If the employee's performance is deemed unsatisfactory, the Employer may return the employee to his prior position. An employee who is unsatisfied in the new position during this same four (4) week period may, at his option, return to his former position.

- E. The employee shall be entitled to receive, during the trial period, the rate of pay designated for the new or vacant position. Such rate shall be that which affords the employee a raise or in the case of a demotion, the least amount of loss.
- F. A "Qualified Employee", as used herein, shall be determined by the Employer on the basis of the following criteria:
 - 1. Prior applicable education and training.
 - 2. Prior relevant work experience both inside and outside the Employer.
 - 3. The length of service of the employee with the Employer.
 - 4. The requirements of applicable laws and regulations, including licensure/certification requirements.
- G. The Employer may advertise to receive applications and consider applicants for the position from the general public. The Employer will interview all internal applicants and will select from the internal bargaining unit where they are qualified. When selecting internally, the Employer will select the most qualified applicant. Where individuals are equally qualified, the most senior applicant will be selected. In determining qualifications, the Employer shall not act arbitrarily or capriciously. Internal applicants must be notified in writing of the reasons if not selected.

ARTICLE 12 – PAID ABSENCE LEAVE

12.1. Paid Time Off (PTO) Leave.

- A. 1. All time off (previously vacation, sick and personal) will be combined into "Paid Time Off" – now called PTO effective January 1, 2010. A separate record will be maintained in Administration to track "old sick banks of employees for 12 (d).

Regular full time employees who work thirty (30) hours per week or more will receive paid time off (PTO) previously vacation, sick and personal leave according to the Rate Schedule below. There will be no maximum accrual of PTO. Annually, up to fifty-two and one-half (52.5) hours of PTO will be reimbursed by the County if the employees so elects, and the employee maintains a balance of one hundred-fifty (150) hours of PTO at the time of the payment.

An employee may utilize PTO allowances for absences of sick leave as outlined in 12.1, per personal & emergency leave as outlines in 12.2, for Union Leave as outlines in 12.5, for Vacation Leave as outlines in Article 14, and upon termination.

2. All new full-time employees hired after January 1st of each year will receive their pro rata number of days for the remainder of the year with their first hours credited at the beginning of the month following their first thirty (30) days of service.

B. An employee may utilize sick leave, in half-hour increments for the following reasons:

1. Due to personal illness, pregnancy, childbirth, or following childbirth or due to physical incapacity.
2. Due to exposure to contagious disease in which the health of others would be endangered by the employee's attendance on duty at work.
3. Due to illness of a member of the immediate family of the employee who requires the personal care and attention of the employee. The term immediate family as used in this section shall mean parents, grandparents, children, brother, sister of the employee or the employee's spouse. It shall also include any member of the employee's household.
4. Due to the death of a relative of the employee other than a member of the immediate family.
5. To report to the Veteran's Administration for medical examinations or other purposes relating to eligibility for disability pension or medical treatment.
6. For routine medical, dental or counseling appointments, upon prior notice to the Employer or the Employer's designee.

C. Pay out provisions:

1. Each December 1, an employee may elect in writing pay out of 52.2 hours of unused PTO leave.
2. PTO Leave will be paid-out at the employee's hourly rate of pay as of December 1st of the current calendar year. Payment will be made by January 31st of each year.
3. PTO leave not paid out will carry-over to the next calendar year.
4. An employee at the end of the year will not be eligible for pay out unless they will maintain at least one hundred fifty (150) hours of accumulated PTO time.
5. Upon termination, any remaining hours accumulated in this bank and the old sick time bank, up to a maximum of five hundred (500) hours will be paid at the employee's current hourly rate of pay. Employees shall have the option of being paid out in cash and/or applied to the employee's tax deferred 457 plan with any remaining balance to be placed in the employee's tax free MERS HCSP.

6. If an employee is laid off or retired, or severs his/her employment, he/she will receive any unused PTO up to a maximum of five hundred (500) hours including that accrued in the current calendar year. A recalled employee who received credit as the time of layoff for the current calendar year will have such credit deducted from his PTO bank the following year.

D. Pay out of old sick bank hours:

Each employee who has old sick bank hours may request an annual payoff of up to 200 hours per year. The request must be made in writing, to their Department Head no later than May 1 of each year. So as to allow the Department Head to include the requests in his annual operating budget. If approved the payout will occur on the second pay period in October following the request. Employees shall have the option of being paid out in cash and/or applied to the employee's tax deferred 457 plan with any remaining balance to be placed in the employee's tax free MERS HCSP.

- E. Employees on sick leave will be required to first utilize sick leave credited in the current year. Should the employee have utilized all of their current sick time, they will then be required to utilize any time in their new sick bank and when that is exhausted they will be required to utilize the time in their old sick bank.
- F. An employee absent for one of the reasons mentioned above shall inform the Employer as soon as possible and failure to do so within a reasonable time may be the cause for denial of sick leave with pay for the period of absence.
- G. The employee may be required by the Employer, within reason, to produce evidence in the form of valid medical documentation of the reason for the absence during the time for which sick leave is requested.
- H. The Employer may grant sick leave to an employee for a period of illness or physical incapacity not exceeding thirty (30) days. All requests for sick leave for more than this time shall be submitted to the Employer prior to approval and shall be accompanied by a physician's certificate supporting said request. The Employer may require further medical reports from time to time on all sick leaves in excess of thirty (30) consecutive days.

12.2 Personal & Emergency Leave. Each employee shall be granted two (2) days of personal/emergency leave time with pay per calendar year. Such personal/emergency leave time shall only be used for the purpose of conducting business of the employee that can not be conducted other than normal working hours. Employees shall request such personal/emergency leave and receive approval for same from the Employer prior to taking such leave whenever possible. Use of such leave shall be deducted from the employee's PTO bank.

12.3. Bereavement Leave. Employees shall receive pay for a day necessarily lost during their normal scheduled work week not to exceed five (5) days in the case of death of a member of their immediate family. For the purpose of this Article, immediate family shall be defined as an employee's current spouse and children. Three (3) days will be granted for parents, step-parents, step – children, siblings, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, grandparents or grandchildren of the employee or the employee's spouse, or members of the employee's household. If the funeral is in excess of 300 miles from Van Buren County, then the employee may take an additional two (2) days of paid leave.

12.4. Jury Duty Leave. An employee shall be entitled to leave with pay for jury service, less any jury service fees paid, if he is unable to be excused or to have such service scheduled at a time which does not conflict with the discharge of his scheduled employment duties. The employee shall return to his duties whenever his attendance in court is not actually required. This same procedure shall apply when an employee receives a subpoena to appear in a court of law or a quasi-judicial hearing.

12.5. Unpaid Absence Leave.

- A. A regular employee may be granted a leave of absence without pay upon prior written approval of the Employer for any of the following reasons:
 - 1. Because of the physical or mental disability of the employee.
 - 2. Because the employee has been elected or appointed to a public office.
 - 3. Because the employee is entering upon a course of training or study for the purpose of improving the quality of the employee's service to the Employer or of fitting the employee for promotion.
 - 4. Because of extraordinary reasons, sufficient in the opinion of the Employer to warrant such leave of absence.
- B. A probationary employee may be granted a leave of absence without pay upon prior written request by the employee and approval by the Employer because of physical disability of the employee or for extraordinary reasons, sufficient in the opinion of the Employer to warrant such leave.
- C. Leaves of absence granted to employees for physical or mental disability may be extended beyond six (6) months for an additional period of time not to exceed six (6) months, at the expiration of which time the employee shall either produce evidence that he is physically and/or mentally capable of returning to work, subject to the Employer's examining physician's approval, or the employee's services shall be terminated. Written notice of such termination shall be given to the employee's last known address and a copy filed with the Employer and the Union.

- D. Any employee who is terminated under the provisions of this Article may appeal such termination as provided for in this Agreement. Any employee who has been terminated and who, within two years, recovers from such disability may be placed on the reemployment list subject to the recommendation of the Employer's examining physician.
- E. An employee who becomes pregnant may apply for and shall be granted a maternity leave of absence without pay before and after the expected date of delivery upon presentation to the Employer of a written statement from the employee's physician that she is unable to work.
- F. Leaves granted for any of the above reasons shall not be granted for more than six (6) months but may be renewed upon written application by the employee.
- G. Upon return from unpaid leave, an employee shall be reinstated, without having accumulated seniority during the leave and returned to their previous position if available.
- H. Upon employer approval up to three (3) employees in the bargaining unit shall be allowed a leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority for up to five (5) working days to attend a conference or convention of the Union. Such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.
- I. Employees may from time to time attend conferences, seminars, training sessions, etc. The registration fees and related expenses may be paid upon approval of the Employer. The attending employee may be required to sign a reimbursement agreement agreeing to fully reimburse the Employer for all expenses relating to seminars, etc., should voluntary termination occur within two (2) years of the seminar, conference, etc.

APPENDIX C

SHORT TERM AND LONG TERM DISABILITY PLAN

- I. Effective July 1, 2003 the existing Income Protection Plan was rescinded and replaced with a self-funded Short Term Disability Plan and commercial Long Term Disability Plan.
- II. During the fourteen (14) calendar day waiting period, the employee must use compensatory time and PTO leave in that order.
- III. An employee may supplement the remaining 33% of base wage by using available PTO time as outlined in Item II above to receive a full paycheck. The employee must provide the Employer with a written form authorizing the payment from available paid leave. Should the employee supplement this STD/LTD Plan the employee shall continue to receive all benefits provided under the Collective Bargaining Agreement.
- IV. Health insurance will be maintained for no more than a period of fifty-two (52) weeks while receiving the STD/LTD Plan benefits at the same level and under the same conditions which existed when the employee went out subject to any changes authorized by the Collective Bargaining Agreement or future Collective Bargaining Agreements. However, under extraordinary circumstances such as an anticipated imminent return to work, the employer in its sole discretion may extend the health insurance benefits period beyond 52 weeks. Employees who are on LTD at the time these changes go into effect shall retain the plan in effect at the time their leave began.
- V. The Employer reserves the right to self-fund or purchase coverage of this plan through an insurance carrier of the Employer's choice or if a plan is purchased to change to self-funding at the Employer's option provided the benefits remain as agreed to under this Article.
- VI. The Employer reserves the right to require appropriate documentation of disability. The Employer further reserves its right to require an employee to see an Employer designated physician to verify disability or an employee's ability to return to work. Should a dispute arise between the employee's physician and the Employer's physician, the parties agree that a third physician will be selected to determine either the employee's disability or the employee's ability to return to work and that third physician's opinion shall be binding on the employee, Employer and Union.
- VII. An employee who is on short or long term disability and is not supplementing to make whole shall not accrue paid time off.
