ARTICLE 8
SENIORITY, LAYOFF AND RECALL

- A. Seniority is defined as the length of service (years and months) of the employee within a job-assigned group. A year will consist of ten months. Employees assigned to work during the summer will not gain additional seniority. All employer responsibility to the employee on the basis of seniority is as hereinafter set forth. Upon successful completion of the probationary period, the employee's seniority date shall be retroactive to the first day worked. Seniority accrual will be within the following three distinct groups:

Group 1	Instructional Assistants
Group 2	Breakfast / Lunch Assistants
Group 3	Bus Assistants

- B. Employees shall be regarded as probationary employees until they have satisfactorily completed a sixty (60) work day probationary period of employment within a group. If at any time prior to the completion of the sixty (60) work days probationary period of employment, the employee's work performance is unsatisfactory to the employer, the employee may be discharged by the employer during this period without appeal by the Union. There shall be no further responsibility for the re-employment of such probationary employees if they are laid off during this period.
- C. In order to acquire or accumulate seniority within a group, the employee assigned to the group must work sixty (60) work days of employment, uninterrupted by lay-off or leave of absence. In the event a probationary employee is temporarily laid off and reinstated, or in the event such employee is absent on scheduled work days, said employee shall work additional days equal to the number of days that the employee was absent within the group. Such employee shall not have completed their probationary period until these additional days have been worked.
- D. In the event that two or more employees satisfactorily complete their probationary period within a group on the same date, their seniority shall be determined by adding the last four digits of the affected employees' social security numbers. The highest combination of the last four digits shall result in that employee having the higher seniority.
- E. Seniority lists shall be established and maintained by the employer and made available to the Union designee no later than the end of each semester. Any objections must be submitted in writing with seven (7) work days from the Union designee's receipt of such list. Thereafter, the seniority list shall be considered final and accurate and the district shall incur no liability for relying upon the accuracy of the seniority list.

- F. An employee shall be terminated and lose his/her seniority within all groups if:
1. The employee quits.
 2. The employee is discharged and not reinstated through the grievance procedure.
 3. The employee is absent for three (3) consecutive working days without prior written approval or authorization for a leave of absence without an acceptable reason.
 4. The employee fails to report for work upon notice of recall from layoff, by certified mail to the last known address unless he/she notified the supervisor in writing within three (3) working days from the date of the receipt of the recall notice, exclusive of days when no mail deliveries are made, that the employee is unable to report on that day, but establishes a reporting date within ten (10) working days following receipt of the recall notice. It shall be the employee's responsibility to maintain their current mailing address and/or forwarding address with the Employer.
 5. The employee fails to report for work on the first regularly scheduled work day following a leave of absence or fails to secure an approved extension of a leave of absence.
 6. The employee falsifies personnel records, medical history, criminal record, or falsifies the reason for leave of absence.
 7. The employee is employed elsewhere during a leave of absence without the knowledge of the Employer.
 8. The employee is laid off for a period of time equal to his/her accrued seniority within a group in which the employee has worked.

G. Layoff and Recall

1. Layoff: In the event the Employer determines that it is necessary to reduce or eliminate the number of positions within a group, the Employer shall furnish the affected employee or employees written notice prior to the date the layoff or layoffs are to be effective. Any employee whose position is eliminated or whose available hours within a specified group are reduced by more than five hours per week will have their employment rights determined as follows:

- a. The affected employee or employees on scheduled layoff shall exercise their group seniority within that building and displace a lower seniority employee.
- b. In the event that the employee does not have sufficient seniority within that group to bump and retain a position in that group in that building with available hours within five hours per week of the most previous regular schedule, then the employee shall have the right, at the employee's option, to exercise their group seniority in all buildings and displace the least seniority employee with the nearest equivalent number of hours to the most previous regular schedule within that group, provided that the employee has the then present necessary qualifications to perform the duties of the position as determined by the district.

- c. Any employee who is bumped through this process shall be able to exercise their seniority rights in the same manner described above.
- d. In the event that the employee does not exercise their bumping rights, or in the event that the employee does not have sufficient seniority to be able to bump and retain a position in the group then the employee will be laid off from employment with the employer.
- e. The laid off employee's seniority within his/her group shall become frozen on the date the employee is actually laid off and ceases work as a regular employee in that bargaining unit.

2. Recall: Recall shall be inverse to the order of layoff. Once the vacancy article has been applied and an opening occurs in the laid off employee's former group, then the laid off employee will be recalled to that opening, provided the employee has the then present necessary qualifications to perform the duties of the position.

- a. Notice of recall shall be sent by the Employer to the last known mailing address of the employee in accordance with Section F.4 of this Article.
- b. If an employee is recalled, the employee must accept or reject the recall in accordance with the Section F.4 of this Article. Failure of the employee to abide by Section F.4 of this Article or refusal of the employee to accept the recall will result in the employee's loss of all seniority rights and the employee's employment rights with the employer will be terminated.
- c. Upon recall, the employee will commence accruing seniority as of the date of entry into the group.

H. Seniority accrual during leaves of absences shall be determined in accordance with the following:

- 1. Seniority Accrual: Seniority shall accrue during any paid or unpaid leaves of absence granted in accordance with the terms of this agreement.
- 2. No Seniority Accrual: Seniority shall not accrue, but will remain frozen, during layoff periods.

ARTICLE 9
UNPAID LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Section One: Leaves of Absence Without Pay

The employer and union agree that the business of education requires consistency of personnel in the schools. As such, the request for unpaid leaves of absence will be considered as extraordinary.

Leaves of absence without pay may be granted for reasonable causes. The maximum leave of absence shall not exceed thirty (30) working days, unless extended by the Employer. All requests for unpaid leaves of absence shall be submitted in writing, stating the reason for the request, the approximate length of leave requested, the date the employee is to return to work, with a copy of the request and approval or denial to be maintained by the Employer.

Section Two: Military Leave

- A. Leaves of absence will be granted to employees who are active in the National Guards or a branch of the Armed Forces Reserves for the purpose of fulfilling their annual field training obligations, or in the event that the employees are ordered to active duty for the purpose of handling civil disorders, or other emergencies, provided such employees make written request for such leave of absence, immediately upon receiving their orders to report for such duty.
- B. The reinstatement rights of any employee who enters the military service of the United States by reason of an Act or Law enacted by the Congress of the United States, or who may voluntarily enlist during the effective period of such law, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the law granting such rights.

Section Three: Pregnancy, Disability/Child Care Leaves

- A. Whenever an employee shall become pregnant, she shall by the end of the fourth month furnish the Employer with a written statement from her physician stating the approximate date of delivery and any restrictions on the type of work that she may be able to do, and the length of time that she may continue to work. The Employer may then require periodic verification of the health of the employee in relation to the performance of the employee's normal job duties.
- B. When she is required to interrupt her normal job duties because of such pregnancy, and upon a written statement by a physician that such leave is necessary due to the disability, then the employee shall be granted a leave of absence for the duration of the disability.
- C. The employee shall return to work no later than six (6) weeks after deliver. Upon return, the employee shall furnish the Employer a signed medical statement from her physician, indicating that she is physically able to return to work. If the employee is unable to return to work within six (6) weeks after delivery, the employee must furnish a doctor's statement establishing the fact that she is disabled and is unable to return to work, as well as an indication of the employee's expected date of return. The Employer reserves the right to require the employee to submit to an examination by an Employer-paid physician should the disability period exceed six (6) weeks.

- D. An unpaid leave of absence for child care for up to one year may be granted. A written request must be submitted and approved prior to the start of any leave or extension thereof.

Section Four

An employee who, because of illness or accident which is non-compensable under the Worker's Compensation Law, is physically unable to report to work shall be granted a leave of absence for up to one year commencing on the date the employee exhausts his/her accumulated sick days. Further, the employee shall provide the Employer with written statements from their medical or osteopathic doctor of the necessity of such leave, the length of time for such leave, and for the continuation of such leave when the same is requested by the Employer. The Employer reserves the right to request that the employee be examined by the Employer's physician either prior to granting that leave, or during the time that the employee is actually on the leave, with such examination to be paid at the expense of the Employer.

Section Five

An employee who is granted an unpaid leave as per this Article shall receive no wages or fringe benefits during the unpaid leave of absence. Upon completion of the leave, and upon the employee returning to work, the employee shall be entitled to exercise their seniority status and assume their competitive job and recall rights in relation to other regular employees.

ARTICLE 10

VACANCIES

A. Permanent Vacancies

A permanent vacancy is an opening or newly created position within the bargaining unit which the district is attempting to fill. The Employer shall have the right to establish the qualifications for each position within the distinct groups covered by this Agreement. For purposes of this section, permanent vacancies in Group 2 (breakfast/lunch assistants) will refer to only the opening created by resignation or other method of termination or created position. Posting for breakfast/lunch assistants will happen at the beginning of each semester only. Those wishing to be considered for a different building should specify which building or buildings they wish to be considered for. If an opening for that building(s) come up, the persons expressing an interest will be contacted.

1. Posting

Notice of all such permanent vacancies and newly created positions shall be posted on the employee bulletin board within ten (10) working days of the date of the vacancy, or the establishment of the new position, and employees shall be given five (5) working days in which to make application to fill the vacancy or new positions. The notice will contain the following information:

- a. The group.
- b. The job location.
- c. The starting date.
- d. The number of hours per day.
- e. The rate of pay.

It shall be the designated Union person's responsibility to notify absent employees of the notice of such vacancy. If the employer decides not to fill a vacancy, then within ten (10) working days from the date of the Employer's decision, the Employer shall provide written notification of such decision to the Union.

2. Selection of Applicant

The Employer is committed to the talent that is within the bargaining unit. Selection of applicants for vacant positions shall be determined in accordance with the following:

- a. Internal Transfer Posting: When an available position is identified by the employer, bargaining unit members within that group and within that school will be given the first consideration for the posted vacancy. Seniority will determine the selection among two or more persons meeting the qualifications.

b. District Posting: Qualified bargaining unit members with the group from across the district will be considered next, if there are no qualified internal candidates. Seniority will determine the selection among two or more persons meeting the qualifications.

c. Open Posting: If there are no qualified candidates within the group from across the district, those from other groups in the bargaining unit and external applicants will be considered simultaneously. The applicant most qualified, as determined by the employer, will be selected.

d. Qualifications: Employees currently working in the same classification and qualification area as a posted vacancy will be considered as qualified for the position without having to take additional qualifying tests.

The Employer shall notify all of the applicants in writing within five (5) working days from the date of the selection of the employee who has been awarded the permanent vacancy or newly created position. The employee who is awarded the vacancy or newly created positions shall be placed in the vacant or newly created position within ten (10) working days from his/her selection.

Employees who were not selected for a posted vacancy for which they applied may arrange an informal conference with the administrator responsible for the selection process to discuss the employee's participation in the selection process. The administrator shall describe any deficiencies that may be interfering with the employee's attempt to secure a posted vacancy. Any employer-sponsored in-service and/or training activities available to the employee will be identified during this conference.

3. Additional Hours

In the event the Employer wishes to add additional hours to a group within a building/bus, such additional time initially shall be offered only to the employees within that building in the same group, on the basis of seniority, and provided that such additional time does not place that employee over eight hours in one day. In the event that no employee in the building wishes to work the additional time, the Employer may post the additional time in accordance with this Article.

4. Probationary Period – Vacancies

A transferred employee shall serve a probationary period of sixty (60) work days in the position. During this probationary period, the employee may return to their former position upon request, or the Employer may return the employee to their former position. Group 2

(breakfast/lunch assistants) may choose to return to their former position or the employer may return the employee to their former position only at the end of the probationary period. In the event the employee is returned to their former position by the Employer, the Employer will provide to the employee the written reason or reasons as to why the employee was reverted back to his/her former group. Upon receipt of the written reason or reasons from the Employer, the employee shall have the right to grieve those written reason(s) in accordance with the grievance procedure.

The transferred employee's seniority within his/her former group shall continue to accrue during the sixty (60) working day probationary period, providing the employee continues to work in that group. If the employee transfers out of that group entirely, then his/her seniority shall become frozen in that group and shall not continue to accumulate. If the employee does not revert back to his/her former group during this time, seniority shall commence in the new group upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period and will be retroactive to the first day worked in the new group.

5. By the first week in August, the employer will determine the level of assistant support in all schools and the transportation department. A meeting will be held prior to the third Thursday in August for the purpose of bidding on open positions. This meeting will not be compensated. All instructional assistant positions will be posted. Members will bid by group district seniority for all positions. Positions not bid upon as above will be available to all members who have seniority in that group. The district will send a letter to the address of record of each assistant informing them of the date and time of the bid meeting, no later than one week prior to the bid meeting. Employees who are unable to be present at the bid meeting must submit a proxy statement to the steward(s) indicating their wishes prior to bid day. Once this process is complete and the school year has begun, the normal posting and selection procedure will be followed. Custer 1 and Custer 2 shall be treated as separate buildings for seniority and bidding purposes.

B. Temporary Vacancies:

A temporary vacancy is an open position within the bargaining unit formerly filled by a regular employee who is due to return to work or while a seniority employee is serving a probationary period (as per Section A.3). The Employer shall have the right to either hire a temporary employee or a substitute employee during the duration of the temporary vacancy. In the event that the seniority employee serving the probationary period does not return to their former position, or the regular employee who is off the job and due to return does not return, then as of the date that such determination is made, that position will then be considered a permanent vacancy subject to the terms contained in Section A of this Article.

C. Temporary Transfers:

1. If an employee is involuntarily, temporarily transferred to another position, he/she shall receive the rate of pay for that position, or his/her regularly assigned rate of pay, whichever is greater.

2. If an employee is voluntarily, temporarily transferred to another position, he/she shall receive the rate of pay established by the Employer for substitutes.

ARTICLE 11
NEW JOBS

A. In the event that the Employer establishes and places into effect a new group, the position will be posted, and a copy sent in writing to the Union office.

B. The new group shall be considered as temporary for a period of ten (10) working days, following the date of written notification to the Union. During this ten (10) working days period, but not thereafter during the life of this Agreement, the Union may request in writing to the Employer, to negotiate the new group. In a case where the parties are unable to agree on the new group, the issue will be submitted to the mediator. When final agreement has been reached on the new group between the parties, either as a result of the Union not requesting negotiations or the temporary group during the specified period of time, or upon resolving the matter through mediation, the new group shall be added to and become a part of Schedule A of this Agreement.
