Section 1. Union Recognition

- (a) The Board hereby recognizes the International Union of Operating Engineers, Local 324, AFL-CIO, hereinafter called the Union, as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent of the employees covered by this Agreement for the purposes of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment and other conditions of employment.
- (b) The term "employee" as used herein shall include all Kitchen Heads, Cooks and Cafeteria Helpers, excluding Supervisors, per diem substitutes, and all other employees.

Section 2. Agency Shop

- (a) All employees employed in the bargaining unit, or who become employees in the bargaining unit, who are not already members of the Union, shall within forty-five (45) working days of this provision, or within forty-five (45) working days of their hire by the Board, whichever is later, become members, or in the alternative, shall within forty-five (45) working days of their hire by the Board, as a condition of employment, pay the Union a service charge in an amount equal to the regular monthly dues uniformly required of employees of the Board who are members.
- (b) An employee who shall tender or authorize the deduction of membership dues (or service fees) uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or obtaining membership in the Union, shall be deemed to meet the conditions of this Article so long as the employee is not more than sixty (60) calendar days in arrears in payment of such dues (or fees).

- (c) Employees who fail to comply with the provisions of this Article shall be discharged by the Board within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of written notice of such default is delivered to the Board by the Union.
- (d) If any provision of this Article is deemed invalid under Federal or State law, said provision shall be modified to comply with the provision of the law.
- (e) The Union agrees that it will make membership in the Union available to all employees covered by this Agreement on the same terms and conditions as are generally applicable to other members of the Union.
- (f) In the event that the Union refuses to accept any person so hired as a member, said person may continue in employment by paying the monthly fees.

Section 3. Check-Off

- (a) The Board shall deduct the initiation fee and Union dues or service fees from each employee's pay and transmit the total deductions to the Financial Secretary of the Union on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following that month which said deductions were made together with a listing of each employee's identification number, and the amount that is deducted each month, provided however, that the employee shall have submitted to the Board an authorization card signed by the employee from whose pay said deductions are to be made.
- b) Such initiation fees, dues or service fees, as and when deducted shall be kept separate from the Board's general funds, shall be deemed trust funds, and shall be forwarded to the Union forthwith.

Article III

Upon request by the Union and approval of the Building Principal or Director of Business & Finance, and the presentation of proper credentials, officers or accredited representatives of the Union shall be admitted onto the Board's premises during working hours for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not this Agreement is being observed by the parties, or for assisting in the adjusting of grievances, provided, said visitation shall not disrupt orderly operations.

Article IV

- (a) The employees will be represented by a Chief and an Alternate Steward, who shall be chosen or selected in a manner determined by the Union, and whose names shall be made known to the Board in writing.
- (b) Reasonable arrangements may be made to allow the Chief or Alternate Steward released time for the purpose of investigating grievances and to attend grievance and negotiating meetings. Such arrangements must be made with the Director of Business & Finance as to the time and reimbursement for such time off, should the time off fall within the working hours of the affected employee.
- (c) The Chief Steward shall be supplied the following information within a newly hired employee's first week of employment: name, address, date of hire, identification number, classification and job location.

- (b) A bargaining unit member shall be present, and assist as needed, whenever District-sponsored school groups use District kitchen facilities (excluding concession stand areas) for the cooking of food. This provision does not apply to events that require only the preparation and serving of pre-packaged foods.
 - 1. When employees are required to be present and assist at District-sponsored events that meet the above criteria, such work is offered initially to bargaining unit members assigned to the building in which the event is being held. If all bargaining unit members within the building decline the offered work, the work shall be offered to other bargaining unit members on a rotating basis.
 - 2. When such work as described above creates an overtime opportunity, the overtime will be compensated in accordance with Article XV, Section 5 of this Agreement.

Article VIII

Contractual Work

The right of contracting or subcontracting is vested in the Board. The right to contract or subcontract shall not be used for the purpose of undermining the Union, nor to discriminate against any of its members.

Article IX

Seniority

- (a) A newly hired employee shall be on probationary status for a period of ninety (90) working days, taken from and including the first day of employment. In the event that two or more new employees share the same first day of employment, seniority among the new employees will be determined by to the last four digits of the employees' Social Security Number, with the higher numbers prevailing for greater seniority.

If at any time prior to the completion of the ninety (90) working days probationary period, the employee's work performance is unsatisfactory, the employee may be dismissed by the Board during this period without appeal by the Union. Probationary employees who are absent during the first ninety (90) working days of employment, shall work additional days equal to the number of days absent and said employee shall not have completed his/her probationary period until these additional days have been worked.

- (b) Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period, the employee's seniority date shall be retroactive to the employee's date of unit hire. Seniority shall be determined by the employee's continuous service with the Board, subject to the provisions stated in this Article.
- (c) Employees shall be laid off and recalled according to their seniority in their classification.
 - 1. Employees in the unit may be on layoff status for a period not to exceed two (2) consecutive years, or their length of seniority, whichever is less. After that time, employment with Jefferson Schools will be terminated.
 - 2. Necessary employee layoffs will begin with Class II personnel. In the event it is necessary to lay-off a Class I employee, only the least senior Class I employee who is laid off is eligible to bump the least senior Class II employee. If a Class I employee bumps down to a Class II position, he/she will carry his/her unit seniority to the Class II unit position.
- (d) An employee will lose his/her seniority for the following reasons:

Article X

Transfer and Promotional Procedure

Section 1. Vacancies and New Positions

(a) General Notice of all vacancies and newly created positions within the bargaining unit, with the exception of Kitchen Heads, shall be posted on employee bulletin boards within one (1) pay period from the date of the vacancy, and the employees shall be given five (5) working days time in which to make application to fill the vacancy or the new position. The senior employee making application shall be transferred to fill the vacancy or new position, provided the employee has the necessary qualifications to perform the duties of the job involved. Newly created positions or vacancies are to be posted in the following manner: the type of work, the starting date, the rate of pay, the hours to be worked, and the classification. Kitchen Head positions shall be posted and contain the same information as above. However, management reserves the right to select from all applicants without regard to seniority.

(b) Bump/Bid In the event that the assigned hours of a job are either increased or decreased by one (1) hour or more, the Administration will schedule a bump/bid meeting within five (5) working days after the change of assigned hours has taken place. In the event that the assigned hours have been increased or decreased by less than one (1) hour, the Administration will schedule a bump/bid meeting after the end of the school year, but not later than August 21st.

Section 2. Probationary Period

A transferred or promoted employee shall serve a trial period of sixty (60) working days at the base rate of pay for that position. During the sixty (60) working days trial period, the employee may request to return to his/her former position and the Board shall honor such request, or in the event that the employee's work performance is unsatisfactory, the Board shall have the right to return the employee to his/her former position. In the event that the Employer returns the employee to his/her former position, the Board shall give the affected employee the written reason or reasons why his/her work performance was not satisfactory.

During the time period that the employee is serving the sixty (60) working days trial period, the Board may fill the vacated position with a substitute employee. Upon satisfactory completion of the sixty (60) working days trial period, the vacated position shall then be posted for bidding and filled as specified under Section 1, paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Article.

Section 3. Temporary Transfers

- (a) An employee temporarily transferred from his/her classification to another classification within the bargaining unit shall be paid the higher rate of the two (2) positions.
- (b) Temporary transfers shall be for a period of no longer than sixty (60) calendar days except in the event that both parties mutually agree to extend the temporary transfer beyond the sixty (60) calendar days. In the event that it is not mutually agreeable to extend the temporary transfer beyond the sixty (60) calendar days, the position shall then be considered an open position and posted for bidding from interested employees.

Section 4. Temporary Vacancy

In the event of a temporary vacancy within the bargaining unit and such temporary vacancy shall be for a minimum of six (6) months, that vacancy shall be posted as a temporary vacancy. All employees in that kitchen who work a lesser number of hours may bid on the vacancy and the Board shall award the temporary vacancy to the senior employee making application, provided the employee has the necessary qualifications to perform the duties of the job. A temporary vacancy is deemed to be a temporary vacancy provided that it is for a minimum of six (6) months duration and shall be for as long as the regular employee is off the job but is due or scheduled to report back to his/her regular work assignment. All/any openings created by transfers may be filled by a substitute employee. Management shall not be bound to fill the temporary vacancy. Benefit rights are in no way extended to any employee who is a temporary transfer.

Section 1 of this Article shall prevail if the vacancy involves the Kitchen Head. In the event that the employee on temporary leave does not return, the position shall be filled under parts (a) and (b) of Section 1 of this Article.

Article XI

New Jobs

- (a) The Board shall notify the Union, in writing, when new or revised job duties are required during the term of this Agreement. In the event they cannot be properly placed into an existing classification by mutual agreement between the parties, the Board shall place into effect a new classification and a rate of pay for the job in question, and shall designate the classification and pay rate as temporary. The Board shall notify the Union in writing of any such temporary job, which has been placed into effect upon the institution of such job.
- (b) The new classification and rate of pay shall be considered as temporary for a period of thirty (30) calendar days following the date of written notification to the Union. During this thirty (30) calendar day period, but not thereafter during the life of this Agreement, the Union may request, in writing, that the Board negotiate the classification and rate of pay. The negotiated rate, if higher than the temporary rate, shall be applied to the date the employee first began working in the temporary classification, except as otherwise mutually agreed. In a case where the parties are unable to agree on the classification and/or the rate of pay, the issue may be submitted to the grievance procedure. When a new classification has been assigned a permanent rate of pay, either as a result of the Union not requesting negotiations for the temporary classification during the specified period of time, or as a result of final negotiations, or upon resolving the matter through the grievance procedure, the classification shall be added to and become a part of Schedule A of this Agreement.

Article XII

Discipline/Discharge

Dismissal, suspension and/or any other disciplinary action shall be only for just and stated cause(s), which shall be given to the employee in writing, and a copy shall be sent to the Union. The employee shall have the right to defend himself/herself against any and all charges. When the Administration feels disciplinary action is warranted, such action must be initiated within five (5) working days of the date it is reasonable to assume that the Administration became fully aware of the conditions giving rise to the discipline. Among the causes which shall be deemed sufficient for dismissal, suspension, demotion and/or other disciplinary action include but are not limited to: drunkenness, dishonesty, insubordination, moral turpitude, sexual harassment, or willful violation of agreed upon Board rules.

An employee may be dismissed, suspended, or disciplined pending investigation, and if the dismissal, suspension, and/or disciplinary action is found to be without justification, the employee shall be reinstated with full back pay, full seniority rights, and all fringe benefits that the employee would have earned during the dismissal or suspension period. If the dismissal is sustained, or the suspended employee is not reinstated through the grievance procedure, the employee shall be deemed dismissed as of the date such action was taken.

All disciplinary records will remain in an employee's personnel file. However, after a period of four (4) years from the date of the occurrence which initiated the disciplinary action, it shall not be used or referenced for purposes of future disciplinary action.

Article XIII

Leave of Absence

- (a) An employee who because of illness or disability which is non-compensable under the Worker's Compensation Law, is physically unable to report to work and has exhausted all means of allowable compensation from the Board, shall be granted a leave of absence provided the employee promptly notifies the Board of the necessity thereof, and provided further, that the employee supplies the Board with a statement from his/her medical or osteopathic doctor of the necessity and length of time for such absence and for the continuation of such absence when the same is requested by the Board. Length of such leave shall be governed by Paragraph (h) of this Article. However, failure to request such leave of the Board within three (3) working days following the last paid day shall be cause for termination unless the employee can show just cause for such failure.
- (b) Leaves of absence shall be granted for physical or mental illness, prolonged serious illness in the employee's immediate family, which includes husband, wife, children or parents of the employee.
- (c) Leaves of absence shall be granted for a specified period of time for training related to an employee's regular duties in an approved educational institution.

- (e) Unpaid leaves of absence will be granted to employees who are active in the National Guard or a branch of the Armed Forces Reserves for the purpose of fulfilling their annual field training obligations, or in the event the employees are ordered to active duty for the purpose of handling a Civil Disorder, provided such employees make written request for such leave of absence immediately upon receiving their orders to report for such duty.
- (f) Any employee in the bargaining unit who is either elected or appointed to a full time position or office in the Union, whose duties require his/her absence for one (1) term of office or three (3) years for such office or position shall be granted an unpaid leave of absence for that period.
- (g) All requests for leaves of absence shall be in writing, stating the reason for the request and the approximate length of leave requested, with a copy of the request to be maintained by the Board, a copy furnished to the employee, and a copy sent to the Union.
- (h) An employee who meets all of the requirements as herein before specified in the above provisions (parts (a) through (g)) shall be granted a leave of absence without pay, and shall accumulate seniority during the leave of absence, and the employee shall be entitled to resume his/her regular seniority status and all job and recall rights. Leaves of absence may be granted at the discretion of the Board for reasons other than those listed above when they are deemed beneficial to the employee and the Board. Such leaves may be granted for a period not to exceed one (1) year, with such request to be made prior to July 15 to the Director of Business & Finance.
- (j) Any employee on leave not notifying the Board in writing of his/her status by July 15 shall be deemed a quit. Such notification shall be in the form of a request for additional leave if permissible by contract or a desire to return to active status.

Article XIV

Definition:

- (a) A grievance shall be defined as an alleged violation, misinterpretation or misapplication of the express terms of this Agreement.
- (b) For the purpose of processing grievances, working days shall be defined as Monday through Friday, excluding all days school is not in session. If the grievance process extends into the Summer break period, the terms "working days" and "business days" shall be used synonymously to establish timing requirements for all steps of the grievance process.

- (c) The time elements in the steps may be shortened, extended or waived but only upon written mutual agreement between the parties.
- (d) Any employee or Union grievance not presented for disposition through the grievance procedure within five (5) working days of the occurrence of the condition giving rise to the grievance, or within five (5) working days of the date that it is reasonable to assume the employee or the Union, as the case may be, first became aware of the conditions giving rise to the grievance, unless the circumstances made it impossible for the employee or the Union, as the case may be, to know prior to that date, that there were grounds for such a claim, the grievance shall not hereafter be considered a grievance under this Agreement.
- (e) The failure of the Board, at any step level of the grievance procedure, to communicate the decision on the grievance in writing to the Union within the prescribed time limits set forth in that step level of the grievance procedure, shall permit the union to file an appeal of the grievance at the next higher step of the grievance procedure, but shall not be deemed to be an admission as to the substantive merits of said grievance. The time for filing such an appeal shall be measured from the date on which the response to the grievance was due.

Step 1:

- (a) Any employee having a grievance shall discuss the grievance with the Building Administrator and then if the grievance is not settled orally, the employee may request to meet with the Chief Steward to discuss the grievance.
- (b) The Chief Steward then may submit the grievance in writing to the Building Administrator stating the remedy or correction requested plus the facts upon which the grievance is based and the alleged contract violation. The employee and the Steward shall sign the grievance.

Step 2:

- (a) The Chief Steward shall meet with the Building Administrator to discuss the grievance within five (5) working days of his/her meeting with the employee.
- (b) The Building Administrator shall give his/her decision in writing relative to the grievance within five (5) working days of his/her meeting with the Chief Steward.

Step 3:

- (a) In the event that the decision of the Building Administrator is not satisfactory, the grievance shall be appealed to the Director of Business & Finance within five (5) working days from the date of receipt of the decision of the Building Administrator, and the Director of Business &

Finance shall meet with the Business Representative of the Union at a time mutually agreeable to them.

- (b) The Director of Business & Finance shall give his/her decision in writing within five (5) working days of the meeting with the Business Representative of the Union.

Step 4:

- (a) Any appeal of a decision rendered by Director of Business & Finance shall be presented in writing to the Superintendent of Schools within five (5) working days from the date of receipt of the answer given by the Director of Business & Finance, and the Superintendent of Schools shall meet with the Business Representative of the Union at a time mutually agreeable to them.
- (b) The Superintendent of Schools shall give his/her decision in writing relative to the grievance within five (5) working days of the meeting with the Business Representative of the Union.

Step 5:

- (a) Prior to arbitration the parties agree to utilize non-binding grievance mediation. This will be facilitated by a mediator from the Michigan Department of Labor or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The mediator's recommendation is non-binding. If the Union and the Employer do not reach a voluntary settlement the Union may appeal the grievance to arbitration within ten (10) working days after the completion of the mediation.

Step 6:

- (a) If the appealing party is not satisfied with the recommendation of the mediator, then within ten (10) working days from the date of receipt of the mediator's recommendation, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration.
- (b) The appealing party shall request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services to submit a list of five (5) persons to both parties. The representatives of the Board and the Union shall return the submitted list of five (5) persons to the designated mailing address of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services within the specified time period, as is furnished to the parties by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services, and shall indicate as to their individual preference of the arbitrator, by numbering of said arbitrators one (1 - high) through five (5 - low). The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services, upon receipt of the returned list by the parties, shall assign the arbitrator based on the highest preference given by both parties of the persons on said list. That person shall be accepted by both parties as the arbitrator.

- (c) In the event that neither party returns the listing of the arbitrators within the specified time period, the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services shall assign a person as an arbitrator, or in the event that one (1) of the parties fails to return their listing within such time period, the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services shall assign the arbitrator based on the top preference of the party who did return their listing within the specified time period. In either of these cases, both parties shall accept that person as the Arbitrator.
- (d) The Arbitrator, the Union or the Board may call any relevant person as a witness in any arbitration hearing.
- (e) Each party shall be responsible for the expenses of the witnesses that they call.
- (f) The Arbitrator shall not have jurisdiction to subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement, or any written amendments hereof, or to specify the terms of a new Agreement, or to substitute his/her discretion for that of the parties hereto.
- (g) The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties.
- (h) The Arbitrator shall render his/her decision, in writing, not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the conclusion of the arbitration hearing.
