The exercise of the foregoing power, rights, authority, duties, and responsibilities of the Employer, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith shall be limited only by the specific and express terms of this Agreement and then only to the extent such specific and express terms hereof are in conformance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Michigan and the Constitution and laws of the United States.

ARTICLE III - Association and Employee Rights

- A. Pursuant to Act 379 of the Public Acts of 1965, as amended, the Employer hereby agrees that every employee of the Employer shall have the right freely to organize, join and support any Association for the purpose of engaging in collective bargaining or negotiation and other concerted activities for mutual aid and protection.
- B. As a duly elected body exercising governmental power under color of law of the State of Michigan, the Employer undertakes and agrees that it will not directly or indirectly discourage or deprive or coerce any employee in the enjoyment of any rights conferred by Act 379 of other laws of Michigan or the Constitution of Michigan and the United States that it will not discriminate against any employee with respect to hours, wages, or terms or conditions of employment by reason of his/her membership in the Association or collective professional negotiations with the Employer, or his/her institution of any grievance, complaint or proceeding under this Agreement. It is agreed by the Association that this does not give employees the right to perform duties of the Association during school hours except as otherwise provided herein.
- C. Both parties specifically recognize the right of the other appropriately to invoke the assistance of the Michigan Employment Relations Commission, or a mediator from such public agency.
- D. No employee shall be prevented from wearing insignia, pins or other identification or membership in the Association, which are in good taste, and are not considered to impair the normal educational climate of the school. Bulletin boards, in the employees' lounge or general offices shall be made available to the Association. The Association or any employee shall conduct no Association business during normal working hours except by permission from the administration or as otherwise provided herein. However, the Association President, Grievance Chair and Chief Negotiator may conduct official business without individual situation permission, provided the activity does not interfere with his/her employment assignment.
- E. Freedom of Information Request. The Employer is subject to and will abide by the provisions of the Michigan Freedom of Information Act, PA 442 1976, as amended. The Employer agrees to furnish to the Association in response to reasonable requests from time to time information concerning the financial resources of the District, tentative budgetary requirement and allocations.
 - 1. Upon request and during normal business hours, the Association shall have the right to examine time sheets and other records pertaining to the computation of compensation of any employee whose pay is in dispute or any other records of the Employer pertaining to specific grievances of employees within the bargaining unit, but this right of examination shall not permit the Association to remove any such time sheets or other records from the Employer's premises. Copies of such records shall be provided to the Association upon request at the Association's expense at the usual rates.
 - 2. Upon reasonable written request and unless restricted by law, the Employer shall make available to the Association such information necessary to assist it in the processing of grievances, administration of the Agreement and the negotiation of successors to this Agreement.

- I. If an employee is to be disciplined by an administrator, he/she may have a representative present from the Association.
- J. Discipline Procedures. The Employer agrees to provide the employee with written notification that is to be made a part of the employee's personnel file. In instances where the Employer desires to conduct an investigatory interview with an employee, the employee shall be entitled upon request to have an Association representative present at the interview. A copy of all disciplinary actions involving suspension or discharge will also be provided to that Association, unless the employee requests that the matter be kept confidential.
- K. Personnel Files. The Employer is subject to and will abide by the provisions of the Bullard-Plawecki Employee Right to Know Act, Act 397, 1978, as amended. Employees will be required to sign any material of a disciplinary nature or involving complaints against the employee that are to be placed in their personnel file; provided, however, that the refusal of an employee to sign any material shall not prevent its inclusion in the personnel file. An employee's signature on disciplinary material or complaints shall not be interpreted as agreement with the disciplinary action or complaints. A statement of this effect shall precede the employee's signature. A bargaining unit member, with or without his/her representative(s), will be allowed to review his/her official personnel file under the supervision of the superintendent or his/her designee.
- L. Assaults. An employee who is assaulted while in the performance of assigned duties shall promptly report the assault to the Employer. The Employer shall promptly investigate the incident and render such assistance as necessary under the circumstances, including reporting and cooperating with law enforcement authorities.
- M. Complaints Against Employees. All complaints to be included in the employee's disciplinary file must be in writing. In the event a complaint or charge is made by the person or group, against any employee, the employee shall be given full information with respect thereto and with respect to any investigation conducted by the Employer that is to be included in the employee's file.

Other than during scheduled break and lunch periods or with the prior written permission of the Employer, the Association, its representatives, including Building Representatives, may not transact Association business on school property during work hours. The Association agrees that such business shall not interfere with the operations of the Employer and the work being performed by the employees.

- P. Identification of Association Officers and Representatives. The Employer shall be informed in writing of the names of Association officers and representatives or any changes therein.
- Q. Use of Employer Facilities and Equipment. The Association shall have the right to use the Employer's premises outside of regular school hours for Association meetings in accordance with the Employer's normal scheduling practices upon advance notice to the Administration. Any use of Employer equipment or supplies shall be upon advance approval of the Employer and reimbursement for costs.
- R. Association Communication. The Association shall have the right to distribute Association material to employees as long as the distribution does not interfere with the operations of the Employer and the work being performed by the employees. This includes the right to place Association communications in designated employee mailboxes, to utilize District e-mail (subject to District use policy), and to post notices on bulletin boards in each of the buildings.

ARTICLE IV - Association Dues and Fees and Payroll Deductions

- A. Each bargaining unit member shall, as a condition of employment, on or before thirty (30) days from the date of commencement of duties shall join the Association or pay a service fee to the Association equivalent to the amount of dues uniformly required by the members of the Association, less any amounts not permitted by law. The bargaining unit member may authorize payroll deduction for service fees or Association membership dues.

In the event the bargaining unit member shall not pay such service fee directly to the Association or authorize payment through payroll deduction the employer shall, pursuant to MCLA 408.477, and at the written request of the Association, deduct the service fee from the bargaining unit member's wages and remit same to the Association under the procedure provided below. Payroll deductions made pursuant to this provision shall be made in equal amounts (as nearly as may be) from the paychecks of each bargaining unit member.

Such dues or service fees shall be deducted from the regular salaries of bargaining unit members who have a signed authorization on file with the District's business office. Payroll deductions will be for one-twentieth (1/20) of the total amount for twenty (20) consecutive pays beginning with the first pay of a school year. The Association will give prompt written notice to the District's business office of the names of any bargaining unit members who have revoked the authorization to deduct dues or service fees. Upon receipt of that notice, the District shall immediately discontinue payroll deduction of such amounts. The Association shall be responsible for reconciliation of any amounts paid or owed with the bargaining unit member.

Cash payment of dues or service fees shall be paid to the Association by October 1. By October 15 annually the Association will furnish the District with a list of bargaining unit members who have remitted membership dues or service fees directly to the Association.

Monies payroll deducted under this Article shall be remitted to the Association, or its designee, no later than fifteen (15) days following deduction.

- B. The procedure in all cases of nonpayment of the service fee shall be as follows:
1. The Association shall notify the bargaining unit member of noncompliance by certified mail, return receipt requested. Said notice shall detail the noncompliance and shall provide ten (10) days for compliance, and shall further advise the recipient that a request for wage deduction may be filed with the Employer in the event compliance is not affected.

2. If the bargaining unit member fails to remit the service fee or authorize deduction for same, the Association may request the Employer to make such deduction pursuant to Section A above.
 3. The Employer, upon receipt of request for involuntary deduction, shall provide the bargaining unit member with an opportunity for a due process hearing limited to the question of whether or not the bargaining unit member has remitted the service fee to the Association or authorized payroll deduction for same.
- C. Pursuant to Chicago Teacher's Union v Hudson, 106 S Ct 1066 (1986), the Association has established an "Objections to Political-Ideological Expenditures – Administrative Procedures." Those Administrative procedures (including the timetable for payment) apply only to non-Association bargaining unit members. The remedies set forth in those procedures shall be exclusive and, unless and until such procedures (including any administrative or judicial review thereof) shall have been availed of and exhausted, no dispute, claim or complaint by an objecting bargaining unit member concerning the application and interpretation of this Article shall be subject to the grievance procedure set forth in this Agreement.
- D. Due to certain requirements established in recent court decisions, the Association represents that the amount of the fee charged to nonmembers, along with other required information, may not be available and transmitted to nonmembers until mid-school year (December, January or February). Consequently, the parties agree that the procedures in this Article relating to the payment or nonpayment of the representation fee by nonmembers shall be activated upon expiration of the objection period for nonmembers of the fee that given school year.
- E. The Association will certify at least annually to the District, fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the first payroll deduction for professional fees, the amount of said professional fees and the amount of service fee to be deducted by the Employer, and that said service fee includes only those amounts permitted by the Agreement and by law. It is expressly agreed that the Employer shall have no obligation to make involuntary deduction of service fees under this section until such time as the Association shall furnish the Employer with verification that the Association's "Objections to Political-Ideological Expenditures--Administrative Procedures" have been approved by the court of record in Lehnert v Ferris Faculty Association – MEA/NEA, 643 F Supp 1306 (WD Mich, 1986). Further, the Association promptly agrees to notify the Employer of any future litigation where an order has been issued preventing the Association from implementing its "Objections to Political-Ideological Expenditures – Administrative Procedures" or any successor procedures pertaining to the same subject matter. In such event, the Employer shall have the right to suspend the involuntary wage deduction procedure specified herein for non-Association bargaining unit members.
- F. The Association shall indemnify and save the Employer harmless against and from any and all claims, demands, suits, or other forms of liability that may arise out of or by reason of action taken by the Employer for the purposes of complying with the Association security/agency shop provision of this Article. The Association shall, when the Employer is sued individually or jointly, make available competent legal counsel for such defense at the expense of the Association and the Michigan and National Education Associations. The Association shall have the right to negotiate a settlement with any bargaining unit member who challenges the Association security/agency shop article provisions under this Article.

- D. Either party shall be permitted representation of choice in the formal grievance process, including Association or Board representative. The advisability of representatives shall be to serve interests of both parties in an effort to reach an appropriate solution to the problem.
- E. A grievance may be withdrawn at any level.
- F. Decisions rendered at all levels on formal written grievance shall be recorded in writing and promptly transmitted to parties of interest.
- G. All documents, communications, and records dealing with a grievance shall be filed separately from the personnel files of the participants.

ARTICLE VI - Seniority

 4. Within 15 days of the posting of the seniority list; objections to the list shall be filed. Thereafter, the list shall be final and conclusive.
- B. Probationary Period. An employee upon hire shall be regarded as a probationary employee until the employee completes ninety (90) days of work in a bargaining unit position. Administrators may add an additional thirty (30) days of work after the employee and steward are notified. Any days missed during the probationary period shall extend the probationary period by that number of days. Upon completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be retroactive to the date of hire and the employee will be eligible for placement upon the seniority list. A probationary employee may be disciplined, discharged, laid off or otherwise terminated without any obligation of re-employment and there shall be no recourse to the grievance procedure for such action.
- C. Loss of Seniority. An employee shall lose seniority and have the employment terminated for the following reasons:
1. If the employee quits or retires;
 2. If the employee is discharged and the discharge is not reversed through the procedure set forth in this Agreement.
 3. If the employee is absent for two (2) consecutive workdays without notifying the Employer, the Employer will send notification by certified mail to the employee at the last known address that the employee has lost seniority, and such employment will be terminated unless the employee contacts the Employer within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt or five (5) days of mailing providing a showing of good cause. Any disagreement with the termination may be processed under Grievance Procedure.
 4. If the employee fails to return to work at the expiration of a leave of absence or upon notice of recall from layoff. Any disagreement with the termination may be processed under Grievance Procedure. Employees on Employer-approved leaves of absence shall continue to accrue seniority during the period of their leave of absence.

To the extent possible, the Employer will attempt to equalize overtime over a school year within the classification in each building. Except in emergency situations, employees must secure the prior written approval of their Supervisor before working overtime.
- E. Collaboration Time. The District shall provide a minimum of ten (10) minutes of time for elementary classroom paraprofessionals and the teacher to whom the paraprofessional is assigned, to confer prior to the start of the school day. ARTICLE VIII - Layoff & Recall

A. Layoff and Recall.

1. Indefinite Layoff Defined. A layoff is any reduction in hours of thirty (30) minutes or more per day for employees who work six (6) or more hours per day or where a change in insurance benefits would result; or fifteen (15) minutes per day for employees who work less than six (6) hours per day with no change in insurance benefits, for twenty one (21) or more consecutive workdays or for an indefinite period of time.

Where an indefinite layoff is to occur, the affected employee will receive written notice thereof five (5) work days in advance of the layoff.

2. Temporary Layoff Defined. A layoff or a reduction in hours of twenty (20) consecutive workdays or less is regarded as temporary and may be made without regard to the provisions of Paragraph (3) below.

3. Indefinite Layoff Procedure

- a. Whenever an indefinite layoff is to occur, the affected employee in the affected classification shall be laid off first; provided however, that a less senior employee may be retained if a more senior employee does not meet the qualifications and ability necessary to perform the duties of that position, as determined by the Employer, in accordance with the job description.
- b. A paraprofessional so laid off, may bump a paraprofessional with less seniority in the same classification provided the paraprofessional demonstrates the necessary qualifications and ability, as determined by the Employer, in accordance with the job description. If no positions are available in the current classification, the paraprofessional may then bump into another classification where her seniority allows, provided the paraprofessional demonstrates the necessary qualifications and ability, as determined by the Employer, in accordance with the job description. The paraprofessional may not bump or be recalled into a position that results in increased insurance benefits.
- c. A secretary so laid off, may bump any secretary with less seniority in the same classification provided the secretary demonstrates the necessary qualifications and ability, as determined by the Employer, in accordance with the job description. If no positions are available in the current classification, the secretary may then bump into a lower classification where her seniority allows, provided the secretary demonstrates the necessary qualifications and ability, as determined by the Employer, in accordance with the job description. The secretary may not bump or be recalled into a higher classification than the employee was working prior to the layoff.

3. Such employees may utilize accrued paid sick leave when they are unable to work due to a personal illness, injury, or other disability including a disability associated with pregnancy, miscarriage or childbirth. If the day is to be made up, the employee will not be paid for the make up day, unless the employee elects to use an available personal day for such pay.

In the event of termination (re: illness, retirement) the employee's longevity will be figured on the employee's base rate x the number of hours earned to date of termination x the longevity percentage of the agreement.
