AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT entered into this 18th day of August, 1998, by and between the ST. JOSEPH COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS and the SHERIFF OF ST. JOSEPH COUNTY, MATTHEW J. LORI, hereinafter referred to as the "Employer" and POLICE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION OF MICHIGAN and its Affiliate, the ST. JOSEPH COUNTY POLICE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION OF MICHIGAN, hereinafter referred to as the "Union."

WITNESSETH:

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Agreement includes the promotion of harmonious relations between the Employer, its employees, and the Union, the establishment of equitable and peaceful procedures for the resolution of differences, and the establishment of rates of pay, hours of work and other conditions of employment.

The parties subscribe to the principle of equal opportunities and shall share equally the responsibilities for applying the provisions of this Agreement without discrimination as to age, sex, marital status, race, creed, national origin, political or Union affiliation as required by law.

The Employer and the Union agree to implement to fullest degree friendly and cooperative relations between the respective representatives at all levels and among all employees.

ARTICLE I RECOGNITION

1.1. Pursuant to and in accordance with all applicable provisions of Act 379 of the Public Acts of 1965, as amended, the parties hereto have engaged in collective bargaining with respect to the wages, hours of work, and other conditions of employment for the employees occupying, or who may during the life of this Agreement occupy, the job classifications that follow: All full time and regularly scheduled part-time Corporals and Correction Officers. The following job classifications are excluded from this Agreement: Sheriff, Undersheriff, Captains, Lieutenants, Marine Patrol employees, Posse members, Reserves, Dive Rescue employees, Deputies, Detectives, Sergeants, Temporary, Casuals and all other employees employed by the St. Joseph County Sheriff's Department.

1.2. The Employer agrees that during the life of this Agreement, it will not recognize any organization other than the Union as the collective bargaining agent for the employees occupying, or who may during the life of this Agreement occupy, any of the job classifications outlined in Section 1.1.

ARTICLE II UNION SECURITY

2.1. Membership in the Union is not compulsory. Regular employees have the right to join, not join, maintain or discontinue their membership in the Union as they see fit. Neither the Employer nor the Union shall exert any pressure upon or discriminate against any employee with regard to such matters.

2.2. Membership in the Union is separate, apart and distinct from the assumption by one of his equal obligation to the extent that he has received equal benefits. The Union is required under this Agreement to represent all of the employees in the bargaining unit fairly and equally without regard to whether or not an employee is a member of the Union. The terms of this Agreement have been made for all employees in the bargaining unit not only for members in the Union.

Accordingly, it is fair that each employee in the bargaining unit pay his own way and assume his fair share of the obligation along with the grant of equal benefit contained in this Agreement

2.3. The Employer agrees to deduct Union dues or Union representation fees from employees' paychecks to become effective the first payday of the month, following the employee's successful completion of sixty (60) days of employment. The Union dues or representation fees shall be sent to the Union's designated officer.

The Employer also agrees to deduct from an employee's paycheck the initiation fee of the Union, for those employees joining the Union, which is payable only once when a new hire completes sixty (60) days of employment.

2.4. The Employer agrees to deduct from the wages of each individual employee in the bargaining unit who becomes a Union member, the Union's dues and initiation fee, subject to all of the following conditions:

- (A) The Union shall obtain from each of its members a completed and signed authorization form which shall conform to the respective state and federal law(s) concerning that subject, or any interpretation(s) thereof.
- (B) All checkoff authorization forms shall be filed with the Finance Department, which may return any incomplete or incorrectly completed form to the Union's designated financial officer, and no checkoff shall be made until such deficiency is corrected.
- (C) All employees covered under this Agreement who do not voluntarily choose membership in the Union shall have deducted from their wages a representation fee, after receipt by the Employer of a signed authorization card conforming to state and federal laws, and which sum shall accurately represent the amount for that employee due the Union as their fair share of costs attributable to negotiating the terms of this Agreement and servicing the contract.

- (D) The Employer shall only checkoff obligations which come due at the time of checkoff, and will make checkoff deductions only if the employee has enough pay due to cover such obligation. The Employer is not responsible for refund to the employee if he/she has duplicated a checkoff deduction by direct payment to the Union.
- (E) The Employer's remittance shall be deemed correct if the Union does not give written notice to the Finance Department within two (2) calendar weeks after remittance is transmitted of its belief, with reason(s) stated therefor, that the remittance is incorrect.
- (F) The Union shall provide at least thirty (30) days' written notice to the Finance Department of the amount of Union dues and/or representation fees and/or initiation fee to be deducted from the wages of employees in accordance with this Article. Any changes in the amounts determined will also be provided to the Finance Department at least thirty (30) days prior to its implementation.

2.5. Continued Employment. The Union shall notify an employee who has not paid his/her dues or representation fee by certified mail, with a copy to the Employer. If that employee does not pay the dues or representation fee within thirty (30) days after that notice is received, the Union shall notify the Employer by certified mail of this omission. Fifteen (15) days after receipt of notification by the Employer, the Employer shall terminate that employee.

2.6. Hold Harmless and Indemnification. The Union agrees to defend, indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any and all claims, suits, or other forms of liability arising out of its deduction from an employee's pay of Union dues, representation fees and/or initiation fee, or in reliance upon any list, notice, certification or authorization furnished under this Article or the termination of an employee as provided hereunder. The Union assumes full responsibility for the disposition of the deductions so made once they have been sent to the Union.

ARTICLE III MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

The Employer hereby retains and reserves to itself, without limitation, all powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities conferred upon and vested in it by the laws and the Constitution of the State of Michigan and of the United States, including by way of illustration, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following rights: the management and administrative control of the Sheriff's Department, its properties and facilities and the work related activities of its employees; to determine employees' qualifications and the work related activities of its employees; to hire all employees, to determine their qualifications, and the requirements for their continued employment, or their termination, dismissal; and to promote and transfer all employees; to schedule overtime; to determine schedules of working hours and days; to determine assignments and layoffs; to determine the duties, responsibilities, assignments and other terms and conditions of employment of all of its employees; to determine the qualifications of employees, including physical and/or psychological qualifications; to determine functions, authority, amount of supervision and table of organization; to determine the policy affected selection, testing, recruitment, training or hiring of employees; to determine or modify the responsibilities invested within a position; and to transfer or reduce personnel and to subcontract as authorized hereunder. The exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities by the Employer, the adoption of policies, reasonable rules, reasonable regulations and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith shall be limited only by the specific and express terms of this Agreement, and then only to the extent such specific and express terms hereof are in conformity with the Constitution and laws of the State of Michigan, and the Constitution and laws of the United States. Nothing contained herein shall be considered to deny or restrict the Employer of its rights, responsibilities and authority under the applicable Michigan Laws or any other national, state, county, district or local laws or regulations as they pertain to the Sheriff. In general, all rights except such as specifically abridged or relinquished herein are reserved to the Employer. The Union may grieve a new rule or new regulation as to whether or not it has been reasonably enforced.

ARTICLE IV EXTRA CONTRACT AGREEMENTS

The Employer agrees not to enter into any agreement with another labor organization or any individual employees during the life of this Agreement with respect to the employees covered by this Agreement relative to a subject matter which is a proper subject for collective bargaining unless reduced to a written Letter of Understanding signed by the Union, Sheriff and County Board of Commissioners.

ARTICLE V SUBCONTRACTING

For the purpose of preserving work and job opportunities for the employees covered in this Agreement, the Employer agrees that no work or services presently performed or hereafter assigned to the bargaining unit will be subcontracted in whole or in part to any non-department employees if it would cause a layoff of any of the present employees of the bargaining unit at the date of this Contract.

ARTICLE VI
STEWARDS AND ALTERNATE STEWARDS

6.1. Members of the Union shall select a Steward who is a regular employee to represent them. Members of the Union may also select an alternate Steward who is a regular employee to represent them in the absence of the Steward.

6.2. The Steward, or the alternate in the Steward's absence, during regular working hours, without loss of time or pay, in accordance with the terms of this Article, may present grievances to the Employer, provided the Steward obtains approval from his/her Supervisor prior to presentation of any grievance. The Sheriff may require the Steward to present grievances during non-working hours if the work force cannot properly be maintained.

The privilege of the Steward leaving his work during working hours without loss of time or pay is subject to the understanding that the time will be devoted to the proper presentation of grievances and will not be abused. The Steward and alternate Steward may be required to record time spent. All such Stewards will perform their regular assigned work at all times except when necessary to leave their work to present grievances as provided herein. The bargaining unit shall notify the Employer of the names of all the Stewards and alternates.

6.3. The Employer agrees to recognize a negotiating committee of not more than three (3) employees in the bargaining unit, one of whom shall be the steward, plus a non-bargaining unit representative of the Union's choosing. No negotiating member shall function as such until the Employer has been so advised as provided in section 6.4.

All meetings between the Employer and the negotiating committee shall be at times mutually agreeable to the parties. When any meetings occur during a negotiating committee member's scheduled work time the Employer shall not pay more than two (2) negotiating committee members per session for his/her actual time lost.

6.4. The Union will furnish the Employer with the names of authorized representatives and members of its committee who are employed with the bargaining unit and such changes that may occur from time to time in such personnel so that the Employer may at all times be advised as to the authority of the individual representative of the Union with which it may be dealing.

ARTICLE VII DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

7.1. The Employer shall not discharge or suspend any non-probationary employee without just cause. The Employer and the Union mutually agree in the concept of progressive discipline in respect to discharge and suspension where appropriate. Disciplinary warning notices shall not be used in subsequent disciplinary actions after eighteen (18) months from the date of said warning notice. Discharge must be by proper written notice to the employee and the Union and the Employer shall cite specific charges against the employee.

7.2. The discharged or suspended employee will be allowed to discuss his discharge or suspension with his Steward if readily available and the Employer will make available an area where he may do so before he is required to leave the property of the Employer, unless circumstances warrant the immediate removal of the employee from Employer premises. Upon request, the Employer or his designated representative will discuss the discharge or suspension with the employee and the Steward.

7.3. Should the discharged or suspended employee and the Steward consider the discharge or suspension to be improper, a grievance may be presented in writing through the Steward to the Sheriff within three (3) regularly scheduled working days of the discharge or suspension pursuant to Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE VIII GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.1. A grievance shall be defined as any dispute regarding the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

8.2. All grievances, disputes or complaints arising under and during the life of this Agreement shall be settled in accordance with the procedure herein provided.

Step 1: The Steward and/or the employee may discuss the grievance with the Undersheriff, and in his absence the Captain. If the grievance is not resolved in this manner, it shall be reduced to writing by the Union within five (5) working days after the employee becomes aware or should have known of the occurrence of the event upon which the grievance is based and (1) state the facts giving rise to this grievance; (2) shall identify all of the provisions of this Agreement alleged to be violated by appropriate reference; (3) shall state the contention of the Union with respect to those provisions; (4) shall state the total relief requested; and (5) shall be signed by the grievant and the Steward. The supervisor shall answer said grievance within five (5) working days after receipt of same. Any grievance not complying with the above shall not be valid.

Step 2. If the grievance is not settled in Step 1, the Union may, within five (5) days after the supervisor's answer, request a meeting between Union representatives and the Sheriff and/or his representative to review the matter. Such meetings will be held within ten (10) working days after the date of written request and the Employer will render its decision within seven (7) working days thereafter.

Step 3. In the event the Union wishes to carry the matter further, it shall, within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of the Employer's answer to Step 2 meet with the County Administrator or his/her designee for the purpose of attempting to resolve the dispute. If the dispute remains unsettled, and the Union wishes to carry the matter further, the Union shall file a Demand for Arbitration with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service within thirty (30) calendar days, after the Employer's Step 2 response.

8.3. This submission is to be made within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of the last step answer. Each grievance submitted to arbitration shall be submitted to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in accordance with its voluntary rules and regulations then pertaining, within the time specified above and such rules shall govern the arbitration.

The arbitrator shall have no power or authority to alter, amend, add to, or subtract from the terms of this Agreement, nor to make any recommendation with respect thereto. Both parties agree to be bound by the award of the arbitrator and that the cost of any arbitration proceeding under this provision shall be borne equally between the parties but the fees and wages of representatives, counsel, witnesses or other persons attending the hearing shall be borne by the party incurring them.

8.4. For purposes of this Agreement, "working day" shall be defined as Monday through Friday; Saturdays, Sundays and holidays shall not be considered working days. Time limits of the grievance procedure may be extended in writing by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union.

8.5. If at any step of the grievance procedure the employee is given a response by the Employer and fails to take the grievance to the next step, the grievance shall be deemed settled by the Employer's last answer.

If a grievance which has not been settled at any step of the grievance procedure is not appealed by the Union to the next succeeding step within the time limit provided for such appeal, or extension in writing, such grievance shall be considered as having been withdrawn by the Union. If a grievance is not answered by the Employer within the time limits specified for such answer at any step of the grievance procedure, such grievance shall automatically be advanced to the next step.

8.6. Grievances involving discharge or discipline shall be processed from Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

8.7. Election of Remedies. When remedies are available for any complaint and/or grievance of an employee through any administrative or statutory scheme or procedure, such as, but not limited to, a veteran's preference hearing, civil rights hearing, or Department of Labor hearing, in addition to the grievance procedure provided under this contract, and the employee elects to utilize the statutory or administrative remedy, the Union and the affected employee shall not process the complaint through any grievance procedure provided for in this contract. If an employee elects to use the grievance procedure provided for in this contract and, subsequently, elects to utilize the statutory or administrative remedies, then the grievance procedure provided for hereunder shall not be applicable and any relief granted shall be forfeited. In the event that an Unfair Labor Practice (ULP) is filed by the Union and MERC determines it does not have jurisdiction and remands the matter back for arbitration, the above prohibition shall not apply.

ARTICLE IX SPECIAL CONFERENCES

9.1. Special conferences for important matters, not grievances or continuing negotiations, may be arranged between the Union and the Employer or its designated representative upon the request of either party.

9.2. Such meetings shall be between not more than two (2) representatives of the Employer and not more than two (2) representatives of the Local Union. Arrangements for such special conferences shall be made in advance and an agenda of the matters to be taken up at the meeting shall be presented at the time the conference is requested. Matters taken up in special conferences shall be confined to those included in the agenda. Conferences may be held between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. and limited to one (1) hour duration. The members of the Union shall not lose pay for time lost in such special conferences, if normally scheduled to work. There shall not be more than one special conference per month.

9.3. Special conferences if agreed to shall be scheduled within ten (10) calendar days after the request is made unless otherwise agreed.

ARTICLE X SENIORITY

- (A) Seniority is defined as continuous length of service with the Sheriff Department from the date of hire.
- (B) Classification seniority shall be the length of service in a specific classification covered by this Agreement.
- (C) All full-time employees shall be considered probationary employees until the employee has completed twelve (12) months of work. During the probationary period, the Employee may be terminated without recourse to or without regard to this Agreement, and shall not be entitled to the benefits of the grievance procedure as it relates to discipline and/or discharge. The probationary employee can be terminated for any reason, or for no reason and is an employee at will. Upon completion of the probationary period, the employee's name shall be placed on the seniority list as of his/her last date of hire; provided, however, that if an employee is absent from work for any reason, his/her probationary period shall be extended by a period equal to the duration of such absence.

- (D) Part-time employees shall be considered probationary employees until the employee has completed 2,080 hours of work, subject to the provisions in Section C above.

10.2. Seniority shall not be affected by the race, color, creed, age, sex, or marital status of the employee.

10.3. An employee shall lose his seniority and employment for the following reasons only:

- (A) He quits, retires or receives a pension in accordance with the provisions of the pension program offered for the St. Joseph County Sheriff's Department.
- (B) He is discharged and the discharge is not reversed through the procedure set forth in this Agreement.
- (C) He is absent for two (2) consecutive working days without properly notifying the Employer. After such unreported absence, the Employer will send written notification to the employee by certified mail or hand delivered notification to the employee at his last known address that because of his unreported absence, he is considered to have resigned (voluntary quit) and is no longer in the employ of St. Joseph County. In proper cases, exceptions shall be made upon the employee producing proof of his inability to give such notice due to circumstances beyond his control.
- (D) If he does not notify the Employer, within three (3) days after certified written notification is received by the employee, or the return is received by the Employer, or hand delivered notification to the employee is made, to return to work after layoff, as to the date when he will return, which must be within seven (7) calendar days after the delivery of such notice to his last known address on file with the employer. Exceptions may be made by the Sheriff upon the employee producing proof of his inability to return as required.
- (E) Return from sick leave and leaves of absence will be treated the same as in (C) above.
- (F) If he is laid off during the term of this Agreement for a continuous period equivalent to his seniority, or two (2) years, whichever is less.
- (G) Employees who are promoted to a position outside of the bargaining unit shall continue to accumulate seniority for a period of six (6) months. After six

(6) months, any and all seniority accumulated will be frozen for purposes of this bargaining unit.

- (H) He/she is convicted or pleads guilty or no contest to a felony. Nothing shall preclude the Sheriff from taking appropriate disciplinary action for conviction, pleading guilty or no contest to a misdemeanor.
- (I) He/she intentionally falsifies his/her employment record.

10.4. An employee may request to voluntarily return to the bargaining unit in line with his seniority for the first six (6) months after accepting assignment to a supervisory position within the Sheriff's Department. Thereafter, such a request may be granted only if there is a currently available bargaining unit position.

10.5. If an employee is required to work in a higher classification for eight (8) consecutive hours within the bargaining unit, he or she shall receive the higher rate of pay upon meeting the job requirements. The Sheriff shall utilize his discretion in requiring employees to work in different classifications.

10.6. Employees assigned as road deputies may, at the Sheriff's discretion, be assigned to work in the Jail for up to six (6) months in a twenty-four (24) month period. Such assignment shall not result in the bumping of any non-probationary corrections officers from his/her shift. No road officer shall accumulate any seniority in corrections for purposes of shift selection or vacation preference while working in the Jail. Road patrol officers assigned to the Jail shall be permitted to select their shift. This shall not prevent temporary assignments by the Sheriff when department needs require.

ARTICLE XI LAYOFF AND RECALL

- (A) Layoffs shall be determined by the Board of Commissioners. When there is such a reduction in the work force, the following procedure shall be followed: Temporary, part-time and then probationary employees in the classification affected by the layoff (see Recognition Section 1.1 for classifications) shall be laid off first, and then employees with the least seniority in the affected classification, which shall be seniority classification, shall be laid off, provided the employees with seniority retained have the present ability, skills, and qualifications to perform the available work.

- (A) When the work force is to be increased after a layoff, employees shall be recalled according to seniority within classification (including those who exercised their bumping privilege under 11.1[B]) in reverse order of layoff, provided the employees recalled have the present ability, skills, and qualifications to perform the available work.
- (B) Notice of recall will be by certified mail to the employee's address on file with the Employer, or hand delivered to the employee.

Such request may be denied by the Sheriff if staffing requirements cannot be met, or if such leave will result in overtime for another staff person.

18.7. Employees shall be granted a leave of absence with pay when they are required to report for jury duty.

- (A) Employees who are called to serve on jury duty during scheduled working hours will be compensated for the difference between the rate of pay for the jury duty and the employee's regular rate for the hours scheduled to work and their seniority shall continue. An employee shall return to regularly scheduled employment with the Employer when temporarily excused from attendance at court, provided that there is at least one and one-half (1-1/2) hours remaining of scheduled work. 19.4. An employee eligible for sick leave with pay may use such sick leave upon approval for absence due to exposure to contagious diseases which could be communicated to other employees. It may also be used due to illness in the employee's immediate family, which is limited to spouse, children and parents, when the employee's presence is required but only up to a total of five (5) days per year, which may be extended within the discretion of the Sheriff.

- 1. Continuation of Benefits. All personal leaves of absence shall be without pay and benefits. The only exception to this policy is that the Employer shall continue to pay health insurance premiums for eligible employees employed for at least one (1) year and who have at least 1250 hours of service in the past year (12) months, for up to twelve (12) weeks while the employee is on approved leave of absence under conditions (1), (2), (3) or (4) listed in Section 19.5.a. above. This twelve (12) week period shall include any time in which the employee was continuously absent from work on a paid leave of absence, sick time (except under conditions (3) or (4) listed in Section 19.5.a. above), vacation time, or approved personal leaves of absence under this Section, and the Employer shall have no obligation to pay health care premiums for the employee on unpaid personal leave for any time period after twelve (12) weeks from and after the employee's initial absence from work. Employees may continue insurance coverages at their own expense during approved, unpaid leaves of absence. An employee will not accumulate sick leave or vacation time, nor be paid for holidays which may fall during the leave period.

2. Reinstatement After Leave. When a leave of absence under conditions (1), (2), (3) or (4) of Section 19.5.a. is granted for more than twelve (12) weeks, or for more than thirty (30) calendar days for any other reason, the Employer does not guarantee that the employee will be reinstated in his/her former position or to the same grade and step level when he/she is ready to return to work. That decision will be at the discretion of the Employer.
3. Notice. For leave taken due to the birth of a child or the placement of the child with the employee, and where the leave is foreseeable based on the expected birth or placement, the employee shall provide the Employer with not less than thirty (30) days notice before the date the leave is to begin, except that if the date of the birth or placement requires leave to begin in less than thirty (30) days, the employee shall provide such notice as soon as practicable.

When the employee's leave is due to care of a spouse, child or parent or to the employee's serious health condition and the leave is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the employee:

- a. Shall make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the operations of the Employer, subject to the approval of the health care provider and;
 - b. Shall provide the Employer with not less than thirty (30) days notice before the date leave is to begin, except that if the date of treatment requires leave to begin in less than thirty (30) days the employee shall provide such notice as is practicable.
4. Certification for medical leaves. For leaves taken to care for a sick spouse, child, or parent or due to a serious health condition of the employee, the Employer may require certification issued by the health care provider of the eligible employee or of the child, spouse or parent of the employee, as appropriate. This certification shall be sufficient if it states:
 - a. The date on which the serious health condition commenced;
 - b. The probable duration of the condition;

- c. The appropriate medical facts within the knowledge of the health care provider regarding the condition;
 - d. When applicable, a statement that the eligible employee is needed to care for child, spouse or parent and an estimate of the amount of time that the employee is needed to provide such care;
 - e. When applicable, a statement that the employee is unable to perform the functions of the position of the employee;
 - f. In cases of certification of intermittent leave or leave on a reduced leave schedule for planned medical treatment the dates on which the treatment is expected to be given and the duration of the treatment;

 - h. When intermittent leave or leave on a reduced leave schedule is requested for the purpose of caring for a child, spouse, or parent, a statement that the employee's intermittent leave or leave on a reduced leave schedule is necessary for the care of the child, parent or spouse who has a serious health condition, or will assist in their recovery, and the expected duration and schedule of the intermittent leave or reduced leave schedule.
5. Second opinion. In any case where the Employer has reason to doubt the validity of the certification as outlined above, the Employer may require, at the Employer's expense, if not covered by insurance, that the eligible employee obtain the opinion of a second health care provider designated or approved by the Employer concerning any information certified by the original certification. The provider of the second opinion shall not be employed on a regular basis by the Employer.
6. Resolution of conflicting opinions. When the second opinion described above differs from the opinion in the original certification, the Employer may require, at the expense of the Employer, if not covered by insurance, that the employee obtain the opinion of a third health care provider designated or approved jointly by the Employer and the employee concerning the information certified above. The opinion of the third health care provider shall be final and binding on both Employer and employee.
7. Subsequent recertification. The Employer may require that the eligible employee obtain subsequent recertifications on a reasonable basis.

19.6. Sick leave absences for part of a day shall be charged proportionately in an amount not smaller than two (2) hour increments.

(A) If the Employer has reasonable suspicion or if a pattern of abuse appears, the employee may be required to obtain doctor verification of alleged illness or injury by a doctor selected by the Employer. If not covered by the employee's health insurance, the Employer shall pay for the examination only if the doctor determines that the employee was ill and not able to work.

OR

(B) The Employer can require doctor verification to determine if an employee is able to return to work after being absent for three (3) consecutive days.

OR

(C) The Employer reserves the right to require an employee, at the Employer's expense, if not covered by the employee's insurance, to take a physical or mental examination (1) if it should appear that said employee is having difficulty performing his/her duties, or (2) on return from any kind of leave of absence. The physical or mental examination shall be given by a doctor selected by the Employer. If the employee is not satisfied with the determination of the designated physician of the Employer, he/she may submit a report from a doctor of his/her own choosing at the employee's expense. If the dispute still exists, at the request of the Employer or employee, the designated physician of the Employer and the employee's doctor shall agree upon a third doctor to submit a report to the Employer and the employee, and the decision of such third party shall be binding on all of the parties. The expense of the third party doctor shall be shared equally by the employee and the Employer if not covered by the employee's insurance. On the basis of said examination, the Employer shall take appropriate action.
